Childhood Disability and Family Systems Michael Ferrari, Marvin B. Sussman, 2016-01-08 First published in 1987 this book focuses on childhood disability within the family It examines the very nature of disability itself as well as many of the fundamental elements of families The book was written at a time when the meaning level of disability and its effect on family and society were rapidly changing and people with disabilities were starting to benefit from opportunities to compensate for whatever disabilities they may have had Modern technology and an affluent society afforded advantages to support many of its disabled members Contributors examine the contemporary context of disability the cost of disability to families ethical philosophical and social issues underlying the treatment and rehabilitation of children with severe disabilities and the role of professionals amongst other topics This book will be of interest to those involved in teaching research and direct care with families who have children with disabilities Although written in the late 80s the work discusses subjects that are still vital

today Child Sexual Abuse Nigel Parton, Corrine Wattam, 1999-10-25 This important volume explores children's needs in the context of the policy practice legal and organisational responses to child sexual abuse The chapters written by distinguished experts in the field provide a critical appraisal of recent developments and key debates concerning how to respond to child sexual abuse The emphasis is on keeping the child central in responding to child sexual abuse particularly in the context of refocusing children's services The book is organised around a series of themes identified by survivors of sexual abuse from the National Commission into the Prevention of Child Abuse These themes include justice mediation advocacy confidentiality communication treatment healing surviving family support community perpetrators institutional abuse All of these areas provide major challenges to professionals and health welfare and legal agencies The authors provide practitioners with suggestions on how to meet children's needs whilst satisfying policy and procedures This timely volume provides a child focused exploration of children's needs tackles key sources of conflict in practice makes recommendations to practitioners for practice and policy development The book includes discussion on how far the legislative framework meets the criteria for child victims survivors of sexual abuse and survival and healing strategies from the survivor as expert point of view It also addresses issues concerned with interviewing children arising from the Memorandum of Good Practice Child Sexual Abuse Responding to the Experiences of Children is an essential resource for social work practitioners managers and trainers health visitors solicitors and lawyers involved in legal work with children police officers teachers and all those on related courses

Representing Agency in Popular Culture Ingrid E. Castro, Jessica Clark, 2018-12-20 Representing Agency in Popular Culture Children and Youth on Page Screen and In Between addresses the intersection of children's and youth's agency and popular culture As scholars in childhood studies and beyond seek to expand understandings of agency power and voice in children's lives this book places popular culture and representation as central to this endeavor Core themes of family gender temporality politics education technology disability conflict identity ethnicity and friendship traverse across the chapters framed through various film television literature and virtual media sources Here childhood is considered far from homogeneous and the dominance of neoliberal models of agency is questioned by intersectional and intergenerational analyses This book posits there is vast power in popular culture representations of children's agency and interrogation of these themes through interdisciplinary lenses is vital to furthering knowledge and understanding about children's lives and within childhood studies

The SAGE Handbook of Global Childhoods Nicola J. Yelland, Lacey Peters, Nikki Fairchild, Marek Tesar, Michelle S. Pérez, 2021-09-08 This Handbook explores the multidisciplinary field of childhood studies through a uniquely global lens It focuses on enquiries and investigations into the everyday lives of young children in the age range of birth to 8 years of age giving space to their voices and involving interrogations about the various aspects of their lives This Handbook engages with the interdisciplinary field of childhood studies education cultural studies ethnography and philosophy with contributions from scholars from across the globe who have focused their work on the complexities of childhoods in contemporary times By considering a range of epistemologies ontologies and perspectives to present the contemporary systematic research on the topic from a wide range of academics and authors in the field this Handbook provides a significant contribution to the international dialogue of Global Childhoods Part 1 Global Childhoods Part 2 Researching Global Childhoods Part 3 Contemporary Childhoods Part 4 Pedagogies and Practice Part 5 Creating Communities for Global Children The Palgrave Handbook of Disabled Children's Childhood Studies Katherine Runswick-Cole, Tillie Curran, Kirsty Liddiard, 2017-11-05 Disabled children's lives have often been discussed through medical concepts of disability rather than concepts of childhood Western understandings of childhood have defined disabled children against child development norms and have provided the rationale for segregated or special welfare and education provision In contrast disabled children's childhood studies begins with the view that studies of children's impairment are not studies of their childhoods Disabled children's childhood studies demands ethical research practices that position disabled children and young people at the centre of the inquiry outside of the shadow of perceived norms The Palgrave Handbook of Disabled Children's Childhood Studies will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines as well as practitioners in health education social work and youth work
