No Longer Silent The Empowerment Of Women In The Gospels:

No Longer Silent Susan Dehn Matthews, 2011-11-01 The story of Jesus of Nazareth has been called the greatest story ever told but what role do women play in that story In No Longer Silent author Susan Dehn Matthews attempts to highlight the women in the Gospels and provide the background behind those important women Matthews starts by noting that women in the Gospels were deliberately disempowered in order to maintain their presumed dependence both in Scripture and in society She then goes to the give voice to the minds and hearts of the women of the gospels who have been marginalized or ignored altogether As she writes Each women whose story is recounted here is remarkable precisely because through the power of an encounter with Jesus she discovered within herself the Divine energy that allowed her to offer her unique gift to the world Some of the women Matthews writes about include Elizabeth Mary of Nazareth Mary at the Wedding of Cana The widowed mother of Nain The woman accused The mother of James and John The sisters of Lazarus The wife of Pilate Mary Magdalene and Joanna

No Longer Silent Susan D. Flying in the Face of Tradition Louis DeThomasis, FSC, 2012-06-01 The current quandary that the Roman Catholic Church finds itself in right now is what Brother Louis DeThomasis calls a crisis of confidence in this insightful provocative and hopeful new book He points to the way of unraveling the quandary by returning the church s historic belief in tradition the lived experience of the faithful as a source of ongoing revelation and renewal This is not an attack by someone intent on bringing down the church but rather a wake up call for the church itself to recognize and embrace globalization diversity and democratization and begin to rebuild what DeThomasis calls koinonia or communio He uses the issue of the ordination of women as a case study of how the institutional church has fallen out of step with its own members but could work its way back to relevance and effectiveness by listening to them Brother Louis makes it clear that he is not just criticizing others I know that I am guilty as anyone of many of the sins decried in this book I too have been insensitive closed minded arrogant self centered too quick to defend the indefensible and overly protective of myself and my fellow church members For this I am sorry And for this reason I offer my book as a small token of atonement But he does insist that the institutional church has to change quickly and fundamentally if it is to recover its creditability and authority People like him who have dedicated their entire lives to the church have to speak up he says I am a 70 year old De LaSalle Brother entering my well developed understandings about the church that I feel I have not only a right but a duty to present to whomever might want to listen

Men in the Pulpit, Women in the Pew? H. Jurgens Hendriks, Elna Mouton, L. Bodies, Embodiment, and Theology of the Hebrew Bible S. Tamar Kamionkowski, Wonil Kim, 2010-05-20 Recognizing that human experience is very much influenced by inhabiting bodies the past decade has seen a surge in studies about representation of bodies in religious experience and human imaginations regarding the Divine The understanding of embodiment as central to human experience has made a big impact within religious studies particularly in contemporary Christian theology feminist cultural and ideological criticism and anthropological approaches to the Hebrew Bible Within the sub field of theology of the Hebrew Bible the conversation is still dominated by assumptions that the God of the Hebrew Bible does not have a body and that embodiment of the divine is a new concept introduced outside of the Hebrew Bible To a great extent the insights regarding how body discourse can communicate information have not yet been incorporated into theological studies

A History of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians 1989-2007 Fiedler, Rachel NyaGondwe, 2017-09-28 When African Theology was first formulated women played just a small role In 1989 Mercy Amba Oduyoye set out to change this by creating the Circle of Concerned African Theologians in order to give them a voice The Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians is an African Baby born in an ecumenical surrounding Though there were other movements addressing the issue of gender inequalities in church and society circle theologies are distinct from other women s liberation movements in that they are theologies formed in the context of African culture and religion This book traces the Circle history from 1989 to 2007

Biblical Women's Voices in Early Modern England Michele Osherow, 2016-12-14 Biblical Women s Voices in Early Modern England documents the extent to which portrayals of women writers rulers and leaders in the Hebrew Bible scripted the lives of women in early modern England Attending to a broad range of writing by Protestant men and women including John Donne Mary Sidney John Milton Rachel Speght and Aemilia Lanyer the author investigates how the cultural requirement for feminine silence informs early modern readings of biblical women s stories and furthermore how these biblical characters were used to counteract cultural constraints on women s speech Bringing to bear a commanding knowledge of Hebrew Scripture Michele Osherow presents a series of case studies on biblical heroines juxtaposing Old Testament stories with early modern writers and texts The case studies include an investigation of references to Miriam in Lady Mary Sidney s psalm translations an unpacking of comparisons between Deborah and Elizabeth I and importantly a consideration of the feminization of King David through analysis of his appropriation as a model for early modern women in writings by both male and female authors In deciphering the abundance of biblical characters citations and allusions in early modern texts Osherow simultaneously demonstrates how biblical stories of powerful women challenged the Renaissance notion that women should be silent and explores the complexities and contradictions surrounding early modern women their speech and their power

Women Empowerment and the Feminist Agenda in Africa
 Musingafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando, Hungwe, Chipso, 2023-10-24
 This book argues that African women's lived experiences are often spoken about authoritatively by people who are not included within this demographic relegating these women to the role of spectators in their own stories. The dominant narratives of African womanhood legitimized by intellectual discourse are neither written by African women nor Africans in general. This book seeks to place feminism in Africa into its historical context by revisiting the experiences practices vision and theories of feminism and gender in Africa. It is intended to serve as a comprehensive introduction to the field and provide a starting point for further and more advanced study of the nexus of feminism gender and development in Africa. Women Empowerment and the Feminist Agenda in Africa is designed to initiate post graduate research and studies in the social sciences for directed and critical inquiry into the nature of feminist and gender politics and power relations in Africa. It is written for researchers academics and advanced tertiary studies although professional gender and feminist organizations especially those in Africa or focusing on Africa will also find a wealth of information. The book is recommended for university libraries post graduate students and staff the non governmental community in Africa women movement organizations in Africa independent researchers and academics and the African community at large.
