Face Value Autumn Whitefield-Madrano, 2016-06-21 A fascinating look The Boston Globe at how we think and talk about beauty in the twenty first century and the unexpected and often positive way that beauty shapes our lives For decades we ve thought of beauty as a negative influence in our lives We feel insecure in the face of retouched impossibly perfect images We worry primping and preening are a distraction and a trap But in Face Value journalist Autumn Whitefield Modrano dispels this one sided beauty myth and examines the relationship between appearance and science social media sex friendship language and advertising to show how beauty actually affects us day to day Through meticulous research and interviews with dozens of women across all walks of life she reveals surprising findings like wearing makeup can actually relax you you can convince people you re better looking just by tweaking your personality and the ways beauty can be a powerful tool of connection among women Provocative and empowering it celebrates a relaxed brand of feminism one in which it s equally okay to feel fierce in your fake eyelashes and confident when going makeup free Face Value is an immensely valuable work one that seamlessly and impressively combines the tropes of the academic lit review and the memoir and the work of cultural criticism into an engaging and timely follow up to The Beauty Myth The Atlantic

Wear No Evil Greta Eagan, 2014-03-11 Have you ever wondered How can I inherently do good while looking good Wear No Evil has the answer and is the timely handbook for navigating both fashion and ethics It is the style guide with sustainability built in that we've all been waiting for As a consumer you regain your power with every purchase to support the causes and conditions you already advocate in other areas of your life such as local or organic food while upholding your sense of self through the stylish pieces you use to create your wardrobe Featuring the Integrity Index a simplified way of identifying the ethics behind any piece of fashion and an easy to use rating system you'll learn to shop anywhere while building your personal style and supporting your values all without sacrifice Fashion is the last frontier in the shift towards conscious living Wear No Evil provides a roadmap founded in research and experience coupled with real life style and everyday inspiration Part 1 presents the hard hitting facts on why the fashion industry and our shopping habits need a reboot Part 2 moves you into a closet cleansing exercise to assess your current wardrobe for eco friendliness and how to shop green Part 3 showcases eco fashion makeovers and a directory of natural beauty recommendations for face body hair nails and makeup Style and sustainability are not mutually exclusive They can live in harmony It's time to restart the conversation around fashion how it is produced consumed and discarded to fit with the world we live in today Pretty simple right It will be once you've read this book Wear No Evil gives new meaning and the best answers to an age old question What should I wear today

Is There a Boy Like Me? Carter Kern,2024-10-01 A powerful novel that challenges the limitations and pressures placed on boys today London feels stuck His school friends think he's this confident kid who likes video games and will kick your butt if you get on his bad side His high achieving parents think he's a genius coder and are pushing him to pursue that as a future career None of this is true London feels anxiety in crowds and what he really wants to do is be by himself and read books Not knowing what else to do London starts an anonymous online comic called Is There A Boy Like Me where he expresses his true feelings and explores what his life would be like if he could just be who he wanted to be When the comic goes viral it starts a global conversation about what being a boy really means with London directly in the middle of it all

The Lore of the Playground Steve Roud,2010-10-31 From conkers to marbles from British Bulldog to tag not forgetting one potato two potato and eeny meeny miny mo The Lore of the Playground looks at the games children have enjoyed the rhymes they have chanted and the rituals and traditions they have observed over the past hundred years and more Each generation it emerges has had its own favourites hoops and tops in the 1930s clapping games more recently Some pastimes such as skipping have proved remarkably resilient their complicated rules carefully handed down from one class to the next Many are now the stuff of distant memory And some traditions have proved to be strongly regional loved by children in one part of the country unknown to those elsewhere All are brilliantly and meticulously recorded by Steve Roud who has drawn on interviews with hundreds of people aged from 8 to 80 to create a fascinating picture of all our childhoods I Should Have Written That Down: A Book Of Random Poems S.M.
