The Nile Mosaic of Palestrina Paul G.P. Meyboom, 2015-08-24 The famous Nile Mosaic of Palestrina ancient Praeneste in central Italy dating to c 100 B C is one of the earliest large mosaics which have been preserved from the classical world It presents a unique comprehensive picture of Egypt and Nubia The interpretation of the mosaic is disputed suggestions ranging from an exotic decoration to a topographical picture or a religious allegory The present study demonstrates that the mosaic depicts rituals connected with Isis and Osiris and the yearly Nile flood The presence of these Egyptian religious scenes at Praeneste can be explained by the assimilation of Isis and Fortuna the tutelary goddess of Praeneste and by the interpretation of the mosaic as a symbol of divine providence Hellenizing Art in Ancient Nubia 300 B.C. - AD 250 and Its Egyptian Models László Török, Laszlo Torok, 2011-07-12 Presenting a large body of evidence for the first time this book offers a comprehensive treatment of Nubian architecture sculpture and minor arts in the period between 300 BC AD 250 It focuses primarily on the Nubian response to the traditional pharaonic Hellenistic Roman Hellenizing and hybrid elements of Ptolemaic and Roman Egyptian culture The author begins with a history of Nubian art and a critical survey of the literature on Ptolemaic and Roman Egyptian art Special chapters are then devoted to the discussion of the Egyptian Greek interaction in the arts of Ptolemaic Egypt the place of Egyptian Hellenistic and Hellenizing art within the oikumene the pluralistic visual world of Ptolemaic and Roman Egypt as well as on the specific genre of terracotta sculpture Utilizing examples from Meroe City and Musawwarat es Sufra the author argues that cultural transfer from Ptolemaic and Roman Egypt to Nubia resulted in an inward focused adaptation Therefore the resulting Nubian art from this period expresses only those aspects of Egyptian and Greek art that are compatible with indigenous Nubian goals , Peoples of the Roman World Mary T. Boatwright, 2012-02-13 In this highly illustrated book Mary T Boatwright examines five of the peoples incorporated into the Roman world from the Republican through the Imperial periods northerners Greeks Egyptians Jews and Christians She explores over time the tension between assimilation and distinctiveness in the Roman world as well as the changes effected in Rome by its multicultural nature Underlining the fundamental importance of diversity in Rome s self identity the book explores Roman tolerance of difference and community as the Romans expanded and consolidated their power and incorporated other peoples into their empire The Peoples of the Roman World provides an accessible account of Rome s social cultural religious and political history exploring the rich literary documentary and visual evidence for these peoples and Rome s reactions to them Egypt, Ethiopia, and the Greek Novel Robert Cioffi, 2024-02-08 There is no region more central to the ancient Greek romance novel than the thousand or so miles stretching from Alexandria to ancient Ethiopia that comprise the Nile River Valley Yet for all its importance Egypt Ethiopia and the Greek Novel Between Representation and Resistance is the first book length study of how this region is depicted in a literary genre whose fictional tales of love travel separation and reunion flourished during the Roman imperial period Employing approaches from Literary Studies Classics and Egyptology Robert Cioffi explores the Nile River Valley in the ancient Greek romance novel through two fundamentally related concepts representation and resistance On the one hand these novels develop an image of Egypt and Ethiopia that is in close dialogue with the Greco Roman ethnographic tradition characterized by extraordinary marvels such as grand cities ancient religious rites and a dizzying array of animals some real some imaginary and some so incredible as to seem make believe On the other hand this depiction often figures Egypt and Ethiopia as sites of resistance revolt and rebellion against or political cultural and religious alternatives to an array of dominant imperial powers in the region from the Persians to the Romans This dual reading enriches our understanding of these texts relationship with the real and imagined frontiers of Roman political military and intellectual power It also raises a broader set of questions some literary some cultural historical about the interrelation of humans their environment and the topographies of cultural identity in the Roman empire

Roman Domestic Art and Early House Churches David L. Balch, 2008 Pompeii Herculaneum and Rome have yielded hundreds of wall paintings from domestic buildings Greek myths and tragedies especial by Euripides were visually represented Balch presents an interdisciplinary study inquiring what earliest Jews and Christian in such houses might have been seeing as they read and interpreted scripture and performed core rituals especially the Eucharist This recent study of Roman domestic architecture suggests new perspectives on the social history of early Christianity Publisher Eratosthenes and the Measurement of the Earth's Circumference (C. 230 BC) Christopher A.
