The End of Supplication Yannick Marshall,2025-10-02 The figure of the supplicant negro a figure famously represented in Josiah Wedgewood s 18th century anti slavery medallion continues to sideline radical Black anti colonialist struggle The End of the Supplication contends that Black freedom struggles are anti colonial movements against anti Blackness and the permutations of slavery and as such they are ill served by a dominant Civil Rights discourse that escapes neither the paternalism of white abolitionism nor the caricatures of minstrelsy The book traces the roots of the white supremacist ideology behind the disarmed supplicant negro figure and it shows how this ideology continues to inform present liberal presentations of Black people as passive subjects at the mercy of white power which only reinforces the relatively light consequences white supremacists generally incur for harming Black people These discussions lead to the conclusion that in our contemporary context of rising openly white supremacist politics the figure of the supplicant negro must be definitively destroyed in order to make way for more effective resistance to anti Black racism This book is a must read for students and researchers interested in colonialism and decolonization diaspora studies critical race and whiteness studies African American studies Black studies and Indigenous studies It is also of keen interest for anyone frustrated with the still recurring admonition to go slow when it comes to eradicating structural racism

The Perfect Country Dean Gualco,2023-08-28 we just don t seem to like each other anymore We once built community centers and donated to libraries joined sporting teams and attended civic meetings swam in local pools and played in public parks participated in street picnics and watched Fourth of July celebrations went to church and supported social clubs and cleaned town squares and help paint our neighbor s house where have those days gone That seem like a bygone era a relic of a different generation or different country Today Republicans vilify the Democrats and Democrats denigrate the Republicans The poor despise the rich and the rich ostracize the poor Organizations mistreat employees and employees detest organizations We argue rather than debate criticize rather than praise and degrade rather than dignify We rarely talk to those we know and seldom socialize with those we do The past may not have been idyllic but it seemed more safe more friendly and more considerate can it get better can we do better We can create a place where citizens share virtuous common values where a sense of compromise advances all not just the few where we contribute our unique gifts and talents to benefit our communities where we are kind and gracious to our fellow man and where we are grateful for the good fortune we have in our lives These are the traits and characteristics of people searching for something better of neighborhoods building something stronger and countries offering something brighter It really can be done and this book shows you how
