2012 Report to Congress of the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission,2012 The New and Changing Transatlanticism Laurie Buonanno,Natalia Cuglesan,Keith Henderson,2015-03-24 The European Union and the US are currently negotiating the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership TTIP with potentially enormous economic gains for both partners Experts from the European Union and the US explore not only the groundwork laid for TTIP under the New Transatlanticism but also the key variables economic cultural institutional and political shaping transatlantic policy outcomes Divided into four parts Part I consisting of three chapters contextualizes the transatlantic relationship with an historical survey contemporary foreign relations and policy and cultural dynamics Together these chapters provide the background for understanding the evolving nature of the EU US relationship Part II of this volume focuses on governance and comprises two chapters one on transatlantic governance and the other administrative culture Part III consists of six policy chapters competition trade transport mobility regimes financial services regulation and GMOs Part IV consisting of three chapters explores prospects and challenges associated with transatlanticism including the TTIP The last chapter concludes with lessons learned and future challenges with respect to policy convergence the nature of the EU US relationship power resources and bargaining within the transatlantic partnership and an assessment of the future of deeper cooperation and integration This insightful account into policy cooperation between the EU and the US is a welcomed resource for policy specialists oriented toward comparative public policy wishing to enter the arena of Transatlantic Studies Economic Decisions of the Civil Aeronautics Board United States. Civil Aeronautics Board,1974-02

The Year in Trade 2009, Operation of the Trade Agreements Program, 61st Report , Asymmetric Crisis in Europe and Possible Futures Johannes Jäger,Elisabeth Springler,2015-04-10 The crisis in Europe is often discussed as a crisis of European integration or a crisis of national economies within Europe Both the methodological Europeanism and methodological nationalism miss out the important links between economic and political processes at different spatial scales within Europe and therefore asymmetries and phenomena of uneven development In addition a discussion of possible scenarios which systematically addresses the implications of anti crisis policies is missing This volume seeks to close this gap by systematically integrating the analysis of economic policy or technical solutions to the crisis within a broader framework of political economy It argues that combining critical political economy approaches and post Keynesian perspectives allows for a systematic understanding of the economic and political dimensions of the crisis Although both approaches have the capacity to deal with asymmetries and uneven development the heterogeneity in Europe has been an often largely neglected dimension of analysis However this recent crisis has shown that this is an essential dimension which has to be addressed in order to better understand the dynamics of European development and integration Hence this book aims to deal with asymmetries in Europe and to bridge the gap between the two perspectives This work will initiate an integrative debate that is crucial for a deeper understanding of the current crisis and is an important resource for all students and scholars of IPE European political economy and European politics Federal Register ,2013-06 The Wars on Terrorism and Iraq Margaret Crahan,John Goering,Thomas G. Weiss,2004-07-31 If I had the power to do so I would make this book compulsory reading for all who exercise political power in our world today Instead I will keep my fingers crossed that it will be read by as many members of Congress and of the current US administration as possible and by a wide cross section of policy analysts diplomats academics and human rights defenders Mary Robinson Former UN High Commissioner for Human Rights Wars on Terrorism and Iraq provides a timely and critical analysis of the impact of the wars on terrorism and Iraq on human rights particularly internationally as well as related tensions between unilateralism and multilateralism in US foreign policy The distinguished contributors examine the consequences for international relations and world order of the traditional standard bearer for human rights and democracy the United States appearing not to be championing the rule of law and negotiated conflict resolution The authors also suggest effective policies to promote greater fulfilment of human rights in order to achieve peaceful accord within nations and stability internationally The SAGE Handbook of Globalization Manfred Steger,Paul Battersby,Joseph Siracusa,2014-05-22 Global studies is a fresh and dynamic discipline area that promises to reinvigorate undergraduate and postgraduate education in the social sciences and humanities In the Australian context the interdisciplinary pedagogy that defines global studies is gaining wider acceptance as a coherent and necessary approach to the study of global change Through the Global Studies Consortium GSC this new discipline is forming around an impressive body of international scholars who define their expertise in global terms The GSC paves the way for the expansion of global studies programs internationally and for the development of teaching and research collaboration on a global scale Mark Juergensmeyer and Helmut Anheier s forthcoming Encyclopaedia of Global Studies with SAGE is evidence of this growing international collaboration while the work of Professor Manfred Steger exemplifies the flourishing academic literature on globalization RMIT University s Global Cities Institute represents a substantial institutional investment in interdisciplinary research into the social and environmental implications of globalization in which it leads the way internationally Given these developments the time is right for a book series that draws together diverse scholarship in global studies This Handbook allows for extended treatment of critical issues that are of major interest to researchers and students in this emerging field The topics covered speak to an interdisciplinary approach to the study of global issues that reaches well beyond the confines of international relations and political science to encompass sociology anthropology history media and cultural studies economics and governance environmental sustainability international law and criminal justice Specially commissioned chapters explore diverse subjects from a global vantage point and all deliberately cohere around core global concerns of narrative praxis space and place This integrated approach sets the Handbook apart from its competitors and distinguishes Global Studies as the most equipped academic discipline with which to address the scope and pace of global change in the 21st century China-us Trade Frictions Shaping New Equilibriums With The Eu And The Us: Towards A New Multilateralism Or Tripolarism Xugang Yu, Mario Tettamanti, Cristiano Rizzi, 2021-01-05 This book shows the impact of the recent trade tensions between China and the US on the world trade order and how parties have reached a deal so called phase one January 2020 which could lead to a more comprehensive agreement and the consequences of these adjustments in shaping new equilibriums After 40 years China has transformed into an economic superpower which could now rival the US This has evoked some concerns and put the US in an uncomfortable position as the US views the rise of China as a threat to its predominance and interests However China s development and its increasing economic power which is a direct consequence of the ongoing reform process is unstoppable The confrontation between China and the US will favor Chinese expansion into the EU not only because the EU offers a more receptive environment for Chinese Foreign Direct Investment but also because the EU and China have more in common if we consider the Belt And Road Initiative and the new bilateral investment agreement which is under negotiation The EU not only represents the final destination of the BRI but also a more logical and convenient trade partner for China The shift of Chinese attention toward the EU will also change the equilibrium between China the EU and the US bring forth the negotiation of new trade agreements and move the entire international community towards a new world trade order and a new multilateralism which might evolve into a tripolarism El-Hi
