Pdf Mind Collection Studies Eighteenth Century Material:

Irish Materialisms Colleen Taylor, 2023-12-08 Irish Materialisms The Nonhuman and the Making of Colonial Ireland 1690 1830 is the first book to apply recent trends in new materialist criticism to Ireland It radically shifts familiar colonial stereotypes of the feminized racialized cottier according to the Irish peasantry s subversive entanglement with nonhuman materiality Each of the chapters engages a focused case study of an everyday object in colonial Ireland coins flax spinning wheels mud and pigs to examine how each object s unique materiality contributed to the colonial ideology of British paternalism and afforded creative Irish expression The main argument of Irish Materialisms is its methodology of reading literature through the agency of materiality and nonhuman narrative in order to gain a more egalitarian and varied understanding of colonial experience Irish Materialisms proves that new materialism holds powerful postcolonial potential Through an intimate understanding of the materiality Irish peasants handled on a daily basis this book presents a new portrait of Irish character that reflects greater empowerment resistance and expression in the oppressed Irish than has been previously recognized

Small Things in the Eighteenth Century Chloe Wigston Smith, Beth Fowkes Tobin, 2022-09-29 Offering an intimate history of how small things were used handled and worn this collection shows how objects such as mugs and handkerchiefs were entangled with quotidian practices and rituals of bodily care Small things from tiny books to ceramic trinkets and toothpick cases could delight and entertain generating tactile pleasures for users while at the same time signalling the limits of the body s adeptness or the hand s dexterity Simultaneously the volume explores the striking mobility of small things how fans coins rings and pottery could for instance carry political philosophical and cultural concepts into circumscribed spaces From the decorative and playful to the useful and performative such small things as tea caddies wampum beads and drawings of ants negotiated larger political cultural and scientific shifts as they transported aesthetic and cultural practices across borders via nationalist imagery gift exchange and the movement of global goods

Material Agency Carl Knappett, Lambros Malafouris, 2008-12-15 Agency is a key theme that cross cuts a wide raft of disciplines in the humanities social sciences and beyond yet it is invariably discussed separately behind closed disciplinary doors Within archaeology agency has been characterized as a uniquely human attribute and a means of incorporating individual intentionality into theoretical discourse In other domains however notions of non human and material agency have been finding currency and it is our aim to introduce some of these themes into archaeology and develop a non anthropocentric approach to agency It is anticipated that such a perspective will not only help us achieve more convincing interpretations of the past giving a more active role to material culture but also throw new light on the changing role of artifacts in the present and the future This book is a groundbreaking attempt to address questions of non human and material agency from a wide range of perspectives and disciplines archaeology anthropology sociology cognitive science philosophy and economics The editors and authors demonstrate that a distributed relational approach to agency incorporating both humans and artifacts has important ramifications for how we understand material culture Material Cultures in Southeast Asia Sabine Chaouche, 2025-05-30 This book investigates everyday objects in Southeast Asia as integral forms of cultural heritage examining their functions significance and the diverse values and emotions they have embodied over time By foregrounding material culture the chapters delve into how these objects ranging from utilitarian tools to artefacts of personal and communal identity reveal the social economic and cultural dimensions of life across different historical periods Through rigorous case studies spanning various regions of Southeast Asia the book offers fresh insights into the interplay between materiality and cultures It underscores how objects function not merely as remnants of the past but as dynamic carriers of heritage that continue to shape contemporary society By bridging perspectives from anthropology history and cultural studies this book enhances our comprehension of the region's intricate social landscapes and contributes to broader discourses on heritage preservation and curation the transmission of cultural values and the ways in which everyday objects serve as conduits for collective memory and identity Ultimately it facilitates the de-centring of Western perspectives in research on Southeast Asia Material Cultures in Southeast Asia provides a better understanding of past and present societies in Southeast Asia and it will be of interest to researchers in the fields of Southeast Asian studies memory studies and heritage studies Semantic Change and Collective Knowledge in 18th Century Britain John Regan, 2023-07-27 An in depth digital investigation of several 18th century British corpora this book identifies shared communities of meaning in the printed British 18th century by highlighting and analysing patterns in the distribution of lexis There are forces of attraction between words some are more likely to keep company than others and how words attract and repel one another is worthy of note Charting these forces this book demonstrates how distant reading 18th century corpora can tell us something new methodologically defensible and crucially interesting about the most common constructions of word meanings and epistemes in the printed British 18th century In the case studies in this book computation brings to light some remarkable facts about collectively produced forms of meaning without which the most common meanings of words and the ways of knowing that they constituted would remain matters of conjecture rather than evidence Providing the first investigation of collective meaning and knowledge in the British 18th century this interdisciplinary study builds on the existing stores of close reading praxis and history of ideas presenting a view constructed at scale rather than at the level of individual texts Empire of Things Frank Trentmann, 2016-01-28 The epic history of consumption and the goods that have transformed our lives over the past 600 years What we consume has become the defining feature of our lives our economies live or die by spending we are treated more as consumers than workers and even public services are presented to us as products in a supermarket In this monumental study acclaimed historian Frank Trentmann unfolds the extraordinary history that has shaped our material world from late Ming China Renaissance Italy and the British Empire to the present Astonishingly wide ranging and richly detailed Empire of Things explores how we have come to live with so much more how this changed the course of history and
