The Lost Literature of Socialism George Watson, 1998-09 This controversial study of socialist literature the most significant since 1945 considers the forgotten texts of socialism of the 19th and early 20th centuries and reveals how socialism was often linked to conservative racist and genocidal ideas

The Lost Literature of Socialism (2nd edition) George Watson, 2010-06-30 In his hard hitting and controversial book George Watson examines the foundation texts of socialism to find out what they really say the result is blasphemy against socialism's canon of saints Marx and Engels publicly advocated genocide in 1849 Ruskin called himself a violent Tory and a King's man and Shaw held the working classes in utter contempt Drawing on an impressive range of sources from Robert Owen to Ken Livingstone the author demonstrates that socialism was a conservative nostalgic reaction to the radicalism of capitalism and not always supposed to be advantageous to the poor There have even been socialist monarchs Napoleon III was one Two chapters of the book study Hitler's claim that the whole of National Socialism was based on Marx and bring to light the common theoretical basis of the beliefs of Stalin and Hitler which led to death camps As a literary critic George Watson's concern is to pay proper respect to the works of the founding fathers of socialism to attend to what they say and not what their modern disciples wish they had said The dust grows thick on many of these tomes while present day socialists follow a few ossified slogans plucked selectively from the best known books Socialist ideas are now rescued from priggish and woolly thinking moralists so that genuine debate can be revived This invigorating book forces the reader to abandon long standing assumptions in political thought It is certain to ruffle feathers blue as well as red

Transatlantic Engagements with the British Eighteenth Century Pamela J. Albert,2017-07-12 Transatlantic Engagements with the British Eighteenth Century revisits eighteenth century cultural artifacts through the lens of creative works produced by contemporary writers Beryl Gilroy Guyana Derek Walcott St Lucia Wole Soyinka Nigeria and David Dabydeen Guyana While early studies of post colonization literature focused on how revisions of historical works write back to the British empire this study argues that trans historical cross cultural dialogues also reveal the global complexity of eighteenth century cultural forms i e the periodical essay travel narrative pantomime satirical engraving and slave narrative By transforming the generic form of their eighteenth century sources the African and Caribbean writers in this study strategically call attention to the modes of storytelling utilized by eighteenth century writers Richard Steele Daniel Defoe Jonathan Swift William Hogarth Isaac Bickerstaff and Ignatius Sancho and subsequently expose how the encounters exchanges and acts of resistance taking place around the world influenced aesthetic experimentation in England Transatlantic Engagements with the British Eighteenth Century is thus a reconsideration of eighteenth century literature art and drama However because these engagements with British literature art and drama concurrently reflect twentieth century encounters with neocolonial oppression political violence and racism this study also proposes that engagements with the British eighteenth century double as inquiries into whether the modern world has progressed since the eighteenth century Partners in Wonder Eric Leif Davin,2006-01-01 Partners in Wonder revolutionizes our knowledge of women and early science fiction Davin finds that at least 203 female authors published over a thousand stories in science fiction magazines between 1926 and 1965 This work explores the distinctly different form of science fiction that females wrote offers a comprehensive bibliography of these works and provides biographies of 133 of these women authors The Electronic Media and the Transformation of Law M.
