No Longer Strangers The Practice Of Radical Hospitality:

No Longer Strangers Wendy J. Taylor, Margaret Kimball Cross, 2011-10-17 It started simply The pastor would stand outside her church and greet the workers as they came in from the fields She spoke to them in Spanish and they responded And soon a bridge was forged This is the true story of a rural community in Northern California who awakened to the migrant farm workers in their community and chose to embrace them Led by one extraordinary woman who was bolstered by her deep and abiding faith the community offered radical hospitality to the strangers in their midst And in doing so they discovered an important truth that our common humanity binds us all Strangers No Longer Sergio M.

González, 2024-03-26 Hospitality practices grounded in religious belief have long exercised a profound influence on Wisconsin's Latino communities Sergio M. González examines the power relations at work behind the types of hospitality welcoming and otherwise practiced on newcomers in both Milwaukee and rural areas of the Badger State González's analysis addresses central issues like the foundational role played by religion and sacred spaces in shaping experiences and facilitating collaboration among disparate Latino groups and across ethnic lines the connections between sacred spaces and the moral justification for social justice movements and the ways sacred spaces evolved into places for mitigating prejudice and social alienation providing sanctuary from nativism and repression and fostering local and transnational community building Perceptive and original Strangers No Longer reframes the history of Latinos in Wisconsin by revealing religion's central role in the settlement experience of immigrants migrants and refugees Smart Compassion Wesley

Furlong, 2017-02-07 When is doing good not good enough When does doing outreach actually do harm Smart Compassion calls Christians to strategic prayerful and biblically based approaches to compassion With evangelical Anabaptist convictions and insights from psychology Wesley Furlong uses his background as a church leader and nonprofit founder to guide readers through the three aspects of smart compassion needed for families and neighborhoods to flourish collective empowerment radical hospitality and healing presence In the vein of When Helping Hurts discover wise strategies that bring Jesus love to your neighbors Shift your paradigm from fixing everybody's problems to spending yourself well Learn how to hold together justice and evangelism worldly wisdom and divine revelation action and prayer For anyone who wants to make a difference but doesn't know how Smart Compassion offers a contagious vision and practical steps for real change Jesus is Still

Speaking Through the Gospel of Mark Jimmy R. Watson, Ph.D., 2011-04-11 The title of this book is a play on the United Church of Christ's God Is Still Speaking marketing campaign I have sifted through two decades of sermon writing which were primarily focused on the Gospels to see how Mark's Gospel portrays the still speaking voice of Jesus The essays in this book work with some of Jesus' most provocative words as related through the pen of Mark But what meaning do these words carry in our world today Are they practical and relevant for us Is Jesus still speaking to us through the Gospel of Mark

The Missional Quest Lance Ford, Brad Brisco, 2013-08-26 Lance Ford and Brad Brisco walk leaders through the major

shifts involved in converting consumer model churches into congregations on a quest for the kingdom of God Addressing everything from sowing the seeds of incarnational thinking to stepping out in the local community The Missional Quest will prepare your church for the long run

A Man Apart Peter Forbes, Helen Whybrow, 2015 A story of friendship encouragement and the quest to design a better world A Man Apart is the story part family memoir and part biography of Peter Forbes and Helen Whybrow's longtime friendship with Bill Coperthwaite A Handmade Life whose unusual life and fierce ideals helped them examine and understand their own Coperthwaite inspired many by living close to nature and in opposition to contemporary society and was often compared to Henry David Thoreau Much like Helen and Scott Nearing who were his friends and mentors Coperthwaite led a 55 year long experiment in living on a remote stretch of Maine coast There he created a homestead of wooden multistoried yurts a form of architecture for which he was known around the world Coperthwaite also embodied a philosophy that he called democratic living which was about empowering all people to have agency over their lives in order to create a better community The central question of Coperthwaite's life was How can I live according to what I believe In this intimate and honest account framed by Coperthwaite's sudden death and brought alive through the month long adventure of building with him what would turn out to be his last yurt Forbes and Whybrow explore the timeless lessons of Coperthwaite's experiment in intentional living and self reliance They also reveal an important story about the power and complexities of mentorship the opening of one's life to someone else to learn together and carrying on in that person's physical absence While mourning Coperthwaite's death and coming to understand the real meaning of his life and how it endures through their own Forbes and Whybrow craft a story that reveals why it's important to seek direct experience to be drawn to beauty and simplicity to create rather than critique and to encourage others

A Mass Conspiracy to Feed People David Boarder Giles, 2021-07-21 In A Mass Conspiracy to Feed People David Boarder Giles explores the ways in which capitalism simultaneously manufactures waste and scarcity Illustrating how communities of marginalized people and discarded things gather and cultivate political possibilities Giles documents the work of Food Not Bombs FNB a global movement of grassroots soup kitchens that recover wasted grocery surpluses and redistribute them to those in need He explores FNB's urban contexts the global cities in which late capitalist economies and unsustainable consumption precipitate excess inequality food waste and hunger Beginning in urban dumpsters Giles traces the logic by which perfectly edible commodities are nonetheless thrown out an act that manufactures food scarcity to the social order of world class cities the pathways of discarded food as it circulates through the FNB kitchen and the anticapitalist political movements the kitchen represents Describing the mutual entanglement of global capitalism and anticapitalist transgression Giles captures those emergent forms of generosity solidarity and resistance that spring from the global city's marginalized residents
