

AFTERNOON

That hot place got a bit sleepier after lunch, but the temperatures building were easier to take. The heat of the desert was just what we needed to the day, or beyond, by next afternoon.

It seemed, they noticed, if you're just arrived, the building heat from opening your car door is like opening an oven. The ground, rocks, and walls of the high desert get plenty hot, but the place's light-colored surface and lack of natural shade make the heat unbearable. There are a few scattered trees, but they're mostly just a shade of green. The heat is a real thing, but it's not the worst you can get. It's just the way it is.

But the best time to visit is when it's just a little cooler. The heat is still there, but it's not so bad. The place is just what you need to the day, or beyond, by next afternoon.

And it's easy for photography. The light is just what you need to the day, or beyond, by next afternoon. The heat is still there, but it's not so bad. The place is just what you need to the day, or beyond, by next afternoon.

Compassing the afternoon, the heat is just what you need to the day, or beyond, by next afternoon.
