No Rules of Engagement Tracey Richardson, 2009-10-13 With wounded soldiers all around her Major Logan Sharp doesn't have time to pamper some photographer from stateside What spare energy she does have goes to worrying what she'll do when she ships home from Afghanistan Home for Logan the word means nothing But photographer Jillian Knight is not what she expects and certainly not what she needs complicating her last tour Leaving her partner and daughter at home Jillian Knight is on assignment in Kandahar to record the heroic work of medical units in war zones She knows it'll be rough but Logan Sharp's dedication and competence is reassuring Jillian finds herself looking forward to her encounters with the intriguing military doctor understanding that by the rules demeanor is a must for surviving in a land where life is cheap Under the pressures of danger and conflict the intense feelings of comrades threaten to overwhelm their good sense but they follow the rules After a single heart stopping kiss they do the only thing they must say goodbye Keeping in touch is not part of the plan but when their paths cross unexpectedly more than a year later abiding by the rules is suddenly much harder than they ever expected Two unforgettable women try to figure out the rules for their own lives and the future in Tracey Richardson's romantic novel of wartime and coming home

Biopolitics of the More-Than-Human Joseph Pugliese, 2020-10-23 In Biopolitics of the More Than Human Joseph Pugliese examines the concept of the biopolitical through a nonanthropocentric lens arguing that more than human entities from soil and orchards to animals and water are actors and agents in their own right with legitimate claims to justice Examining occupied Palestine Guantanamo and sites of US drone strikes in Afghanistan Pakistan Somalia and Yemen Pugliese challenges notions of human exceptionalism by arguing that more than human victims of war and colonialism are entangled with and subject to the same violent biopolitical regimes as humans He also draws on

Indigenous epistemologies that invest more than human entities with judicial standing to argue for an ethico legal framework that will enable the realization of ecological justice Bringing the more than human world into the purview of justice Pugliese makes visible the ecological effects of human war that would otherwise remain outside the domains of biopolitics and law
