The Hong Kong Legal System Stefan H. C. Lo, Kevin Kwok-yin Cheng, Wing Hong Chui, 2020 Offers an accessible overview of Hong Kong's legal system and guides first year law students in legal research and methods The Internationalisation of Legal Education Christophe Jamin, William van Caenegem, 2016-04-30 This volume provides an overview of the state of internationalisation of legal education IOLE in many civil law and common law countries It provides a picture of the status of the debate about the shape and degree of internationalisation in the curriculum in the different countries and the debates surrounding the adoption of a more international approach to legal education in the contemporary world It is a compilation of the National Reports submitted for the August 2014 Congress of the IACL held at Vienna and contains an introductory general report Together the reports examine such questions as Why is the topic of internationalization of legal education on the agenda now Why is it a relevant subject for examination today Does the topic generate the same level of interest everywhere in the world Is enthusiasm for IOLE mainly driven by the academic sector by government by multinational corporations Is the interest closely linked with the globalization of the practice of law Or is globalisation of law itself something of a myth or a reality reserved for only a very small percentage of practising lawyers around the world The general and national reports make clear that there is indeed widespread interest in IOLE and numerous disparate initiatives around the world Nonetheless some National Reporters state that the topic is simply not on the agenda at all All in all the volume shows that the approaches to internationalisation are many and varied but every jurisdiction recognises the importance of introducing aspiring lawyers to a more integrated global environment Law and Legal Institutions of Asia E. Ann Black, Gary F. Bell, 2011-03-10 The study of Asia and its plural legal systems is of increasing significance both within and outside Asia Lawyers whether in Australia America or Europe or working within an Asian jurisdiction require a sound knowledge of how the law operates across this fast growing and diverse region Law and Legal Institutions of Asia is the first book to offer a comprehensive assessment of eleven key jurisdictions in Asia China Hong Kong Taiwan Japan Korea Vietnam Malaysia Indonesia Brunei Darussalam Singapore and the Philippines Written by academics and practitioners with particular expertise in their state or territory each chapter uses a breakthrough approach facilitating cross jurisdictional comparisons and giving essential insights into how law functions in different ways across the region and in each of the individual jurisdictions The Economist ,2005 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1994-02 The Washington Post ,1974

Criminal Procedure Lazar Emanuel, Kimm Walton, 2000-10-01 Criminal Procedure Steven Emanuel, Steven Knowles, 1980 Supplement to Criminal Procedure James B. Haddad, 2002-01 Fitness to Plead Ronnie Mackay, Warren Brookbanks, 2018-06-14 The law relating to fitness to plead is an increasingly important area of the criminal law While criminalization may be justified whenever an offender commits a sufficiently serious moral wrong requiring that he or she be called to account the doctrine of fitness to plead calls this principle into question in the case of a person who lacks the capacity or ability to participate meaningfully in a criminal trial In light of the emerging focus on capacity based approaches to decision making and the international human rights requirement that the law should treat defendants fairly this volume offers a benchmark for the theory and practice of fitness to plead providing readers with a unique opportunity to consider differing perspectives and debate on the future development and direction of a doctrine which has up till now been under discussed and under researched The fitness to plead rules stand as an exception to notions of public accountability for criminal wrongdoing yet despite the doctrine s long standing function in criminal procedure it has proven complex to apply in practice and has given rise to many varied legislative models and considerable litigation in different jurisdictions Particularly troublesome is the question of what is to be done with someone who has been found unfit to stand trial Here the law is required to balance the need to protect those defendants who are unable to participate effectively in their own trial whether permanently or for a defined period and the need to protect the public from people who may have caused serious social harm as a result of their antisocial behaviour The challenge for law reformers legislators and judges is to create rules that ensure that everyone who can properly be tried is tried while seeking to preserve confidence in the fairness of the legal system by ensuring that people who cannot properly engage in the criminal trial process are not forced to endure it
