

The background of the entire page is a photograph of a sunset. The sky is filled with soft, orange and yellow clouds. In the foreground, a body of water reflects the warm light of the setting sun. A sailboat with a dark, triangular sail is positioned in the lower right quadrant of the image. In the distance, a range of mountains is visible under the twilight sky.

Nile Australia Natures Gateway Interior:

The "Nile" of Australia David John Gordon, 1906 The Europeans in Australia Alan Atkinson, 2014-09-01 This is the third and final volume of the landmark award winning series The Europeans in Australia that gives an account of settlement by Britain It tells of the various ways in which that experience shaped imagination and belief among the settler people from the eighteenth century to the end of World War I Volume Three Nation tells the story of Australian Federation and the war with a focus as ever on ordinary habits of thought and feeling In this period for the first time the settler people began to grasp the vastness of the continent and to think of it as their own There was a massive funding of education and the intellectual reach of men and women was suddenly expanded to an extent that seemed dazzling to many at the time Women began to shape public imagination as they had not done before At the same time the worship of mere ideas had its victims most obviously the Aboriginal people and the war itself proved what vast tragedies it could unleash The culmination of an extraordinary career in the writing and teaching of Australian history The Europeans in Australia grapples with the Australian historical experience as a whole from the point of view of the settlers from Europe Ambitious and unique it is the first such large single author account since Manning Clark s A History of Australia Taming the Great South Land William J Lines, William J. Lines, 1991-01-01 Taming the Great South Land is the first full length landscape history of an entire continent occupied by one nation It is also in William Lines s telling a brutal and controversial story Examining the ways European society rapidly radically transformed Australia s physical and human landscapes the author writes candidly of repeated environmental devastation from the early slaughter of seals and whales to the destructive spread of sheep through gold rushes and land settlement to British nuclear tests and the modern mining and timber industries Lines shows how Enlightenment ideas of progress economic growth and development were reconstructed on Australian soil and how the promise of the conquest of nature became a mockery in fact resulting in the mass dislocation and destruction of indigenous populations This shocking narrative thoroughly researched and accessibly written combines environmental social and political history to hard hitting effect Taming the Great South Land is the first full length landscape history of an entire continent occupied by one nation It is also in William Lines s telling a brutal and controversial story Examining the ways European society rapidly radically transformed Australia s physical and human landscapes the author writes candidly of repeated environmental devastation from the early slaughter of seals and whales to the destructive spread of sheep through gold rushes and land settlement to British nuclear tests and the modern mining and timber industries Lines shows how Enlightenment ideas of progress economic growth and development were reconstructed on Australian soil and how the promise of the conquest of nature became a mockery in fact resulting in the mass dislocation and destruction of indigenous populations This shocking narrative thoroughly researched and accessibly written combines environmental social and political history to hard hitting effect The Statesman's Year-Book J.
