Our Competitive Future Building The Knowledge Driven Economy Cm:

Progress Towards the Knowledge Driven Economy Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Trade and Industry Committee, 2005 The 1998 White Paper Our competitive future building the knowledge based economy CM 4176 ISBN 0101417624 proposed a ten year programme to enable the UK to close the productivity gap by exploiting the potential benefits of a modern knowledge driven economy More than six years on this report is a review of the progress that has been made The topics covered include UK performance since 1998 the development of new products processes and services science and knowledge research bases knowledge transfer and exploitation information and communication technologies competition from low cost economies One of the conclusions is that although the UK s science and knowledge research bases and businesses are collaborating more frequently the performance in knowledge exploitation has been disappointing and the relative position of the UK against the rest of the G7 has remained unchanged Another conclusion is that although there is some evidence that outsourcing abroad can be beneficial the Government should keep the trend under review in case there are strategic losses

World Yearbook of Education 2006 Jenny Ozga, Terri Seddon, Thomas S. Popkewitz, 2013-01-11 This volume considers the ways in which educational research is being shaped by policy across the globe Policy effects on research are increasingly influential as policies in and beyond education drive the formation of a knowledge based economy by supporting increased international competitiveness through more effective evidence based interventions in schooling education and training systems What consequences does this increased steering have for research in education How do transnational agencies make their influence felt on educational research How do national systems and traditions of educational research and relations with policy respond to these new pressures What effects does it have on the quality of research and on the freedom of researchers to pursue their own agendas The 2006 volume of the World Yearbook of Education explores these issues focusing on three key themes globalising policy and research in education steering education research in national contexts global local politics of education research The 2006 volume has a truly global reach incorporating transnational policy perspectives from the OECD and the European Commission alongside national cases from across the world in contrasting contexts that include North and South America Canada France Singapore China Russia and New Zealand The range of contributions reflect how pervasive these developments are how much is new in this situation and to what extent evidence based policy pressures on research in education build on past relationships between education and policy This book considers the impact of the steering processes on the work and identities of individual researchers and considers how research can be organised to play a more active role in the politics of the knowledge economy and learning society

Public Investment and Regional Economic Development Daniel Felsenstein, Ronald McQuaid, Philip McCann, Daniel Shefer, 2001-01-01 Public Investment and Regional Economic Development is a very interesting and stimulating reading for policymakers and anyone doing research in this area Adelheid Holl Environment and Planning C Government and Planning The relationship between public investment and regional economic development is of perennial interest and is particularly topical now as issues of infrastructure and innovation are high on policy agendas in many countries Public investment is often viewed as a possible method for jump starting lagging regional economies and also as a requirement for the continued development of more prosperous regions Public Investment and Regional Economic Development provides a systematic analysis of the complex relationship between public investment and regional economic development The authors offer new insights into the key issues of regional growth and present a broad variety of perspectives ranging from transport and housing infrastructure through to human capital and innovation

New Managerialism, New Welfare? John Clarke, Sharon Gewirtz, Eugene McLaughlin, 2000-09-28 New Managerialism New Welfare is a carefully integrated textbook that explores the continuing restructuring of the state and social welfare in the United Kingdom It combines studies of specific policy areas such as health education criminal justice local government with chapters that examine cross cutting themes and developments The book provides a thorough and critical reflection on New Labour s vision of the past and future of social welfare and public services in the construction of a modern society

High-Technology Entrepreneurship Ray Oakey, 2012-05-31 With the global economy in a precarious position nurturing new entrepreneurial high technology firms is likely to comprise a key component of any policy to encourage economic growth both in developed and developing countries Recent high technology ventures such as retailing in the music industry have shown how entrepreneurs can radically change or even replace the structure of existing industries High Technology Entrepreneurship introduces and analyzes all the major aspects of high technology small firm formation and growth Locational and functional aspects of the process as well as how contexts for development may vary between developed and developing economies are also discussed Other key topics that are addressed include how high technology firms originate in theory and practice entrepreneurship theory incubators science parks and clustering entrepreneurial strategy and finance Students taking Master s level courses in entrepreneurship technology innovation academic enterprise and industrial development will find this an essential textbook for completing their studies
