Book Princetons Great Persian Book Kings:

Princeton's Great Persian Book of Kings Marianna Shreve Simpson, Louise Marlow, 2015 Published on the occasion of an exhibition held at Princeton University Art Museum October 3 2015 January 24 2016 Iran and the Deccan Keelan Overton, 2020-06-02 In the early 1400s Iranian elites began migrating to the Deccan plateau of southern India Lured to the region for many reasons these poets traders statesmen and artists of all kinds left an indelible mark on the Islamic sultanates that ruled the Deccan until the late seventeenth century The result was the creation of a robust transregional Persianate network linking such distant cities as Bidar and Shiraz Bijapur and Isfahan and Golconda and Mashhad Iran and the Deccan explores the circulation of art culture and talent between Iran and the Deccan over a three hundred year period Its interdisciplinary contributions consider the factors that prompted migration the physical and intellectual poles of connectivity between the two regions and processes of adaptation and response Placing the Deccan at the center of Indo Persian and early modern global history Iran and the Deccan reveals how mobility liminality and cultural translation nuance the traditional methods and boundaries of the humanities The Empires of the Near East and India Hani Khafipour, 2019-05-14 In the early modern world the Safavid Ottoman and Mughal empires sprawled across a vast swath of the earth stretching from the Himalayas to the Indian Ocean to the Mediterranean Sea The diverse and overlapping literate communities that flourished in these three empires left a lasting legacy on the political religious and cultural landscape of the Near East and India This volume is a comprehensive sourcebook of newly translated texts that shed light on the intertwined histories and cultures of these communities presenting a wide range of source material spanning literature philosophy religion politics mysticism and visual art in thematically organized chapters Scholarly essays by leading researchers provide historical context for closer analyses of a lesser known era and a framework for further research and debate The volume aims to provide a new model for the study and teaching of the region s early modern history that stands in contrast to the prevailing trend of examining this interconnected past in isolation The Safavid World Rudi Matthee, 2021-07-21 The Safavid World brings together thirty chapters on many aspects of the complex Safavid state 1501 1722 With the latest insights and arguments some offer overviews of the period or topic at hand and others present new interpretations of old questions based on newly found sources In addition to political history and religious life the chapters in this volume cover economic conditions commercial links and activities social relations and artistic expressions They do so in ways that stretch both the temporal and geographical perimeters of the subject and contributors also examine Safavid Iran with an eye to both its Mongol and Timurid antecedents and its long afterlife following the fall of the dynasty Unlike traditional scholarship which tended to view the country as unique sui generis and barely affected by the outside world The Safavid World situates Iran in a wider regional or global context Examining the Safavids from their foundations in the fourteenth century to their relations with the rest of the world in the eighteenth century this study is essential reading for undergraduates

Patton, Maria Alessia Rossi, 2023-10-03 Where are the limits of medieval art as a field of study What happens when conventionally trained art historians disregard the chronological geographical or cultural parameters that both direct and protect their scholarship Beginning with Thelma K Thomas and Alicia Walker's acute assessment of the need for a medieval art history for now the essays in Out of Bounds ask what happens when the study of medieval art disregards boundaries that it once obeyed The volume focuses on questions surrounding the production of knowledge and on how scholarly investigation beyond the conventional thematic boundaries of medieval art history is changing demonstrating how the field can address the ethics of scholarship today by positing a global turn in response to growing demands for socially responsible medieval studies Collectively the contributors demonstrate how going out of bounds can transform modern understanding of the people traditions and relationships that gave rise to medieval works As such this book argues for the necessity of reshaping scholarly discourse about the nature and significance of medieval art and generates fresh scholarly interpretations and important new critical tools for teaching and researching the Middle Ages The contributors to this volume are Suzanne Conklin Akbari Michele Bacci Jill Caskey Eva Frojmovic Sarah M Gu rin Christina Maranci Alice Isabella Sullivan Thelma K Thomas Michele Tomasi and Alicia Walker Babur Stephen F. Dale, 2018-05-03 Offers readers a compelling picture of Babur's Central Asian world one which is little appreciated by most individuals who are either natives or students of South Asia studies Provided by publisher Iran Abbas Amanat, 2017-10-24 A masterfully researched and compelling history of Iran from 1501 to 2009 This history of modern Iran is not a survey in the conventional sense but an ambitious exploration of the story of a nation It offers a revealing look at how events people and institutions are shaped by currents that sometimes reach back hundreds of years The book covers the complex history of the diverse societies and economies of Iran against the background of dynastic changes revolutions civil wars foreign occupation and the rise of the Islamic Republic Abbas Amanat combines chronological and thematic approaches exploring events with lasting implications for modern Iran and the world Drawing on diverse historical scholarship and emphasizing the twentieth century he addresses debates about Iran's culture and politics Political history is the driving narrative force given impetus by Amanat's decades of research and study He layers the book with discussions of literature music and the arts ideology and religion economy and society and cultural identity and heritage The Princeton Encyclopedia of Islamic Political Thought Gerhard Bowering, Patricia Crone, Mahan Mirza, 2013 In 2012 the year 1433 of the Muslim calendar the Islamic population throughout the world was estimated at approximately a billion and a half representing about one fifth of humanity In geographical terms Islam occupies the center of the world stretching like a big belt across the globe from east to west P vii
