Nick Enright Study Guide:

Nick Enright Anne Pender, Susan Lever, 2008 Nick Enright 1950 2003 was one of Australia's most significant and successful playwrights. As a writer, director, actor, and teacher, he influenced theatre in Australia for thirty years. Enright wrote more than fifty plays for the stage, film, television, and radio, translated and adapted more, and taught acting to students in varied settings both in Australia and the United States. His writing repertoire included comedy, social realism, farce, fantasy, and the musical. In addition to his prodigious contribution to all of these genres, he was a passionate advocate for the actor and the theatre in contemporary society. In this volume, Anne Pender and Susan Lever present a set of essays and recollections about Nick Enright's work for students, teachers, and scholars. The book offers a comprehensive study of Enright's writing for theatre, film, and television. Scholars, acting teachers, and theatre directors have contributed to this work, each illuminating an aspect of Enright's remarkable career. The discussions cover interpretations of Enright's scripts and productions, detailed analysis of his directing style, substantial background, and analysis of his writing for musicals, as well as accounts of his specific approach to acting and to adaptation across genres. The essays and recollections included in this book will inspire theatre practitioners as well as scholars. Most importantly, this book will inform and enlighten students and teachers both at high school and university about an exceptional career in the theatre.

Book of the Banned Simon Mirando, 2023-08-01 BLASPHEMY AND HORROR SAUCY SWEDES LUKE SKYWALKER'S CHARRED AUNT UNCLE Australia has censored it all. Did you know Aussie audiences were originally banned from watching bona fide classics The Night of the Hunter, Breathless, and The Texas Chain Saw Massacre to name just a few out of literal hundreds of that Australians initially saw a watered-down version of Star Wars in cinemas? Book of the Banned is a rigorous rollicking riotous and righteously furious jaunt through film history that reveals the shocking stories behind Australia's classification system and how your favourite movies have been snipped down under featuring interviews with Margaret Pomerantz, David Stratton, a bunch of banned filmmakers, and even their censors. Like any good story, there are heroes, anti-heroes, unexpected criminals, and downright dastardly villains, though they're not always whom you'd expect. But by discussing the movies' scenes and lines of dialogue deemed too extreme for Aussie eyes and ears, we can see how far we've come in Australia and how far we have to go. A uniquely Australian ride into the dark side of film censorship, pearl-clutching outrages, and moral panics. Simon Mirando's Book of the Banned is an essential book for film fans, cinema scholars, and card-carrying perverts alike. Alexandra Heller-Nicholas, author 1000 Women in Horror. This book is f-ing great. And if they put asterisks in this quote, the censors will have won again. Impeccably researched and superbly written, Book of the Banned is an endlessly riveting slice of film history that demands to be read. Chris Taylor. The Chaser. Upright Mirando masterfully guides us through the tangled and surprisingly fascinating history of Australian censorship and takes us on a wild journey through the rule-breaking films that tested those boundaries. Anchored by a detailed account of film history and censorship policy, plus interviews with leading researchers and cinephiles Book of the Banned is both a lively love letter to controversial and challenging films and a call for our censorship practices to be reviewed Flick Ford Triple R's Primal Screen Important because it pulls together the exhaustive record of snipped and smothered films lying in the wake of decisions by Australian authorities John Safran Writing for
