Explorations of Spirituality

in American Women's Literature Scarlett Cunningham,2023-07-07 This book connects the aging woman to the image of God in the work of Flannery O'Connor Joyce Carol Oates Alicia Ostriker Lucille Clifton Mary Szybist and Anne Babson It introduces a canon of contemporary American women's spiritual literature with the goal of showing how this literature treats aging and spirituality as major connected themes It demonstrates that such literature interacts meaningfully with feminist theology social science research on aging and body image attachment theory and narrative identity theory The book provides an interdisciplinary context for the relationship between aging and spirituality in order to confirm that US women's writing provides unique illustrations of the interconnections between aging and spirituality signaled by other fields This book demonstrates that relationships between the human and divine remain a consistent and valuable feature of contemporary women's literature and that the divine human relationship is under constant literary revision Deconverted Jeffery Childress,John S. Knox,2022-04-07 Is the modern Christian church losing the battle against postmodern society and the current hate culture Deconverted reflects research gathered from interviews with once self-professed Christians who have now walked away from the church and their previously deeply held religious beliefs With so much at risk in the lives of postmodern seekers who is being misled and what apologetical truths can the church learn from this phenomenon Big Feelings Liz Fosslien,Mollie West Duffy,2022-04-26 From the duo behind the bestselling book No Hard Feelings and the wildly popular LizandMollie Instagram an insightful and approachable illustrated guide to handling our most difficult emotions We all experience unwieldy feelings But between our emotion-phobic society and the debilitating uncertainty of modern times we usually don't know how to talk about what we're going through much less handle it Over the past year Liz Fosslien and Mollie West Duffy's online community has laughed and cried about productivity guilt pandemic anxiety and Zoom fatigue Now Big Feelings addresses anyone intimidated by oversized feelings they can't predict or control offering the tools to understand what's really going on find comfort and face the future with a sense of newfound agency Weaving surprising science with personal stories and original illustrations each chapter examines one uncomfortable feeling like envy burnout and anxiety and lays out strategies for turning big emotions into manageable ones You'll learn How to end the cycle of intrusive thoughts brought on by regret and instead use this feeling as a compass for making decisions How to identify what's behind your anger and communicate it productively without putting people on the defensive Why we might be suffering from perfectionism even if we feel far from perfect and how to detach your self-worth from what you do Big Feelings helps us understand that difficult emotions are not abnormal and that we can emerge from them with a deeper sense of meaning We can't stop emotions from bubbling up but we can learn how to make peace with them Miracles We Have Seen Harley Rotbart,2016-09-13 This is a book of miracles medical events witnessed by leading physicians for which there is no reasonable medical explanation or if there is the explanation itself is extraordinary These dramatic first-person essays detail spectacular serendipities impossible cures breathtaking resuscitations extraordinary awakenings and recovery from unimaginable disasters Still other essays give voice to cases in which the physical aspects were less dramatic than the emotional aspects yet miraculous and transformational for everyone involved Positive impacts left in the wake of even the gravest of tragedies profound triumphs of heart and spirit Preeminent physicians in many specialties including deans and department heads on the faculties of the top university medical schools in the country describe in everyday language and with moving testimony their very personal reactions to these remarkable clinical experiences Among the extraordinary cases poignantly recounted by the physicians witnessing them A priest visiting a hospitalized patient went into cardiac arrest on the elevator which opened up on the cardiac floor right at the foot of the cardiac specialist at just the right moment A tiny premature baby dying from irreversible lung disease despite the most intensive care who recovered almost immediately after being taken from his hospital bed and placed on his mother s chest President John F Kennedy s son Patrick who died shortly after birth and whose disease eventually led to research that saved generations of babies A nine year old boy who was decapitated in a horrific car accident but survived without neurological damage A woman who conceived and delivered a healthy baby despite having had both of her fallopian tubes surgically removed A young man whose only hope for survival was a heart transplant but just at the moment he developed a potentially fatal complication making a transplant impossible his own heart began healing itself A teenage girl near death after contracting full blown rabies who became the first patient ever to recover from that disease after an unexpected visit by Timothy Dolan the man who would go on to become the Archbishop of New York A Manhattan window washer who fell 47 stories and not only became the only person ever to survive a fall from that height but went on to make a full recovery Miracles We Have Seen is a book of inspiration and optimism and a compelling glimpse into the lives of physicians their humanity and determined devotion to their patients and their patients families It reminds us that what we don t know or don t understand isn t necessarily cause for fear and can even be reason for hope
