Pdf Staying Power Year My Life:

Madam Speaker Marc Sandalow, 2008-04-29 Unthinkable just a generation ago Hillary Clinton's run for the presidency and Nancy Pelosi's ascension to Speaker of the House have cast the spotlight on American political women as never before. In the 230 years of this country's history never has a woman let alone a mother and a grandmother risen to such a position of power as Nancy Pelosi did when she assumed her role as the first female Speaker of the House third in line for the presidency. In Madam Speaker Marc Sandalow an esteemed journalist and political analyst who covered Pelosi for decades offers a richly nuanced portrait of the woman who made history. He charts Pelosi's political roots honing in on her father who spent five terms in Congress and stored hundreds of copies of the Congressional Record under her bed and goes on to examine how Pelosi who didn't run for political office until she was 47 years old juggled her family life and fought hard to forge a place for herself in Washington ultimately becoming one of the most influential voices in our nation. Based on hundreds of interviews with Pelosi's colleagues family and friends and the Speaker herself Sandalow culls together insightful anecdotes and political analysis to chronicle Pelosi's meteoric rise and controversial tenure. Madam Speaker illuminates the inspiring life of a woman who has already made history. Living Wills and Enduring Powers of Attorney Mark Fairweather, Rosy Border, 2012-09-10 This book allows you to decide whether a living will is for you and offers a plain English living will to make your wishes known and how to grant an EPA allowing those you trust to manage your affairs. You and Your Living-Educational Theory Jacqueline Delong, Jack Whitehead, 2023-07-31 Through the narratives of practitioner researchers this practical guide shares the proven processes phases and supports that are most effective for generating living educational theories with values of human flourishing. Filled with case studies and continuing professional development activities this book supports readers to conduct a values based inquiry to improve their lives describing and explaining how they influence themselves others and the places where they live and work. There are four parts to the book guiding readers through the process of creating and sharing their own living educational theory. Part One is designed to meet the needs of the beginning researcher as they start a project to improve their practice. Part Two builds on Part One to address the deeper more complex requirements of those interested in more academic projects potentially for accreditation at the Master's level. Part Three is a description and explanation of the history and context of Living Educational Theory Research with a focus on doctoral degrees. Part Four focuses on applying this knowledge more widely to living our educational responsibilities as global citizens. This book will serve as a useful guide as opposed to a fixed template to support readers in living their values more fully. It is an essential resource for all practitioners interested in establishing a Culture of Inquiry to create their own living educational theories. These are explanations of values based professional development within their school community and can be submitted for academic accreditation.
