Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena Onyebadi, Uche T.,2019-01-15 Political campaigning affects numerous realms under the communication umbrella with each channel seeking to influence as many individuals as possible In higher education there is a growing scholarly interest in communication issues and subjects especially on the role of music in the political arena Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena provides innovative insights into providing music and songs as an integral part of sending political messages to a broader spectrum of audiences especially during political campaigns The content within this publication covers such topics as framing theory national identity and ethnic politics and is designed for politicians campaign managers political communication scholars researchers and students Love and Space in Contemporary African Diasporic Women's Writing Jennifer Leetsch,2021-07-16 This book sets out to investigate how contemporary African diasporic women writers respond to the imbalances pressures and crises of twenty first century globalization by querying the boundaries between two separate conceptual domains love and space The study breaks new ground by systematically bringing together critical love studies with research into the cultures of migration diaspora and refuge Examining a notable tendency among current black feminist writers poets and performers to insist on the affective dimension of world making the book ponders strategies of reconfiguring postcolonial discourses Indeed the analyses of literary works and intermedia performances by Chimamanda Adichie Zadie Smith Helen Oyeyemi Shailja Patel and Warsan Shire reveal an urge of moving beyond a familiar insistence on processes of alienation or rupture and towards a new reparative emphasis on connection and intimacy to imagine possible inhabitable worlds Sounds of Resistance Eunice Rojas,Lindsay Michie,2013-10-08 From the gospel music of slavery in the antebellum South to anti apartheid freedom songs in South Africa this two volume work documents how music has fueled resistance and revolutionary movements in the United States and worldwide Political resistance movements and the creation of music two seemingly unrelated phenomenon often result from the seed of powerful emotions opinions or experiences This two volume set presents essays that explore the connections between diverse musical forms and political activism across the globe revealing fascinating similarities regarding the interrelationship between music and political resistance in widely different geographic or cultural circumstances The breadth of specific examples covered in Sounds of Resistance The Role of Music in Multicultural Activism highlights strong similarities between diverse situations for example protest against the Communist government in Poland and drug discourse in hip hop music in the United States and demonstrates how music has repeatedly played a vital role in energizing or expanding various political movements By exploring activism and how music relates to specific movements through an interdisciplinary lens the authors document how music often enables powerless members of oppressed groups to communicate or voice their concerns Manual of Romance Forensic Linguistics Victoria Guillén-Nieto,Dieter Stein,2025-06-02 It is evident that published serious science based work in Forensic Linguistics is predominantly written in English and focuses on casework from the English speaking world While the first aspect is understandable given that English serves as an international lingua franca in scientific discourse the second aspect presents a significant limitation for the field Should researchers assume that there is simply less crime in non English speaking areas of the world A more pertinent question might be What cultural disciplinary legal or legal cultural factors contribute to the lack of research in and on languages other than English In addition to addressing the underrepresentation of Romance languages in scientific publications related to forensic work the chapters in this handbook will also explore the reasons behind this unfortunate situation Designed to engage readers whether they are linguists legal professionals or simply interested individuals and to spark interest in Romance Forensic Linguistics this handbook follows three key objectives First we are committed to providing a comprehensive overview of the casework and research conducted in and on several Romance languages including Peninsular Spanish Catalan Brazilian Portuguese French Canadian French Italian and Romanian Second the chapters in this volume seek to understand why Forensic Linguistics has thrived more in some Romance speaking countries than in others Finally we aim to uncover the reasons for the slower development of Forensic Linguistics in regions where Romance languages are predominantly spoken

The African Palimpsest Chantal Zabus, 2007-01-01 Uniting a sense of the political dimensions of language appropriation with a serious yet accessible linguistic terminology The African Palimpsest examines the strategies of indigenization whereby West African writers have made their literary English or French distinctively African Through the apt metaphor of the palimpsest a surface that has been written on written over partially erased and written over again the book examines such well known West African writers as Achebe Armah Ekwensi Kourouma Okara Saro Wiwa Soyinka and Tutuola as well as lesser known writers from francophone and anglophone Africa Providing a great variety of case studies in Nigerian Pidgin Akan Igbo Maninka Yoruba Wolof and other African languages the book also clarifies the vital interface between Europhone African writing and the new outlets for African artistic expression in auto translation broadcast television radio and film

Indigenization of Language in the African Francophone Novel Peter W. Vakunta, 2011 Indigenization of Language in the African Francophone Novel A New Literary Canon discusses the question of indigenization in the African Francophone novel Analyzing the prose narratives of Nazi Boni Ahmadou Kourouma and Patrice Nganang this book contends that African literature written in European languages is primarily a creative translation process Recourse to European languages as a medium of expressing African imagination worldview and cultures in fictional writing poses problems of intelligibility Developed to express and reflect Western worldviews and sensibilities European languages are employed by African writers to convey messages that seem to be at variance with European imagination These writers find themselves writing in languages they wish to subvert through the technique of literary indigenization The significance of this study resides in its raising awareness to the hurdles that literary creativity in a polyglossic context may present to readers and translators This book provides answers to intriguing questions centering on the problematic of translation in contemporary African literature It is a contribution to current research aimed at unraveling the conundrum surrounding the language question in African Europhone fiction particularly the cultural functions of translation in literature Potential translation problems have to be addressed in order to make African literature written in European languages intelligible to global readership With the advent of globalization transcultural communication has become an activity of enormous importance to the international community It is a subject of great interest to translators linguists language instructors and literary theorists
