Outback Heroines: True stories of hardship, heartbreak and resilience Sue Williams, 2013-09-25

From horse whispering to crocodile hunting to single handedly changing an 80 kilo flat tyre on a road train in 40 degree heat there is nothing these modern day outback women can't do But when it comes to hardship and heartbreak they've endured far more than their fair share Living and working in some of the most remote spots in the world they've had to become experts at turning tragedy into triumph Our former Miss World finds a new start in the bush an adventurer crosses one of the world's harshest deserts on camelback a single mum becomes a truck driver to make ends meet and a former nurse takes over the famous Birdsville Hotel This book is a tribute to the great Australian Outback from those who live and work at the heart of it These women simply took my breath away with the kind of courage daring and resilience that have seen them overcome sometimes crushing difficulties Georgie Parker Reading in the Moment Anne Vize,2017-07-05 Studies have shown that reading in a melodic and rhythmic voice can produce positive changes in mood emotion and behaviour in those with dementia This book features a detailed section on the background of how and what to read to those with dementia as well as the research behind bibliotherapy The Last Showman Fred Brophy,2014-08-27 My life has been a mad travelling show meeting some of the strangest and greatest people who've ever lived I've had my fair share of trouble and I'm lucky to be here But I've always been a showman and I've done my best to preserve a precious part of an old Australia that's fast disappearing Son of a sideshow operator and trapeze artist fourth generation showman Fred Brophy grew up on the road travelling the length and breadth of Australia He did time in jail as a wild teenager before establishing his own successful boxing tent It has become a star attraction in the Outback and is now the only one of its kind in the world Fred tells stories of living on the smell of an oily rag rescuing battlers and becoming embroiled in some of the most bizarre adventures imaginable This is one helluva life full of hardship hilarity and unexpected turns including Fred being inducted into the Queensland Boxing Hall of Fame and receiving a Medal of the Order of Australia Now ladies and gentlemen let's go inside The show's about to begin Women of the Outback Sue Williams,2009-08-31 Drought flood harrowing isolation and horrific accidents the Australian outback is no place for a lady But the women of the Outback are a different breed tough resilient and endlessly resourceful They're both the backbone and the heart of Australia keeping their farms going their families together and their communities alive and often against overwhelming odds Maree was left with three small daughters when her husband and young son were killed in a light plane crash Molly lived alone in a 1920s homestead in the middle of the Simpson Desert for twenty years without even a phone Alice admits she couldn't tell a cow from a bull when she first went to live in the Outback This book tells the inspiring stories of fourteen remarkable women from high achievers to everyday heroes Their tales are often heart rending and regularly touched by tragedy but are always life affirming They portray Outback Australian women as they really are and as we all wish we might be every word cried out to be read a remarkable book Bookseller Publisher humbling and awe inspiring Woman's Day Kersplatypus Susan K. Mitchell,2008-02-10 A little creature with a flat furry body webbed feet and a duck bill does not know the answer when other animals ask what kind of creature he is but he is willing to try climbing a tree flying and swimming to help them figure it out Includes facts about platypus Elizabeth and Elizabeth Sue Williams, 2021-01-05 The story of how two women who should have been bitter foes combined their courage and wisdom to wield extraordinary power and influence behind the scenes of the fledgling colony I've waited for this moment so long dreamed of it prepared for it I can barely believe it's finally here But it is And it is nothing like I expected There was a short time in Australia's European history when two women wielded extraordinary power and influence behind the scenes of the fledgling colony One was Elizabeth Macquarie the wife of the new governor Lachlan Macquarie nudging him towards social reform and magnificent buildings and town planning The other was Elizabeth Macarthur credited with creating Australia's wool industry and married to John Macarthur a dangerous enemy of the establishment These women came from strikingly different backgrounds with husbands who held sharply conflicting views They should have been bitter foes Elizabeth Elizabeth is about two courageous women thrown together in impossible times Borne out of an overriding admiration for the women of early colonial Australian history Sue Williams has written a novel of enduring fascination An extraordinary story of female leadership at a time when such a quality was frowned on and female friendship forged against the odds Sue Williams Elizabeth Elizabeth brings us a nuanced and vivid portrait of the early days of colonisation More importantly it delivers a fascinating look into the relationship between two remarkable women Meg Keneally bestselling author of The Wreck A fascinating and evocative story of an enduring friendship between two women who played such an important role in colonial Australia's history Caroline Beecham author of Finding Eadie
