volume set provides an overview of many aspects of Middle Eastern language and literature These books range from discussions of the Arabic language and its publications to translations of some of the region's most important early works to a survey of folk tales and modern literature Maps and Mapping in Children's Literature Nina Goga, Bettina

Kümmerling-Meibauer, 2017-08-15 Maps and Mapping in Children's Literature is the first comprehensive study that investigates the representation of maps in children's books as well as the impact of mapping on the depiction of landscapes seascapes and cityscapes in children's literature The chapters in this volume pursue a comparative approach as they represent a wide spectrum of diverse genres and national children's literatures by examining a wealth of children's books from Canada Denmark Germany Italy Norway Russia the United Kingdom and the USA The theoretical and methodological approaches range from literary studies developmental psychology maps and geography literacy ecocriticism historical contextualization with both new historicist and political historical leanings and intermediality to materialist cartographies cultural studies island studies and genre studies By this this volume aims at embedding children's literature in a broader field of literary and cultural studies thus situating children's literature research within a general context of literary theory

Quarterly Review of Military Literature, 1956 Walking Virginia Woolf's London Lisbeth Larsson, 2017-08-07 This innovative volume employs theoretical tools from the field of literary geography to explore Virginia Woolf's writing and the ways in which she constructs her human subjects It follows the routes of characters from The Voyage Jacob's Room Mrs Dalloway To the Lighthouse and more as they walk around London demonstrating how Woolf constructs the characters in her stories in a very politically conscious way As Larsson argues none of Woolf's characters are able to walk just anywhere at any time in history or at any time of the day Time place gender and class form the conditions of life that the characters must accept or challenge Featuring an array of detailed maps Walking Virginia Woolf's London An Investigation in Literary

Geography brings a fascinating new perspective to Virginia Woolf's work. It is essential reading for scholars of modernist literature or geocriticism. Postcolonial Literature and Challenges for the New Millennium Lucienne Loh, Malcolm Sen, 2017-10-02. This volume brings together an international range of postcolonial scholars to explore four distinct themes which are inherently interconnected within the globalised landscape of the early 21st century: China, Islamic fundamentalism, civil war, and environmentalism. Through close reading a range of literary texts by writers drawn from across the globe, these essays seek to emphasise the importance of literary aesthetics in situating the theoretical underpinnings and political motivations of postcolonial studies in the new millennium. Colonial legacies, especially in terms of structuring exploitative capitalist relations between countries and regions, are shown to persist in postcolonial nations in the form of global civil wars and systemic environmental waste. Chinese authoritarianism and the Indian picturesque represent less familiar forms of neo-colonialism. These essays not only engage with established writers such as Salman Rushdie and Anita Desai, they also critically reflect on work by Nadeem Aslam, Mai Couteiro, Romesh Gunasekera, Bei Dao, and Ma Jian. This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice. Review of Current Military Literature,

Adopting the Track of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Night Navigation A Novel

In some sort of consumed by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast connection, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony created by the published word usually disappear into the back ground, eclipsed by the constant sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of Night Navigation A Novel a marvelous literary prize overflowing with raw emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a masterful musician of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts readers on a psychological trip, well unraveling the hidden songs and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of this touching review, we can explore the book is key harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing style, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
