Marcel Carné Jonathan Driskell, 2019-01-04 This book provides a scholarly yet accessible account of the work of Marcel Carné one of the great directors of classical French cinema and the key figure behind the poetic realist film movement of the 1930s His films a number of which were made in collaboration with the poet turned scriptwriter Jacques Prévert include such well known works as Le Quai des brumes Le Jour se lève and Les Enfants du paradis As the first book to be written on Carné for a number of years it offers a fresh perspective on his cinema particularly through a re-examination of his post-war work although many of these films were very popular and offer a fascinating insight into France at the time they have until now largely been neglected Adopting a carefully crafted aesthetic his films explore a tension between pessimism and entrapment on the one hand and transcendence idealised romantic love and a populist celebration of working class life on the other His career traversed key moments in French cinema including poetic realism the tradition of quality and the French New Wave and spanned important historical moments such as the Popular Front of the 1930s the Second World War and France's post-war modernisation This book will be of interest to scholars students and film lovers alike Child of Paradise Edward Baron Turk, 1989 Traces the career of the influential French director and uses psychoanalytical concepts to analyze his major films

Child of Paradise Edward Baron Turk, 1989 Marcel Carné Jean Quéval, 1950 Marcel Pagnol Brett Bowles, 2012-05-15 Though long ignored or dismissed by film critics and scholars Marcel Pagnol 1895-1974 was among the most influential auteurs of his era This comprehensive overview of Pagnol's career the first ever published in English highlights his unique place in French cinema as a self-sufficient writer-producer-director and his contribution to the long-term evolution of filmmaking in a broader European context In addition to reassessing the converted playwright's controversial prioritization of speech over image the book juxtaposes Pagnol's sunny rural melodramas with the dark urban variety of poetic realism practiced by influential peers such as Jean Renoir and Marcel Carné Le Jour Se Lève Marcel Carné, 1970 Louis Malle (French Film Directors) Hugo Frey, 2004-11-27 This critical analysis of the work of Louis Malle director of Au Revoir les Enfants and My Dinner with André focuses on the most challenging aspects of his oeuvre such as his portrayals of Nazi-occupied France Marcel Carné. [A Biography. With Plates.] Jean Quéval, 1950 Maurice Pialat Marja Warehime, 2006 One of the most gifted directors of the post-New Wave Maurice Pialat is frequently compared to such legendary filmmakers as Jean Renoir and Robert Bresson A quintessentially realist filmmaker who like Bresson was also trained as a painter Pialat's particular form of realism influenced an entire generation of young filmmakers in the nineties This volume is the first book-length study of Pialat's cinema in English It provides an introduction to a complex and difficult director who saw himself as a marginal and marginalised filmmaker but whose films are deeply rooted in French society a

Claude Chabrol Guy Austin, 2021-06-15 This is the first book-length study in English on Chabrol since 1970 Chabrol has always been a neglected figure in the French New Wave but has recently been declared possibly the greatest living film director in France Coincides with the recent renewal of interest in Chabrol which has seen his back catalogue released in the UK on video Celebration of Chabrol s fiftieth film recently Rien ne va plus prompted many festivals and retrospectives Publication coincides with Chabrol s new film which is discussed in this study Writttten by one of the liveliest critics in French cinema author of Contemporary French Cinema
