Haunted narratives Gabriele Rippl, Philipp Schweighauser, Tiina Kirss, Margit Sutrop, Therese Steffen, 2013-03-14

Exploring life writing from a variety of cultural contexts Haunted Narratives provides new insights into how individuals and communities across time and space deal with traumatic experiences and haunting memories From the perspectives of trauma theory memory studies gender studies literary studies philosophy and post colonial studies the volume stresses the lingering haunting presence of the past in the present The contributors focus on the psychological ethical and representational difficulties involved in narrative negotiations of traumatic memories Haunted Narratives focuses on life writing in the broadest sense of the term biographies and autobiographies that deal with traumatic experiences autobiographically inspired fictions on loss and trauma and limit cases that transcend clear cut distinctions between the factual and the fictional In discussing texts as diverse as Toni Morrison's Beloved Vikram Seth's Two Lives deportation narratives of Baltic women Christa Wolf's Kindheitsmuster Joy Kogawa's Obasan and Ene Mihkelson's Ahasveeruse uni the contributors add significantly to current debates on life writing trauma and memory the contested notion of cultural trauma and the transferability of clinical psychological notions to the study of literature and culture

The Critique of Religion and Religion's Critique, 2020-04-14 In The Critique of Religion and Religion's Critique On Dialectical Religiology Dustin J Byrd compiles numerous essays honouring the life and work of the Critical Theorist Rudolf J Siebert His dialectical religiology rooted in the critical theory of the Frankfurt School especially Theodor Adorno Max Horkheimer Walter Benjamin Herbert Marcuse Erich Fromm Leo L wenthal and Jürgen Habermas is both a theory and method of understanding religion's critique of modernity and modernity's critique of religion Born out of the Enlightenment and its most important thinkers i.e Kant Hegel Marx Nietzsche and Freud religion is understood to be dialectical in nature It contains within it both revolutionary and emancipatory elements but also reactionary and regressive elements which perpetuate mankind's continual debasement enslavement and oppression Thus religion by nature is conflicted within itself and thus stands against itself Dialectical Religiology attempts to rescue those elements of religion from the dustbin of history and reintroduce them into society via their determinate negation As such it attempts to resolve the social political theological and philosophical antagonisms that plague the modern world in hopes of producing a more peaceful justice filled equal and reconciled society The contributors to this book recognize the tremendous contributions of Dr Rudolf J Siebert in the fields of philosophy sociology history and theology and have profited from his long career This book attempts to honour that life and work Contributors include Edmund Arens Gregory Baum Francis Brassard Dustin J Byrd Denis R Janz Gottfried K enzlén Mislav Kuko Michael R Ott Rudolf J Siebert Hans K Weitensteiner and Brian C Wilson

Plank,1994-01-01 Questions whether or not someone who did not experience the Holocaust can really understand it A Social History of Christian Origins Simon J. Joseph,2022-12-30 A Social History of Christian Origins explores how the theme of the Jewish rejection of Jesus embedded in Paul s letters and the New Testament Gospels represents the ethnic social cultural and theological conflicts that facilitated the construction of Christian identity Readers of this book will gain a thorough understanding of how a central theme of early Christianity the Jewish rejection of Jesus facilitated the emergence of Christian anti Judaism as well as the complex and multi faceted representations of Jesus in the Gospels of the New Testament This study systematically analyzes the theme of social rejection in the Jesus tradition by surveying its historical and chronological development Employing the social psychological study of social rejection social identity theory and social memory theory Joseph sheds new light on the inter relationships between myth history and memory in the study of Christian origins and the contemporary re construction of the historical Jesus A Social History of Christian Origins is primarily intended for academic specialists and students in ancient history biblical studies New Testament studies Religious Studies Classics as well as the general reader interested in the beginnings of Christianity The Shame of Reason in Organizational Change Naud van der Ven,2011-06-03 Rational thought according to Levinas has the merit of making the world lucid and controllable But at the same time it strips things and people of their identity and incorporates them in a homogenized rational order Illusory but nonetheless oppressive Rationality s totalitarian character can provoke resistance and grief with people who are enlisted by it This can lead to a shameful confrontation in which the thinker is being confronted with his victim s resistance and sees himself and his thinking made questionable By proceeding along this route thinking can be brought to self criticism and to revision of standpoints This description by Levinas of rational thinking shows similarity to what managers do in organizations They make their business controllable but at the same time with their planning and schemes they create a totalitarian straitjacket This similarity suggests that also the reactions to imperialistic rationality from Levinas description ought to be found in organizations Is it indeed possible to indicate there the kind of resistance and grief Levinas speaks about Does that give rise to confrontations between managers and their co workers who are supposed to subordinate to their schemes Do managers then feel shame And do those shameful confrontations consequently lead to self reflection and change Desk research suggests that the above elements are partly to be found in the literature of management theory Interviews with managers show that Levinas line of thought can also be found in its completeness within organizations At the same time it becomes clear that becoming conscious of the elements of that line of thought that rationality is all conquering that it provokes resistance that that can lead to shame as well as to a new beginning this is a difficult path to travel The related experiences are easily forgotten and sometimes difficult to excavate Translation of Levinas thinking into terms of management and organization can help us spot them where they play their role in organizations Ministry to Persons with Chronic Illnesses John Thomas Vanderzee,1993 The New York Times Book Review ,1974 Cliffs
