It focuses on a divorced couple who discover that they are honeymooning with their new spouses in neighbouring rooms at the same hotel. Despite a perpetually stormy relationship, they realise that they still have feelings for each other. The play has fascinated various literary theorists. Its second act love scene was nearly censored in Britain as too risqué. Coward wrote one of his most popular songs Some Day I'll Find You for the play. After touring the British provinces, the play opened at the new Phoenix Theatre in London in 1930, starring Coward, Gertrude Lawrence, Adrienne Allen, and Laurence Olivier. A Broadway production followed in 1931, and the play has been revived at least a half dozen times each in the West End and on Broadway. The leading roles have attracted a wide range of actors; among those who have succeeded Coward as Elyot are Robert Stephens, Richard Burton, and Alan Rickman.
