NO CONTEST

THE CASE AGAINST COMPETITION

[Why we lose in our race to win]

ALFIE KOHN

"A really impressive piece of work. Challenging and thoughtful, it reaches to the heart of many problems of our social life." — Noam Chomsky

No Contest The Case Against Competition

Ellen Schwartz, Suzanne Stoddard

No Contest The Case Against Competition:

No Contest Alfie Kohn, 1992 Argues that competition is inherently destructive and that competitive behavior is culturally induced counter productive and causes anxiety selfishness self doubt and poor communication The New Way to Compete Harry A. Olson, 1998-12 The Youth Sports Crisis Steven J. Overman, 2014-10-14 This provocative critique of the youth sports movement examines the various issues surrounding children in sports and provides a plan for reform based on a change in philosophy and practice Many American children spend more than 20 hours a week in organized sports forgoing free time and unstructured recreational activities for the rigors of training and competition This book offers a comprehensive critique of the youth sports movement pitting the reality of adult run sports programs against the needs and interests of children It examines whether the tradeoff of normal play time for structured sports activities teaches discipline and leads to stronger character development or if the pressures of the game the physical strain of practicing and the general overscheduling of children s lives have eroded the benefits associated with playing sports Educator and former coach Steven J Overman contends that youth based sports programs require a radical change for the well being of the young participants The book explores the various problems in organized sports including stress on the family physical health hazards violence emotional duress elitism and hyper competitiveness Incorporating the perspectives of coaches athletes parents physicians and social scientists the narrative scrutinizes the role of adults as promoters and coaches and concludes with a discussion of current and needed reforms Principles and Practices in Interscholastic Athletics James Harry Humphrey, 2002 Principles Practices in Interscholastic Athletics Guidelines for Administrators Envy, Competition and Gender Leyla Navaro, Sharan L. Schwartzberg, 2007-03-12 Envy Competition and Gender provides a unique perspective on gender difference in relation to envy and competitiveness reframing and de demonizing these difficult emotions and revealing their potentially creative power Incorporating perspectives from psychology psychiatry social work sociology and education this book provides a comprehensive overview of theories and ideas on the links between gender envy and competition The book is divided into three sections covering the individual and development therapeutic implications and therapeutic applications in broader social and cultural contexts Individual and group case stories are included throughout to illuminate discussion of crucial issues such as men masculinity and competition gender differences in envying and being envied the evolution of the female self envy and generativity owning our inner resources envy in body transference and countertransference envy and desire revenge and retaliation This interdisciplinary multicultural and international perspective on envy and competition in relation to gender will be of great interest to all psychotherapists and related mental health professionals interested in investigating the positive potential of these powerful emotions Beat Boredom Martha Rush, 2023-10-10 Are your students bored in class According to research a majority of American high school students report being bored in class and fewer than 5% claimed that they were rarely bored during a typical day in school Former journalist and veteran teacher Martha Rush decided this would not do for her Minnesota students Moving beyond asking open ended questions and making connections to their own lives Martha began to engage her government journalism and economics classes in meaty discussions competitions simulations and authentic work like running a newspaper or starting a business Building on her more than 800 interviews with high school graduates she offers up strategies in all subject areas for active engagement moving way beyond traditional passive memorization of information She describes how to create innovative experiences in your classroom and shares her own lessons and her students work Beat Boredom will help you join the ranks of teachers who have challenged the status quo and found ways to motivate even the most reluctant learners Taking Back Our Lives in the Age of Corporate Dominance Ellen Schwartz,Suzanne Stoddard,2000-01-13 The authors show how our advertising driven culture causes material desires to grow with no corresponding increase in personal time or energy to pursue them Foundations of Sport and Exercise Psychology, 6E Weinberg, Robert S.,Gould, Daniel,2014-09-22 As the leading text in sport and exercise psychology Foundations of Sport and Exercise Psychology Sixth Edition provides a thorough introduction to key concepts in the field This text offers both students and new practitioners a comprehensive view of sport and exercise psychology drawing connections between research and practice and capturing the excitement of the world of sport and exercise Foundations of Sport and Exercise Psychology Robert S.
