NIGERIA: ECHOES OF A CENTURY Ifeoha Azikiwe, 2013-04-17 ONE HUNDRED years past and gone just like yesterday and Nigeria is still in transition Created on the vagaries of British imperialism Lord Frederick Lugard on January 1 1914 unilaterally stitched together two diametrically opposed Northern and Southern parts of the Niger bend to form an entity he called NIGERIA Since then Nigeria has remained changeless but with severe internal contradictions that threaten the shaky foundation on which it was formed By the amalgamation of 1914 Nigeria marks her centenary in 2014 a century that reverberates 46 years of colonial domination which set the agenda for political instability and internal conflicts 29 wasted years of incessant bloody military coups and dictatorship and 25 years of incoherent democratic governance Echoes of a Century discusses fundamental issues in Nigeria's loose federation as well as unresolved national challenges in the past 100 years It also examines the issue of leadership and its ceaseless manipulation through zoning federal character demography ethnicity and religion that revolve around individuals against national interests the politics and illusion of oil wealth that has become the nation's albatross endemic corruption and societal decadence that negate her growth and development and the clamour for a national conference to renegotiate the country's future Could Nigeria have done better as two separate entities as it were before the amalgamation of 1914 or better still as three separate nations as envisaged in 1957 against the encumbrances of its present structure where trust is lacking and confidence progressively eroding among federating units With visible cracks on its bonds of unity rising cases of religious bigotry and fundamentalism ethnic chauvinism and exclusion it is argued that should Nigeria eventually survive as one united nation it may not develop beyond the status of a third world country Nigeria, Echoes of a Century: 1914-1999 Ifeoha Azikiwe, 2013 Echoes of a Century discusses fundamental issues in Nigeria's loose federation as well as unresolved national challenges in the past 100 years It also examines the issue of leadership and its ceaseless manipulation through zoning federal character demography ethnicity and religion that revolve around individuals against national interest the politics and illusion of oil wealth that has become the nation's albatross endemic corruption and societal decadence that negate her growth and development and the clamour for a national conference to renegotiate the country's future Socio-Cultural and Religious Conflicts and the Future of Nigeria Lotanna Olisaemeka, 2022 With the prevailing violent conflict situation of our world perpetuated sometimes even in the name of religion humanity today faces extinction To reverse this ugly trend humanity has no choice than to build a society where every tribe and tongue can coexist in peace This work analyzed the violent conflicts from anthropological behavioral politico philosophical and theological perspectives and makes a demand on humanity to save herself through proper education and dialogue with all men and religions Governance in Nigeria post-1999: Revisiting the democratic 'new dawn' of the Fourth Republic Edited by Romola Adeola & Ademola Oluborode Jegede, 2020-03-06 At the start of Nigeria's Fourth Republic on 29 May 1999 there was great optimism as to the emergence of a new democratic future

representing a significant break from the political undulations of the past Two decades and four presidential epochs later there is a prevalent question as to how well Nigeria has fared in governance and human rights post 1999 This book revisits the democratic new dawn of the Fourth Republic discussing pertinent matters integral to Nigeria s democratic future post 2019

Nigeria, Nationalism, and Writing History Toyin Falola, Saheed Aderinto, 2010 The second half of the 20th century saw the publication of massive amounts of literature on Nigeria by Nigerian and non Nigerian historians This volume reflects on that literature focusing on those works by Nigerians in the context of the rise and the decline of African nationalist historiography

