

The book cover features a low-angle photograph of a large, ornate stone building with arched windows. In the foreground, a bronze statue of a Native American woman in traditional dress is visible. A white rectangular box highlights the upper part of the building, and another white rectangular box highlights the face of the statue. The title and subtitle are centered in a dark grey band, and the author's name is in the bottom right corner.

Nikon D3000 From Snapshots To Great Shots:

Nikon D3000 Jeff Revell, 2010 Nikon's new D3000 is a perfect entry level DSLR. This book is for anyone who upgrades from their point and shoot or for anyone who wants to jump into photography with the control and capabilities of a DSLR but without the high price. There's the manual of course as well as competing books and while they all explain often in 400 pages what the camera can do none of them shows exactly how to use the camera to create great images. This book has one goal to teach D3000 owners how to make great shots using their Nikon camera. It teaches how to use the D3000 to create the type of photos that inspired users to buy the camera in the first place. Everything in the book is in service of creating a great image. Starting with the top ten things needed to know about the camera photographer Jeff Revell then carefully guides readers through the modes of the camera. Users get practical advice from a pro on which settings to use when great shooting tips and even end of chapter assignments.
