Christopher J. Keller

Out Walking Reflections On Our Place In The Natural World:

Living in the Lamblight Hans Boersma, 2001-01-08 In recent decades many fundamental Christian assumptions about the nature of God and the world have come under attack No longer can one assume even in many church circles that historic Christian beliefs about the Trinity and providence are generally accepted or understood Scientific knowledge and new technologies have also presented challenges for the church How for example should Christians understand the ecological crisis And how should the opening chapters of Genesis be understood in an age of genetic research and evolutionary science This collection of essays attempts to chart a faithful path for postmodern Christians exploring the foundational ideas and concepts of a Christian worldview and suggesting their implications for Christian living today Contributors Hans Boersma John Cooper Marva J Dawn Michael W Goheen Christopher D Marshall Arnold E Sikkema John G Stackhouse Jr Rikki E Watts John R Wood

The Other Journal: The Food and Flourishing Issue Christopher J. Keller, 2012-01-18 Issue 19 of The Other Journal examines our complex relationships with food from a theological bent The thoughtful contributors to this issue take us to Middle Earth and the Romanian city of Constanta They swing by swank Manhattan bistros and raucous NFL stadiums on game day But most importantly they return us to the communion table and to that first garden where God walked with us and gave us the gift of his creation The issue features essays by Elizabeth L Antus Peter M Candler Jr William T Cavanaugh Matthew Dickerson David Grumett Ryan Harper Chelle Stearns Stephen H Webb and David Williams interviews by Daniel Bowman Jr Heather Smith Stringer and Jon Tschanz with John Leax Lee Price and Norman Wirzba and creative writing poetry and art by Chris Anderson B L Gentry John Leax Katherine Lo Robert Hill Long Lee Price and Alissa Wilkinson

For the Love of All Creatures William Greenway, 2015 Fresh biblical take on a transcending divine grace that embraces all of God's creatures This broad ranging groundbreaking book by William Greenway unfolds a biblical spirituality centering on love for all creation and all creatures Greenway rereads the creation and flood narratives in Genesis from an overtly creature loving perspective that not only inspires care for creation but also reveals sophisticated understandings of faith grace and evil vital for twenty first century spirituality Comparing the ancient Israelite cosmology of Genesis both with the ancient Babylonian cosmology of the Enuma Elish and with the modern Darwinian cosmology of Thomas Hobbes's Leviathan Greenway shows how the Bible in Genesis extends far beyond those other cosmologies in its discernment of the transcending gracious love of God Standing at the intersection of animal rights green biblical studies and philosophical theology Greenway's For the Love of All Creatures will interest and inform a wide range of readers

Death by Baptism Frank G. Honeycutt, 2021-08-24 Our days are filled with a variety of known and lurking fears Christians who name Jesus as Lord on Sundays are inundated with stories real and imagined inducing fear and caution throughout the week random violence health concerns the perceived threat of people different from us and economic worries to name a few News sources and national political leaders manipulate these fears in a fashion that threatens and sometimes usurps the church's ultimate trust in

Christ A pastoral assumption at the core of this national anxiety is the looming fear of death spawning various supplemental protections that have little to do with the promises of Christ This fear of death and the false promises claiming to shield us from such may prompt us to nudge the One we call Lord to the margins of daily life or even solely to the afterlife a savior we ll all meet in heaven one day but whose quaint teachings have little to do with problems we re now facing In this book gifted storyteller Frank G Honeycutt calls on his many years of pastoral experience to examine one of the most stunning and overlooked theological claims of the New Testament how baptism radically unites followers of Christ in his death and resurrection In baptism we have already died Romans 6 Disciples commence life in the kingdom on this side of the grave Believing this with theological rigor and trust relieves personal and corporate anxiety about any day in the future when a believer stops breathing

Out Walking John Leax, 2000-03-01 The earth is the Lord s writes Leax it is not ours to use as we please But because we are fallen and are in the process of being restored our attempts to live responsibly are inevitably incomplete half understood and sometimes simply wrong In this entertaining but thought provoking book John Leax admitting his own ineffectual bumbling thinks out loud about our place in the natural world Though he doesn t claim to have all the answers he suggests that the tension between culture and nature is best resolved through our living respectfully in relationship to the earth restraining ourselves in our use of it By taking pleasure in the small gestures toward wholeness that can be made in the confusion around us Leax demonstrates the richness of such a friendship This beautifully written and designed book includes a section of poetry and would make an excellent gift In these beautifully written reflections on his experiences in his woodlot garden and forays into nature Leax prompts readers to think about the place of people in the natural world