Echoes of Africa's Past. Archaeological explorations in the Anthropocene Savino di Lernia, 2025-05-30 Marking the 70th anniversary of the Libyan Italian archaeological Mission in the Tadrart Acacus and Messak this volume offers a multidisciplinary reflection on Africa s deep past and its enduring legacies in the Anthropocene By tracing the echoes of human environment interactions across time it highlights how archaeological research continues to reshape our understanding of adaptation resilience and transformation in African societies Drawing on interdisciplinary approaches including palaeoecology bioarchaeology rock art analysis the archaeology of food production and their various connections and networks this book challenges outdated Eurocentric narratives by foregrounding African agency and complexity Key themes include among others the Holocene environmental changes that influenced settlement patterns the significance of rock art in interpreting past belief systems and the impact of colonial trade and imperial expansion on indigenous communities Echoes of Africa s Past serves as a resource for archaeologists historians anthropologists and heritage scholars offering fresh perspectives on Africa s dynamic past and its relevance to debates on sustainability and cultural heritage in the Anthropocene Archaeological knowledge is incremental and hard won It is assembled through time intensive study of fragmentary evidence and its corpus represents intergenerational effort Though sometimes based on the study of stones our interpretations are not written in them Our working hypotheses typically run ahead of the evidence needed to assess them Expanded investigations new methods and changing premises compel revision and sometimes outright rejection of earlier ideas Typological aids deemed useful by earlier generations may outlive their usefulness at the same time as the evidence they organize remains pertinent and available for rethinking The cumulative character of archaeological knowledge enables scalar perspectives across space and through time casting what we know of one location in relief through comparison to others These revisions rethinkings and scalar reflections encourage us to appreciate the complexity and diversity of past contexts as amply illustrated in contributions to this volume In short resuscitating echoes of Anthropocene Africa is painstaking work In this way and others archaeology is and should be slow science Ann B Stahl University of Victoria BC Canada

Praying with the Senses Vlad Naumescu, Jeffers Engelhardt, Angie Heo, Jeanne Kormina, Tom Boylston, Daria Dubovka, Simion Pop, 2017-12-15 These essays advance the understanding of Eastern Orthodox spiritual practices from a religious studies perspective Reading Religion How do people experience spirituality through what they see hear touch and smell In this book Sonja Luehrmann and an international group of scholars assess how sensory experience shapes prayer and ritual practice among Eastern Orthodox Christians Prayer even when performed privately is considered as a shared experience and act that links individuals and personal beliefs with a broader institutional or imagined faith community It engages with material visual and aural culture including icons relics candles pilgrimage bells and architectural spaces Whether touching upon the use of icons in the age of digital and electronic media the impact of Facebook on prayer in Ethiopia or the implications of praying using recordings amplifiers and loudspeakers these timely essays present a sophisticated overview of the history of Eastern Orthodox Christianities Taken as a whole they reveal prayer as a dynamic phenomenon in the devotional and ritual lives of Eastern Orthodox believers across Eastern Europe the Middle East North Africa and South Asia Precisely by looking at so varied a group of locations home to Orthodox practice this book conveys the fragility and durability of traditional religion in a postmodern secular age Nadieszda Kizenko author of A Prodigal Saint Father John of Kronstadt and the Russian People Recent Trends in Business and Management Dr. V.S. More, Dr. Apoorva Hiray, 2014 Ghana's Foreign Policy Charles Asante, 2024-08-19 Ghana's Foreign Policy Kwame Nkrumah's Normative Legacy and Pan Africanism examines Ghana's foreign policy in the post independence era focusing on the enduring legacy of Kwame Nkrumah This book also analyzes the complexity of post independence foreign policy decision making and the influence of the post colonial narrative during the Cold War In this study Charles Asante argues that the significance and continuity of Nkrumah's legacy is often attributed to his pan Africanist leadership on the African continent fervently articulating an independent African foreign policy Leaders like Nkrumah considered themselves as the redeemers of Africa's political and economic vulnerability from its colonial experiences Asante finds that in contrast to the positive experience associated with his independence movement for Ghana Nkrumah could not build the same kind of vision engagement and networks among other African nationalist leaders necessary for successful promotion of a Pan African region Despite Nkrumah's own foreign policy failures in the Congo the United States of Africa project and his sudden overthrow in 1966 Nkrumah's Pan African vision is still promoted as an important foreign policy objective by Ghana's politicians public servants military and academics Handbook of Research on Politics in the Computer Age Solo, Ashu M.
