Patrona, 2017-08-29 This book is a comparative study of six Italian American and Greek American literary works written in the three last decades of the 20th century and examined in pairs Based on the common theme of the authors return either metaphorical or literal to the country of origin and its culture Return Narratives explores the common motifs of mythology ritual and storytelling where the third generation writers resort to in their quest for self definition With a common historical and cultural background in the old neighboring countries Greece and Italy and a similar reception in the new world facilitating a comparative approach the ethnic writers of the two literatures clearly envisage ethnic space as a site of resilience and empowerment Mobile Narratives Eleftheria Arapoglou, Mónika Fodor, Jopi Nyman, 2013-08-15 Emphasizing the role of travel and migration in the performance and transformation of identity this volume addresses representations of travel mobility and migration in 19th 21st century travel writing literature and media texts In so doing the book analyses the role of the various cultural ethnic gender and national encounters pertinent to narratives of travel and migration in transforming and problematizing the identities of both the travelers and travelees enacting in the borderzones between cultures While the individual essays by scholars from a wide range of countries deal with a variety of case studies from various historical spatial and cultural locations they share a strong central interest in the ways in which the narratives of travel contribute to the imagining of ethnic encounters and how they have acted as sites of transformation and transculturation from the early nineteenth century to the present day In addition to discussing textual representations of travel and migration the volume also addresses the ways in which cultural texts themselves travel and are reconstructed in various cultural settings The analyses are particularly attentive to the issues of globalization and migration which provide a general frame for interpretation What distinguishes the volume from existing books is its concern with travel and migration as ways of forging transcultural identities that are able to subvert existing categorizations and binary models of identity formation In so doing it pays particular attention to the performance of identity in various spaces of cultural encounter ranging from North America to the East of Europe putting particular emphasis on the representation of intercultural and ethnic encounters
