Nietzsche and Van Gogh Brian Pines, 2025-06-20 In 1888 two of history's most enigmatic figures Friedrich

Nietzsche and Vincent van Gogh were living in obscurity driven by relentless creative ambition but haunted by loneliness lovelessness and impending madness Their creative frenzies were strangely synchronized both would enter intense periods of productivity at the same time followed by bouts of illness and depression until at the year s end they suffered psychotic breaks just days apart This book delves into these uncanny convergences tracing the philosopher s feverish literary output and the painter s transformative artistic breakthroughs Through meticulous research and philosophical inquiry it unveils the striking parallels between their lives Written for those drawn to the intersection of philosophy art and history this work blends meticulous research with cultural analysis offering deep insights into two figures who would later redefine modern thought and aesthetics

Revelation and Reconciliation ,2021-02-25 This substantially revised second edition of Revelation and Reconciliation first published by Cambridge University Press in 1995 gives a fresh account of the intellectual breakdown of Christianity in the West In contrast to the familiar focus on epistemological questions and the collision between reason and revelation Stephen Williams argues that underlying this collision is a deeper conflict between belief in human moral self sufficiency and Christian belief in reconciliation in history Taking issue with thinkers including the philosopher of science Michael Polanyi and the theologian Colin Gunton the argument proceeds by examining the contributions of Descartes Locke Barth and Nietzsche before coming to conclusions on the theological reading of intellectual history and the prospects of revitalising a contemporary Christian belief in reconciliation in history Students of both theology and the history of modern thought will find in Williams analysis an alternative interpretation of the balance of forces in post Reformation Western thought with implications for how they should be addressed
