Public History Thomas Cauvin, 2022-05-18 The second edition of Public History A Textbook of Practice offers an updated guide to the many opportunities and challenges that public history practitioners can encounter in the field. Historians can play a dynamic and essential role in contributing to public understanding of the past and those who work in historic preservation in museums and archives in government agencies as consultants as oral historians or who manage crowdsourcing projects need very specific skills. This book links theory and practice and provides students and practitioners with the tools to do public history in a wide range of settings. This new edition reflects how much the field of public history has changed in the past few years with public history now being more established and international. New chapters have therefore been added on the definition history and international scope of public history as well as on specific practices and theories such as historical fictions digital public history and shared authority. Split into four sections this textbook provides approaches methodologies and tools for historians and other public history practitioners to play a bigger role in public debates and public productions of historical interpretations. Part I focuses on the past present and future of public history. Part II explores public history sources and offers an overview of the creation collection management and preservation of materials archives material culture oral history or historical sites. Part III deals with the different ways in which public history practitioners can produce historical narratives through different media including texts fictions audio visual productions exhibitions and performances. Part IV discusses the opportunities and challenges that public history practitioners encounter when working with different collaborators. Whether in public history methods courses or as a resource for practicing public historians this book lays the groundwork for making meaningful connections between historical sources and popular audiences.

Handbook of Research on Accounting and Financial Studies Farinha, Luís, Cruz, Ana Baltazar, Sebastião, João Renato, 2020-03-06 The competitive nature of organizations in today's globalized world has led to the development of various approaches to increasing profitability and maintaining an advantage over rival companies. As technology continues to be integrated into business practices specifically in the area of accounting and finance professionals and educators need to be prepared for advancing economic techniques and they need to maintain a high level of financial literacy. The Handbook of Research on Accounting and Financial Studies is a pivotal reference source that provides vital research on advanced knowledge and emerging business practices and teaching dynamics in the fields of accounting and finance. While highlighting topics such as cost benefit analysis risk management and corporate governance this publication explores new initiatives in entrepreneurship and performance management. This book is ideally designed for business managers consultants entrepreneurs auditors tax practitioners economists accountants academicians researchers and students seeking current research on modern advancements and recent findings in accounting and financial studies.

The Human Rights of Older Persons Bridget Lewis, Kelly Purser, Kirsty Mackie, 2020-08-07 This book provides a comprehensive human rights analysis of key areas of law affecting older persons including legal capacity elder abuse accommodation and aged care healthcare employment financial security retirement and estate planning and social and cultural participation The research identifies individual autonomy and participation in decision making as fundamental to a human rights based approach to elder law The book argues that a paradigm shift must occur away from traditional medical and charity based understandings of old age to instead acknowledge older persons as active holders of enforceable rights The book argues that a Convention on the Rights of Older Persons is an essential tool in achieving this but that even without a dedicated treaty there is much to be gained from a human rights based approach Significantly because the issues arising in old age are often the culmination of experiences occurring throughout the life course a human rights based approach to elder law must begin with a commitment to human rights for people of all ages

Remembering and Learning from Financial Crises Youssef Cassis, Catherine R. Schenk, 2021 How do people remember financial crisis Do these memories affect how policy makers and the public respond to crises or is the past used in different ways by different actors This volume examines a range of cases of financial crisis where either the past has been remembered forgotten used or dismissed to try to begin to answer these questions

Extreme Money Satyajit Das, 2011 Everything from home mortgages to climate change has become financialized as vast fortunes are generated by individuals who build nothing of lasting value Das shows how extreme money has become ever more unreal how voodoo banking continues to generate massive phony profits even now and how a new generation of Masters of the Universe has come to dominate the world

Social Policy in Capitalist History Ayşe Buğra, 2024-02-12 This invigorating book approaches social policy as a response to socioeconomic tensions and conflicts brought about by capitalist development exploring how such policy reflects and shapes the world of work and socioeconomic life Ayşe Buğra presents a historical overview of the ideas and politics of social policy in a discussion framed around the interrelated questions of poverty work and inequality

