Interactivity and the Online Media Sphere in Nigeria Joseph Wilson, 2019-01-15 In today's age of extraordinary technological development, the mass media industry must constantly innovate and adopt emerging concepts to keep up with the demand of online visibility and prominence. Interactivity is a distinguishing feature of the current online environment and is a necessity in maintaining relevance in the digital media sphere. The growing impact of new media technologies and the resulting pressure on mass media organizations to incorporate more audience involvement have made interactivity a particularly sought-after phenomenon throughout the industry. The prominence of online interactivity has resulted in anxiety throughout the mass media industry regarding the ways in which media organisations can engage with their audience and maintain a high level of traffic on their websites. Attaining these heights largely depends on the quality and nature of interactivity on a given site. This book provides insights into the interactivity basics of an ideal media website and highlights the nature of interactivity in the Nigerian online media sphere vis-à-vis the basics of interactivity. Nigeria's Digital

Kperogi, 2020 Over a decade ago, when Nigeria's migratory digital elite in the United States pioneered a newfangled form of citizen online journalism that disrupted the professional certainties of domestic legacy journalism, the country's professional journalists held out hope that the disruptive effect of this insurgent, non-professionalized, non-routinized but nonetheless transformative form of journalism would be transitory. But diasporic citizen online journalism is not only now an integral part of Nigeria's media ecosystem; it has also inspired successful homeland digital native emulators.

and is challenging even supplanting in some cases traditional domestic media formations as sites of consequential democratic discourse With Nigeria's frenetic and deeply engaged social media scene diasporan citizen journalism homeland news and social media activism are merging to create the most energetic moment in Nigeria's media history This book chronicles the emergence and transformation of Nigeria's diasporic citizen journalism from the margins to the mainstream of the country's journalistic landscape and draws parallels with the mainstreaming of alternative media formations in other parts of the world Farooq A Kperogi is Associate Professor of Journalism and Emerging Media at Kennesaw State University Georgia USA He is a columnist for the Nigerian Tribune and blogs at <https://www.farooqkperogi.com>

Islamophobia in Non-Western Online Newspapers Isyaku Hassan, Mohd Nazri Latiff Azmi, 2021-03-03 The media attention towards Islam has increased recently but meeting the quality standards in reporting the religion is often of great concern in this regard This issue has been debated since the aftermath of violent incidents such as the 9/11 attacks in 2001 the Afghanistan War in 2002 the Iraq War in 2003 the Danish cartoon row in 2005 the London bombings in 2005 the Paris attacks in 2015 and the New Zealand shootings in 2017 In reporting violence the media tend to construct a negative image of Islam which is likely to reproduce unfounded hostility toward Islam and Muslims known as Islamophobia This book provides a systematic analysis of how non western online newspapers reproduce Islamophobia in news reporting

Kevin Etta Jr.,2006-03-27 A Dream of Nigeria is a collection of published essays examining governance in Nigeria from 2002 to 2005 during Nigeria s current civil rule dispensation It is firstly a historical and political assessment of the nature and impact of governance during this period on the social economic and spiritual fortunes of the Nigerian peoples Secondly it is a whisper a prayer and a clarion call for the peoples of Nigeria in particular and Africa in general to reach for something higher than themselves a set of higher values forming the basis for good governance improved service delivery and civic responsibility at all levels and creating a more stable political foundation for proper democratization Nigerian English

David Jowitt,2018-11-05 Although the past few decades have witnessed growing interest in varieties of English around the world no study of the Nigerian variety intended for the international market has yet been published Making use of well known paradigms the book will relate Nigerian English as a Second Language variety to other World Englishes Its chief overall concern however is to provide a detailed descriptive account of the variety seeking to show what is distinctive about it and also in this perspective distinguishing between more educated and less educated usage After giving a sociolinguistic profile of Nigeria where English today enjoys a more prominent role than ever before it will examine in turn the phonology morpho syntax and lexico semantics of Nigerian English with samples of written texts from the eighteenth century to the present It will also give a comprehensive summary of academic research carried out in the field over the past fifty years In this way the book will provide an introduction to the subject for the benefit of scholars and students in universities in many countries and will serve as a useful companion to other books in De Gruyter Mouton s Dialects of English series
