Pawnship Slavery And Colonialism In Africa:

Pawnship, Slavery, and Colonialism in Africa Paul E. Lovejoy, Toyin Falola, 2003 Exploring the age old institution of African debt bondage in which people are held as collateral in lieu of debts that have been incurred these twenty essays look at the various effects of this practice on such issues as kinship gender and the international slave trade Continuing well into the 1930s because of the economic demands enforced by European colonial rule pawnship and slavery in the event of default on a loan has had a particularly detrimental effect on women and children demonstrating the links between credit servility and gender in large parts of Africa

The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin Falola, 2018-01-28 This wide ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field ranging from the economy the two world wars nationalism decolonization and postcolonial politics to religion development sexuality and the African youth experience Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies including art music literature education and anthropology The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re assessment while new and emerging themes are situated as the book s core strength The result is a comprehensive vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today

Pawnship In Africa Toyin Falola, Paul E Lovejoy, 1994-06-16 Pawnship a legal category of social and economic dependency has been largely neglected in the historiography of Africa Yet the labor of pawns freeborn women men and children indentured in payment of interest on a debt was an important supplement to that of slaves in the precolonial and colonial eras and a substitute for slave labor in the twentieth century This book examines the origins of pawnship the economic factors that contributed to its spread the ideological and institutional framework that supported pawnship its organization the experience of pawns the role of class gender and age changes under colonial rule and the decline and extinction of pawnship

The World of Child Labor Hugh D. Hindman, 2009 This definitive resource details both the current and historical state of child labor in each region of the world focusing on its causes consequences and cures Including contributions by an international team of leading child labor scholars researchers policy makers and activists as well as a wealth of current statistical data it is the most comprehensive reference available on the subject

Sources and Methods in African History Toyin Falola, Christian Jennings, 2004 An overview of the ongoing methods used to understand African history Spurred in part by the ongoing re evaluation of sources and methods in research African historiography in the past two decades has been characterized by the continued branching and increasing sophistication of methodologies and areas of specialization The rate of incorporation of new sources and methods into African historical research shows no signs of slowing This book is both a snapshot of current academic practice and an attempt to sort through some of the problems scholars face within this unfolding web of sources and methods The book is divided into five sections each of which begins with a short introduction by a distinguished Africanist scholar The first section deals with archaeological contributions to historical research The second section examines the methodologies involved in deciphering historically accurate African ethnic identities from the records of the trans Atlantic slave trade The third section mines old documentary sources for new historical perspectives The fourth section deals with the method most often associated with African historians that of drawing historical data from oral tradition The fifth section is devoted to essays that present innovative sources and methods for African historical research Together the essays in this cutting edge volume represent the current state of the art in African historical research Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin Christian Jennings is a Doctoral Candidate in History at the University of Texas at Austin

Labour and Living Standards in Pre-Colonial West Africa Klas Rönnbäck, 2015-11-19 Sub Saharan Africa is the poorest region in the world But its current status has skewed our understanding of the economy before colonization Rönnbäck reconstructs the living standards of the population at a time when the Atlantic slave trade brought money and men into the area enriching our understanding of West African economic development

Pre-Colonial Africa in Colonial African Narratives Donald R. Wehrs, 2016-04-08 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre colonial African history and society in seven texts Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound 1911 Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa's Shaihu Umar 1934 Paul Hazoum's Doguićimi 1938 D O Fagunwa's Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938 Amos Tutuola's The Palm Wine Drinkard 1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954 and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart 1958 Wehrs highlights the role of pre colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives

Slavery and African Life Patrick Manning, 1990-09-28 This book summarizes a wide range of recent literature on slavery for all of tropical Africa

Emancipation Without Abolition in German East Africa, C.1884-1914 Jan-Georg Deutsch, 2006 This study examines the complex history of slavery in East Africa focusing on the area that came under German colonial rule In contrast to the policy pursued at the time by other colonial powers in Africa the German authorities did not legally abolish slavery in their colonial territories However despite government efforts to keep the institution of slavery alive it significantly declined in Tanganyika in the period concerned This book highlights the crucial role played by the slaves in the process of emancipation The book is divided into three parts The first explores the rise of slavery in Tanganyika in the second half of the nineteenth century when the region became more fully integrated into the world economy This is followed by an analysis of German colonial policy The authorities believed that abolition should be avoided at all costs since it would undermine the power and prosperity of the local slave owning elites whose effective collaboration was thought to be indispensable to the functioning of colonial rule The final part recounts how slaves by their own initiative brought the evil institution to an end This comprised both highly disruptive moments of wholesale flight and depending on the possibility of escape and individual circumstances more subtle changes in servile relationships North America Ohio U PressBR The Bonds of Kinship in Dahomey Jessica Catherine Reuther,2025-01-07

From the 1720s to the 1940s parents in the kingdom and later colony of Dahomey now the Republic of Benin developed and sustained the common practice of girl fostering or entrusting Transferring their daughters at a young age into foster homes Dahomeans created complex relationships of mutual obligation kinship and caregiving that also exploited girls labor for the economic benefit of the women who acted as their social mothers Drawing upon oral tradition historic images and collective memories Jessica Reuther pieces together the fragmentary glimpses of girls lives contained in colonial archives within the framework of traditional understandings about entrustment Placing these girls and their social mothers at the center of history brings to light their core contributions to local and global political economies even as the Dahomean monarchy global trade and colonial courts reshaped girlhood norms and fostering practices Reuther reveals that the social economic and political changes wrought by the expansion of Dahomey in the eighteenth century the shift to legitimate trade in agricultural products in the nineteenth century and the imposition of French colonialism in the twentieth all fundamentally altered and were altered by the intimate practice of entrusting female children between households Dahomeans also valorized this process as a crucial component of being well raised a sentiment that continues into the present despite widespread Beninese opposition to modern day forms of child labor
