No Sweetness Here And Other Stories:

No Sweetness Here Ama Ata Aidoo, 2023-10-01 This collection of short stories sees Ama Ata Aidoo one of Africa's leading feminist and postcolonial writers exercise the powerful effect of oral storytelling in her moving tales of shifting identities and the paradoxes of womanhood Written with vibrant candour and tenacity No Sweetness Here tackles the challenges of postcolonial Ghana with topics ranging from the politics of wigs to the fragile joy of motherhood In this collection tradition struggles against modernisation convention against liberation and all the while Aidoo invites the reader to confront life's injustices with her characteristic humour and poise Even at her gravest Aidoo writes with a sunny charm New York Times Beautifully written English Magazine No Sweetness Here Ama Ata Aidoo, 2015-04-25 From the author of Changes these stories of post-independence Ghana in the late 1960s are written beautifully and wisely and with great subtlety Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie In this short story collection the award-winning poet and author of Changes and Our Sister Killjoy explores postcolonial life in Ghana with her characteristic honesty humor and insight A house servant wonders what independence means in a country where indoor plumbing is still reserved for bosses A brother tracks down his runaway sister only to find she has become a prostitute In the title story a bitter divorce turns tragic when the couple's only child dies of a snake bite In these and other stories tradition wrestles with new urban influences as Africans try to sort out their identity in a changing culture and even at her gravest Miss Aidoo writes with a sunny charm The New York Times

Concert of Voices - Second Edition Victor J. Ramraj, 2009-08-17 Concert of Voices combines poetry fiction drama and essays in an anthology of world literature in English This second edition preserves the first edition's breadth and its balance of established and less widely known authors while including a large selection of exciting new material Biographical information and explanatory notes have been updated and expanded and new pieces by Cyril Dabydeen Vikram Seth Wole Soyinka Pauline Johnson Rudy Wiebe and many other authors have been added Postnational Feminisms Hena Ahmad, 2010 Postnational Feminisms Postcolonial Identities and Cosmopolitanism in the Works of Kamala Markandaya Tsitsi Dangarembga Ama Ata Aidoo and Anita Desai offers a significant contribution to the field of postcolonial and Third World feminist studies It reevaluates the ways in which Third World women writers interrogate the relationship between woman and nation in the postcolonial context Hena Ahmad brings forth the concept of postnational feminism which she deploys to show how these major writers challenge the role of women as signifiers of national cultures in their works This innovative concept illuminates the ambivalence of these uniquely positioned writers as Ahmad explores the connection between postnationalism and Third World feminism BOOK JACKET Postcolonial Servitude Ambreen Hai, 2024 Domestic servitude is a widespread phenomenon in countries like India Pakistan Sri Lanka where even lower middle class homes rely on domestic workers mostly women and children While social scientists have begun to study this unregulated and exploitative informal sector literary critics have not paid attention to servants in South Asian literatures or examined their political or literary significance Postcolonial Servitude argues that a new generation of writers has begun to rethink this culture of servitude and to devise new forms of writing designed to prompt change in normalized ways of seeing and being It is the first to offer a sustained exploration of servitude and servants in South Asian English literature from the early 20th century to the present Reena and Other Stories Paule Marshall,1983 This collection of Paule Marshall s short works illustrates the growth of a remarkable writer For the first time these stories long out of print or difficult to obtain appear together in a single volume Introducing the volume is Marshall s much acclaimed autobiographical essay From the Poets in the Kitchen from the New York Times Book Review s series called The Making of a Writer This collection included newly written autobiographical headnotes to each story and Merle a novella excerpted from Marshall s 1969 novel The Chosen Place The Timeless People and extensively reshaped and rewritten for this collection It stands as an independent story about one of the most memorable women in contemporary fiction A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon,R.C. Feddersen,James Kurtzleben,Maurice A. Lee,Susan Rochette-Crawley,2013-10-31 Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years Reader s Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography a review of existing criticism a lengthier analysis of specific works and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory

Romance, Diaspora, and Black Atlantic Literature Yogita Goyal,2010-04-22 Romance Diaspora and Black Atlantic Literature offers a rich interdisciplinary treatment of modern black literature and cultural history showing how debates over Africa in the works of major black writers generated productive models for imagining political agency Yogita Goyal analyzes the tensions between romance and realism in the literature of the African diaspora examining a remarkably diverse group of twentieth century authors including W E B Du Bois Chinua Achebe Richard Wright Ama Ata Aidoo and Caryl Phillips Shifting the center of black diaspora studies by considering Africa as constitutive of black modernity rather than its forgotten past Goyal argues that it is through the figure of romance that the possibility of diaspora is imagined across time and space Drawing on literature political history and postcolonial theory this significant addition to the cross cultural study of literatures will be of interest to scholars of African American studies African studies and American literary studies A Comparative Reading of Pan-Africanism and Afropolitanism Andrew Nyongesa,John Mugubi,2024-10-07 This book is response to the recent surge of formidable voices that consistently demean and attempt to reverse the gains of pan Africanism Besides questioning its relevance these voices supplant essential tenets of pan Africanism Blackness the narrative of Return sanctity of the ancestral homeland exposition of evils of colonialism and African Literature with new postulations

These new suppositions deny race accentuate onward migration and diminish the ancestral homeland to any ordinary city to globetrot These voices liken any reminiscence of colonial evils to Afro pessimism pronounce African Literature dead on arrival and proceed to substitute pan Africanism through studies which neglect pioneer and contemporary literary works cultural productions folklore conversations on social media blogs Facebook WhatsApp and questionnaires to gauge their influence among Black peoples themselves This study adopts a design that interrogates literary works data from questionnaires and social media to determine the relevance and influence of pan Africanism and the new paradigm

Goatskin Bags and Wisdom Ernest Emenyonu, 2000 Among the contributors are a new generation of young African writers whose studies include the works of a number of established and emerging African Writers about whom there is little criticism now in existence BOOK JACKET
