Literary Research and the Literatures of Australia and New Zealand Faye H. Christenberry,2010-11-19 Literary Research and the Literatures of Australia and New Zealand Strategies and Sources is a research guide to the literatures of the two major countries of Oceania Australia and New Zealand Covering over 200 years of these geographically and chronologically connected countries this guide contains references to many different types of resources illustrating how the researcher is best served by using the increasing variety of research tools in combination with each other The book emphasizes research methodology and outlines the best practices for the research process paying special attention to the unique challenges inherent in conducting research on the literatures of Australia and New Zealand specifically The book includes commentary on general literary reference materials library catalogs print and online bibliographies indexes and annual reviews scholarly journals contemporary reviews period journals and newspapers microform and digital collections manuscripts and archives and web resources It is an essential tool for anyone conducting research on Australia or New Zealand and it is a helpful guide for readers with a special interest in these countries literatures Shaking A Leg Angela Carter,2013-01-31 WITH A NEW INTRODUCTION BY RACHEL COOKE Reading Shaking a Leg is like spending time with the funniest wisest friend you ve ever had a person whose breadth of interest ranges from food to feminism to science fiction and everything in between a person with an entirely unpredictable train of thought but whose exuberance knowledge and insight sweeps you along Bursting with ideas culturally astute and sparkingly witty this comprehensive volume of Angela Carter s journalism is the most down to earth and entertaining companion to latter twentieth century thought you ll ever need The Pain of Unbelonging ,2007-01-01 Beyond the obvious and enduring socio economic ravages it unleashed on indigenous cultures white settler colonization in Australasia also inflicted profound damage on the collective psyche of both of the communities that inhabited the contested space of the colonial world The acute sense of alienation that colonization initially provoked in the colonized and colonizing populations of Australia and New Zealand has recent studies indicate developed into an endemic existential pathology Evidence of the psychological fallout from the trauma of geographical deracination cultural disorientation and ontological destabilization can be found not only in the state of anomie and self destructive patterns of behaviour that now characterize the lives of indigenous Australian and Maori peoples but also in the perpetually faltering identity discourse and cultural rootlessness of the present descendants of the countries Anglo Celtic settlers It is with the literary expression of this persistent condition of alienation that the essays gathered in the present volume are concerned Covering a heterogeneous selection of contemporary Australasian literature what these critical studies convincingly demonstrate is that more than two hundred years after the process of colonisation was set in motion the experience that Germaine Greer has dubbed the pain of unbelonging continues unabated constituting a dominant thematic concern in the writing produced today by Australian and New Zealand authors Peter Carey Mary Ellen

Snodgrass,2010-03-10 Peter Carey writer of such celebrated works as Oscar and Lucinda True History of the Kelly Gang and His Illegal Self is one of Australia s most critically acclaimed novelists Deeply concerned with South Pacific culture especially the lives of its most downtrodden citizens Carey uses popular art as a tool for raising the consciousness of readers This book provides an introduction to the author s life as well as a guided overview of his body of work Designed for the fan and scholar alike this text features an alphabetized fully annotated listing of major terms in the Carey canon including fictional characters motifs historical events and themes Additional features include a listing of headwords a Carey history 44 reading and writing topics and bibliographies of primary and secondary sources A comprehensive index is included Australian

Patriography Stephen Mansfield,2014-11-01 The Son s Book of the Father as Richard Freadman termed it is a rich field of relational autobiography offering a unique set of tensions and insights into modes of masculinity notions of identity and the ethics of representing another s life in writing one s own This study of modern Australian life writing by sons who focus on fathers places an emerging sub genre within its literary ancestry and its contemporary milieu Providing compelling readings of Raimond Gaita s Romulus My Father Peter Rose s Rose Boys and many others this is the first study of its kind within Australian literature Rewriting the Victorians Andrea Kirchknopf,2013-05-28 The 19th century has become especially relevant for the present as one can see from for example large scale adaptations of written works as well as the explosion of commodities and even interactive theme parks This book is an introduction to the novelistic refashionings that have come after the Victorian age with a special focus on revisions of Charlotte Bronte s Jane Eyre and Charles Dickens s Great Expectations As post Victorian research is still in the making the first part is devoted to clarifying terminology and interpretive contexts Two major frameworks for reading post Victorian fiction are developed the literary scene authors readers critics and the national identity political and social aspects Among the works examined are Caryl Phillips s Cambridge Matthew Kneale s English Passengers Peter Carey s Oscar and Lucinda and Jack Maggs Lloyd Jones s Mister Pip Jean Rhys s Wide Sargasso Sea D M Thomas s Charlotte and Jasper Fforde s The Eyre Affair Australian Literary Studies,2003
