Marking Whiteness Sonita Sarker, Jennifer Nesbit, 2025-09-01 The collection is divided into three parts to address the practices of Whiteness in modernist studies Aesthetics Intersectionality and Interdisciplinary Practice We begin with aesthetics because modernism is the aesthetic produced in dynamic relation to the cultural formations of modernity perceived rapid changes in labor transportation technology and perceptions of body mind and even character Essays in this section examine how the production of Whiteness is baked in as a positive value in assessing the value of cultural production The second section focuses on the embodiment of Whiteness primarily through the gendered and racialized female body as a deflective practice that unmarks Whiteness while making it central to cultural crises around morality national borders and futurity The third section considers the tacit prioritization of Whiteness as a positive value through institutional structures and pedagogical practice these case studies ruminate on the generative potential of isolating and marking these effects In each essay scholars examine the stakes of marking Whiteness as a category of analysis distinct from yet wholly imbricated with racial categorization given the potential for reification inherent in all strategies of marking

Whiteness and Racialized Ethnic Groups in the United States Sherrow O. Pinder, 2012-01-01 Whiteness and Racialized Ethnic Groups in the United States in order to account for the never ending discrimination toward racialized ethnic groups including First Nations blacks Chinese and Mexicans revisits the history of whiteness in the United States It shows the difference between remembering a history of human indignities and recreating one that composes its own textual memory More specifically it reformulates how the historically reliant positionality of whiteness as a part of the everyday practice and discourse of white supremacy would later become institutionalized Even though whiteness studies with the intention of exposing white privilege has entered the realm of academic research and is moving toward antiracist forms of whiteness or at least toward antiracist approaches for a different form of whiteness it is not equipped to relinquish the privilege that comes with normalized whiteness Hence in order to construct a post white identity whiteness would have to be denormalized and freed of it of its presumptive hegemony

On Whiteness, 2020-05-18 The essays cover an astonishing range of subject matter from mental health and plastic surgery to literature music political philosophy performance popular culture and history They interrogate the dominance of whiteness exposing the underpinnings of white privilege and considering its global consequences Unbecoming Blackness Antonio Lopez,2012-11-26 2014 Runner Up MLA Prize in United States Latina and Latino and Chicana and Chicano Literary and Cultural Studies In Unbecoming Blackness Antonio Lopez uncovers an important otherwise unrecognized century long archive of literature and performance that reveals Cuban America as a space of overlapping Cuban and African diasporic experiences Lopez shows how Afro Cuban writers and performers in the U S align Cuban black and mulatto identities often subsumed in the mixed race and postracial Cuban national imaginaries with the material and symbolic blackness of African Americans and other Afro Latinas/os In the works of Alberto O Farrill Eusebia Cosme R mulo Lachata er and others Afro Cubanness articulates the African diasporic experience in ways that deprive negro and mulatto configurations of an exclusive link with Cuban nationalism Instead what is invoked is an unbecoming relationship between Afro Cubans in the U S and their domestic black counterparts The transformations in Cuban racial identity across the hemisphere represented powerfully in the literary and performance cultures of Afro Cubans in the U S provide the fullest account of a transnational Cuba one in which the Cuban American emerges as Afro Cuban American and the Latino as Afro Latino The White Man's World Bill Schwarz,2011-10-27 The White Man's World explores ideas of the white man during the last 100 years of the British Empire Working back from Enoch Powell's Rivers of Blood speech of 1968 it discusses the racial assumptions that accompanied the founding of colonial Australia South Africa and Rhodesia colonies which were popularly known as white men's countries Whiteness and Class in Education John Preston,2007-08-08 Like many of my friends I didn't really realise that I was working class until I went to university Suddenly what I thought as normal became subtly and not so subtly differentiated as I came into close contact with the middle classes I had not known a time though when I hadn't been white but I didn't really realise that I was white until I read David Roediger's 1991 book The Wages of Whiteness Through reading this work and others on the topic of whiteness the sense of my own whiteness became palpable to me Namely that what I naively thought to be a timeless property of my skin was a social construction that had acquired so much symbolic weight over time that it had become seemingly real a racial formation and project This was with consequences in that a good part of my actual and psychological labour market and other employment benefits were not part of a meritocratic system but due to the oppression of people of colour This might be part of a system that I at the time associated only with the far right a system of white supremacy Fundamentally my skin was property and the gains that I had made through it were at the expense of others I was a so called white Ignatiev and Garvey 1996 who everyday made a political decision to not commit treason to whiteness Diaspora and Hybridity Virinder Kalra,Raminder Kaur,John Hutnyk,2005-10-10 Diaspora Hybridity deals with those theoretical issues which concern social theory and social change in the new millennium The volume provides a refreshing critical and illuminating analysis of concepts of diaspora and hybridity and their impact on multi ethnic and multi cultural societies Dr Rohit Barot Department of Archaeology and Anthropology University of Bristol What do we mean by diaspora and hybridity Why are they pivotal concepts in contemporary debates on race culture and society This book is an exhaustive politically inflected assessment of the key debates on diaspora and hybridity It relates the topics to contemporary social struggles and cultural contexts providing the reader with a framework to evaluate and displace the key ideological arguments theories and narratives deployed in culturalist academic circles today The authors demonstrate how diaspora and hybridity serve as problematic tools cutting across traditional boundaries of nations and groups where trans national spaces for a range of contested cultural political and economic outcomes might arise Wide ranging richly illustrated and challenging it will be of interest to students of cultural studies sociology ethnicity and nationalism

