Joyce/Lowry Patrick A. McCarthy, Paul Tiessen, 2014-10-17 While James Joyce was a central figure of high modernism Malcom Lowry spoke for the next generation of modernist writers and despite his denials was almost certainly influenced by Joyce Wherever the truth lies there are correspondences and differences to be explored between Joyce and Lowry that are far more interesting than the question of direct influence Despite numerous differences their works have much in common verbal richness experimentation with narrative structure and perspective a fascination with cultural and historical forces as well as with the process of artistic creation and the inclusion of artist figures who are in varying degrees ironic self portrayals The contributors to Joyce Lowry examine the relationship of these two expatriate writers both to each other and to broader issues in the study of literary modernism and its aftermath This collection embraces a variety of approaches The volume begins with a consideration of Joyce and Lowry as practitioners of Expressionist art and concludes with an essay on John Huston's cinematic interpretation of works by both writers In between are explorations of nationalism anti-Semitism syphilis mental illness and authorial design Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Hyde, 2018-08-03 Fatherland is a bold ambitious show about contemporary fatherhood in all its complexities and contradictions Created by Frantic Assembly's Scott Graham Karl Hyde from Underworld and playwright Simon Stephens Punk Rock The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time this daring collage of words music and movement confronts the complexities and contradictions of contemporary fatherhood A vivid urgent and deeply personal portrait of 21st century England at the crossroads of past present and future the play is inspired by conversations with fathers and sons from the writers home towns in the heart of the country Tender and tough honest and true Fatherland is a vital and necessary show about what we were who we are and what we'd like to become The world premiere of Fatherland took place at the Royal

Exchange Theatre Manchester on 5 July 2017 as part of Manchester International Festival This is a revised version of the original text which coincides with performances in London at the Lyric Hammersmith as part of LIFT 2018 Jet, 1988-09-12 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Music, Performance, and the Realities of Film Ben Winters, 2014-02-05 This book examines the relationship between narrative film and reality as seen through the lens of on screen classical concert performance By investigating these scenes wherein the performance of music is foregrounded in the narrative Winters uncovers how concert performance reflexively articulates music's importance to the ontology of film The book asserts that narrative film of a variety of aesthetic approaches and traditions is no mere copy of everyday reality but constitutes its own filmic reality and that the music heard in a film's underscore plays an important role in distinguishing film reality from the everyday As a result concert scenes are examined as sites for provocative interactions between these two realities in which real world musicians appear in fictional narratives and an audience's suspension of disbelief is problematised In blurring the musical experiences of onscreen observers and participants these concert scenes also allegorize music's role in creating a shared subjectivity between film audience and character and prompt Winters to propose a radically new vision of music's role in narrative cinema wherein musical underscore becomes part of a shared audio visual space that may be just as accessible to the characters as the music they encounter in scenes of concert performance
