Pauls Letter To The Philippians A Socio Rhetorical Commentary:

Paul's Letter to the Philippians Ben Witherington, III, Ben Witherington, 2011-10-06 Paul's short affectionate letter to the Philippians has been much belabored of late by biblical scholars keen to analyze it in light of Greco Roman letter writing conventions Yet Ben Witherington argues that Philippians shouldn't be read as a letter at all but rather as a masterful piece of long distance oratory an extension of Paul's oral speech dictated to a scribe and meant to be read aloud to its recipients With this in mind Witherington analyzes Philippians in light of Greco Roman rhetorical conventions identifying Paul's purpose highlighting his main points and his persuasive strategies and considering how his audience denizens of a society of limited literacy yet saturated in highly skilled oral rhetoric would have heard and received Paul's message Publisher description

Colometric Analysis of Paul's Letters Priscille Marschall, 2024-03-13 Priscille Marschall explores some stylistic aspects of Paul's letters in particular their oral oriented logic of structuration employing Chapters 10-13 of Second Corinthians as a case study The method of analysis draws upon the rhetorical treatises of the Greco Roman world New Testament Rhetoric, Second Edition Ben Witherington, Jason A. Myers, 2022-09-28 Witherington and Myers provide a much needed introduction to the ancient art of persuasion and its use within the various New Testament documents More than just an exploration of the use of the ancient rhetorical tools and devices this guide introduces the reader to all that went into convincing an audience about some subject Witherington and Myers make the case that rhetorical criticism is a more fruitful approach to the NT epistles than the oft employed approaches of literary and discourse criticism Familiarity with the art of rhetoric also helps the reader explore non epistolary genres In addition to the general introduction to rhetorical criticism the book guides readers through the many and varied uses of rhetoric in most NT documents not only telling readers about rhetoric in the NT but showing them the way it was employed This brief guide book is intended to provide the reader with an entrance into understanding the rhetorical analysis of various parts of the NT the value such studies bring for understanding what is being proclaimed and defended in the NT and how Christ is presented in ways that would be considered persuasive in antiquity from the introduction New Testament Rhetoric, Second Edition Ben Witherington III, Jason A. analysis of various parts of the NT the value such studies bring for understanding what is being proclaimed and defended in the NT and how Christ is presented in ways that would be considered persuasive in antiquity from the introduction The Letters of Paul Charles B. Puskas, Mark Reasoner, 2013 The worlds of Paul The letters of Paul in context A chronology of Paul's life The letter to the Romans The Corinthian correspondence The letter to the Galatians The letters to the Colossians and Ephesians The letter to the Philippians and Philemon The Thessalonian correspondence The pastoral letters Asian Journal of Pentecostal Studies, Volume 20, Number 2 Dave Johnson, 2018-11-20 THE JOURNAL SEEKS TO PROVIDE A FORUM To encourage serious theological thinking and articulation by Pentecostals Charismatics in Asia to promote interaction among Asian Pentecostals Charismatics and dialogue with other Christian traditions to stimulate creative contextualization of the Christian faith and to provide a means for Pentecostals Charismatics to share their theological reflections Transforming Work, 2024-07-15 Transforming Work offers a radical re-orientation of the nature and future of work and implications for mission In conversation with David Bosch's Transforming Mission and other global and ecumenical voices 21 leaders offer their vision for transforming the world of work and revisioning work to offer a transforming gift to the world Writing from biblical and historical perspectives with case studies and cultural exegesis they explore work and leisure ethics and economics technologies and Artificial Intelligence It is time to discern where God is transforming work in our cities and farms shops and classrooms politics and agencies Paul and the Vocation of Israel Lionel J. Windsor, 2014-04-01 The Apostle Paul was the greatest early missionary of the Christian gospel He was also by his own admission an Israelite How can both these realities coexist in one individual This book argues that Paul viewed his mission to the Gentiles in and of itself as the primary expression of his Jewish identity The concept of Israel's divine vocation is used to shed fresh light on a number of much debated passages in Paul's letter to the Romans Defending Shame Te-Li Lau, 2020-04-21 Our culture often views shame in a negative light However Paul's use of shame when properly understood and applied has much to teach the contemporary church Filling a lacuna in Pauline scholarship this book shows how Paul uses shame to admonish and to transform the minds of his readers into the mind of Christ The author examines Paul's use of shame for moral formation within his Jewish and Greco-Roman context compares and contrasts Paul's use of shame with other cultural voices and offers a corrective understanding for today's church Foreword by Luke Timothy Johnson Paul and the Philosophers' Faith Suzan Sierksma-Agter, 2024-07-22 The notion of faith experienced a remarkable surge in popularity among early Christians with Paul as its pioneer Yet what was the wider cultural significance of the pistis word group This comprehensive work contextualizes Paul's faith language within Graeco-Roman cultural discourses highlighting its semantic multifariousness and philosophical potential Based on an innovative combination of cognitive linguistics and discourse analysis it explores faith within social political religious ethical and cognitive contexts While challenging modern individualist and irrational conceptualizations this book shows how Paul uses pistis to creatively configure philosophical narratives of his age and propose Christ as its ultimate embodiment
