Contacting the Autistic Child Jorge L. Ahumada, Luisa C. Busch de Ahumada, 2017-02-17 Amid long standing controversy on their causes which most regard as neurological and despite their increasing social impact there has been scant progress in the therapy of the autistic spectrum disorders Currently fashionable attempts at treatment through behavioural cognitive focal approaches do not seek resolution only re education and rehabilitation Contacting the Autistic Child explores the clinical process in the early psychoanalytic treatment of autistic children Organised around five detailed clinical case studies and drawing on the ideas of major clinicians in child analysis such as Tustin Winnicott and Alvarez this book sets out a clear programme for working with and understanding autistic children in a psychoanalytic setting with a particular focus on issues of clinical technique but also conceptual matters Working on the notion that autistic disorders come to be as Winnicott and Tustin saw it from an early rupture of the affective communication between baby and mother this book aims at reinstating such communication in the child analyst interaction By way of detailed description of what goes on in the analytic link the authors strive to make the reader share in what goes on in the clinical setting evincing how though at times excruciatingly hard on the therapist resolution is attainable Once the primal dialogue to use Ren Spitz's terms is reinstated in a stable way in session it flows by itself into the family ambience The clinical accounts of this book make the argument that psychoanalysis carried along Tustin's technical lines and subject to the proviso that treatment starts early preferably in the first three years of life is the treatment of choice for autistic spectrum disorders The strong methodological narrative is important and notable in light of the doubts criticism and uncertainty that have surrounded the psychoanalytic treatment of autism This novel highly detailed narrative of five successful early treatments aims to help dispel the pessimism pervading the field and help to redress the lives of many more children Contacting the Autistic Child will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists endeavouring to obtain results in a major area lacking resolute approaches

Adolescence Donald Meltzer, Martha Harris, 2018-10-31 This volume contains a representative selection of talks and writings by Martha Harris and Donald Meltzer on the key developmental phase of adolescence from their teachings both separately and together over many years Similar books on this topic by these authors have existed for some time in Italian and in Spanish but not until now in English Bion and Meltzer's Expeditions into Unmapped Mental Life Avner Bergstein, 2018-10-03 Drawing on the influential contributions of Wilfred Bion and Donald Meltzer to psychoanalysis Bion and Meltzer's Expeditions into Unmapped Mental Life explores and addresses the clinical implications of their work both through revisiting several of their conceptions and illustrating them with detailed clinical material from the analyses of children adolescents and adults Psychoanalysis strives towards truth this is its essence However emotional truth is often unknowable and not amenable to verbal communication This ineffable mental realm is at the heart of both Bion and Meltzer's psychoanalytic endeavours Bion's writings reflect a developmental stage in the evolution of psychoanalysis extending clinical work to mental realms that were seemingly unreachable Donald Meltzer further infuses Bion's thinking with his own original notions of beauty and aesthetics imbuing Bion's profound thinking with a poetic and lyrical tenor Writing in a clear and lucid manner Avner Bergstein integrates Bion's sometimes highly theoretical thinking with everyday clinical practice facilitating his dense and condensed formulations and making them clinically accessible and useful Bion and Meltzer's Expeditions into Unmapped Mental Life is written for psychoanalysts and psychoanalytically oriented psychotherapists who are attracted to Bion and Meltzer's radical thinking