The Power of Love for Reaching Out to "the Other" Johnny Ramirez-Johnson, 2023-08-24 Race is a result of God's design and not of sin God loves diversity and sought it Race biases are normal and come as a result of likes and dislikes love of the other is to be learned In this book Bible stories and principles are combined with four intercultural communication skills to help develop love of the other This book builds on what Sherwood Lingenfelter and Marvin K Mayers developed for understanding cultural values and diversity of likes and dislikes Those differences are normal The problem comes from excluding the other This book explores a step wise approach to developing the love of the other How the person the leader and the church see diversity defines the church's outreach mission and gospel fulfillment Author's Own Words Book Description The Power of Love book explains how emotions and feelings were part of God's creation design from before sin entered this world While departing from cognitive neuropsychology and the latest learning from science this seminar furthers the idea that race relations are not to be understood by sociology and science but by Bible and Christian beliefs If you want to learn a non CRT critical race theory approach to race relations while risking being again convicted of the need to reach out to the other in gospel love enter into dialogue with the author by reading his book and let us pray together If you want to keep it safe and your intercultural relationships as they are in a tongue in cheek way the author advises to stay away from this book

The Men and Women We Want Jeanne D. Petit, 2010 Should immigrants have to pass a literacy test in order to enter the United States Progressive Era Americans debated this question for more than twenty years and by the time the literacy test became law in 1917 the debate had transformed the way Americans understood immigration and created the logic that shaped immigration restriction policies throughout the twentieth century Jeanne Petit argues that the literacy test debate was about much more than reading ability or the virtues of education It also tapped into broader concerns about the relationship between gender sexuality race and American national identity The congressmen reformers journalists and pundits who supported the literacy test hoped to stem the tide of southern and eastern European immigration To make their case these restrictionists portrayed illiterate immigrant men as dissipated dependent paupers immigrant women as brood mares who bore too many children and both as a eugenic threat to the nation's racial stock Opponents of the literacy test argued that the new immigrants were muscular virile workers and nurturing virtuous mothers who would strengthen the race and nation Moreover the debaters did not simply battle about what social reformer Grace Abbott called the sort of men and women we want They also defined as normative the men and women they were unquestionably white unquestionably American and unquestionably fit to shape the nation s future Jeanne D Petit is Associate Professor of History at Hope College