History of Education Policymaking in India, 1947-2016 R. V. Vaidyanatha Ayyar, 2017-09-12 This book comprehensively chronicles the history of the education policymaking in India from 1947 to 2016 with a focus on the developments after 1964 when the Kothari Commission was constituted The book is informed by the rare insights acquired by the author while making policy at the state national and international levels of governance Another distinguishing feature of this book lies in the attention it pays to the process and politics of policymaking and the larger setting or to use jargon the political and policy environment in which policies were made at different points of time The author brings out a crucial analysis of the Indian educational system against the backdrop of national and global political economic and educational developments Two other distinguishing features of the book are the systematic treatment of the regulation of education and the role of judiciary in the making and implementation of education policies

Ending Extreme Inequality Scott Myers-Lipton, 2015-11-17 Poverty and inequality are at record levels Today forty seven million Americans live in poverty while the median is in decline The top 20 percent now controls 89 percent of all wealth These conditions have renewed demands for a new economic Bill of Rights an idea proposed by F D Roosevelt Truman and Martin Luther King Jr The new Economic Bill of Rights has a coherent plan and proclaims that all Americans have the right to a job a living wage a decent home adequate medical care good education and adequate protection from economic fears of unemployment sickness and old age Integrating the latest economic and social data Ending Extreme Inequality explores each of these rights Each chapter includes an analysis of the social problems surrounding each right a historical overview of the attempts to right these wrongs and assessments of current solutions offered by citizens community groups and politicians These contemporary real life solutions to inequality can inspire students and citizens to become involved and open pathways toward a more just society

Sociology of Crisis Myrto Tsilimpounidi, 2016-11-03 The global financial crisis has demonstrated the impact and implications of late capitalism and its bedfellow globalisation In the European context crisis is seen as a threat to the stability of the region rather than a local or national concern Post 2008 crisis is social and political rather than merely financial as Western countries witness the consequences of consumption growth and profit In this book Tsilimpounidi demonstrates how sociologists must develop new approaches to examining rapid shifts in the social landscape since crisis is not merely reflected in balance sheets but is mediated through spectacular imagery of loss deprivation and increased vectors of marginalisation Providing focused and valuable insight into the pressing problems of those living in Greece in relation to the wider spheres of the nation and at the level of the European Union Sociology of Crisis takes an approach that is firmly located within a critical sociological appeal to reflexivity A timely engagement with the problem of crisis at a macro level and in dialogue with the everyday experiences of crisis on a micro level this interdisciplinary title will appeal to both undergraduate and postgraduate students interested in sociology social policy geography urban studies and research methods social science

The Dog Bone Portfolio Margret Kopala, John Budden, 2015-06-01 Like so many of us Margret Kopala lost a significant portion of her life savings in the stock market crash of 2008 Unlike us however she went on a long and intense financial odyssey to find out what caused the losses and what she could do to protect herself in the future Armed with her skills as a journalist and public policy analyst fueled by equal measures of fear and determination and mentored by successful investment strategist and financial broadcaster John Budden Kopala researched and wrote this magisterial analysis of how Russian economist Nikolai Kondratieff's long wave theory is playing out in what many today describe as a financial Winter Along the way she is introduced to financial experts familiar with Kondratieff scholarship John Budden's interviews in the book with Dean LeBaron J Anthony Boeckh Ian Gordon Larry Jeddelloh Don Lindsey the late Lord William Rees Mogg Jim Rogers Eric Sprott and Ronald Peter St ferle show how investors must put a new spin on asset allocation and security of their assets like a dog that buries bones in different places we would be advised to allocate our assets to different parts of the world and to ensure that a good portion of those assets include gold the only continuous basis of wealth across history and around the world Kopala explores the global national and personal effects of overconsumption
