Nigerian Stage Directors' Philosophies, Aesthetics and Ideologies Bisi Adigun, Duro Oni, 2025-02-15 In several Nigerian universities theories of Western stage directors who are long dead are still relied upon to teach Nigerian students the art of stage directing This is akin to eating Nigerian delicacies such as isi ewu a goat's head delicacy which are traditionally eaten with fingers with cutlery How can the brain of an aspiring Nigerian theatre director be full of the principles of Russian German English French and Polish stage directors who are all dead while he or she does not know much about contemporary Nigerian stage directors many of whom are still alive and practising This is the major lacuna that this book fills Containing essays and interview contributions from 30 directors of different ages generations genders and social classes and from different parts of Nigeria and beyond this book will afford the future generation of stage directors not only in Nigeria but also in the world at large the opportunity to learn from an epistemic community and stand on the shoulders of indigenous

Nigerian theatre giants to touch the sky Creating African Fashion Histories JoAnn McGregor, Heather Akou, Nicola Stylianou, 2022-04-05 Creating African Fashion Histories examines the stark disjuncture between African self fashioning and museum practices Conventionally African clothing textiles and body adornments were classified by museums as examples of trade goods art and ethnographic materials never as fashion Counterposing the dynamism of African fashion with museums historic holdings thus provides a unique way of confronting ways in which coloniality persists in knowledge and institutions today This volume brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and curators to debate sources and approaches for constructing African fashion histories and to examine their potential for decolonizing museums fashion studies and global cultural history The editors of this volume seek to answer questions such as How can researchers use museum collections to reveal traces of past self fashioning that are obscured by racialized forms of knowledge and institutional practice How can archival visual oral ethnographic and online sources be deployed to capture the diversity of African sartorial pasts How can scholars and curators decolonize the Eurocentric frames of thinking encapsulated in historic collections and current curricula Can new collections of African fashion decolonize museum practice From Moroccan fashion bloggers to upmarket Lagos designers the voices in this ground breaking collection reveal fascinating histories and geographies of circulation within and beyond the continent and its diasporic communities

Images That Injure Paul Martin Lester, 2011-04-19 This expanded collection of new and fully revised explorations of media content identifies the ways we all have been negatively stereotyped and demonstrates how careful analysis of media portrayals can create more beneficial alternatives Not all damaging stereotypes are obvious In fact the pictorial stereotypes in the media that we don't notice could be the most harmful because we aren't even aware of the negative false ideas they perpetrate This book presents a series of original research essays on media images of groups including African Americans Latinos women the elderly the physically disabled gays and lesbians and Jewish Americans just to mention a few Specific examples of these images are derived from a variety of sources such as advertising fine art film television shows cartoons the Internet and other media providing a wealth of material for students and professionals in almost any field Images That Injure Pictorial Stereotypes in the Media Third Edition not only accurately describes and analyzes the media's harmful depictions of cultural groups but also offers creative ideas on alternative representations of these individuals These discussions illuminate how each of us is responsible for contributing to a sea of meaning within our mass culture

The African Photographic Archive Christopher Morton, Darren Newbury, 2020-10-15 African photography has emerged as a significant focus of research and scholarship over the last twenty years the result of a growing interest in postcolonial societies and cultures and a turn towards visual evidence across the humanities and social sciences At the same time many rich and fascinating photographic collections have come to light This volume explores the complex theoretical and practical issues involved in the study of African photographic archives based on case studies drawn from across the continent dating from the 19th century to the present day Chapters consider what constitutes an archive from the familiar mission and state archives to more local vernacular and personal accumulations of photographs the importance of a critical and reflexive engagement with photographic collections and the question of where and what is Africa as constructed in the photographic archive Essential reading for all researchers working with photographic archives this book consolidates current thinking on the topic and sets the agenda for future research in this field

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included

The Image of the Black in Western Art David Bindman, 2010 A pioneering work in the field of art history The Image of the Black in Western Art is a comprehensive series of ten books which offers a lavishly illustrated history of the representations of people of African descent from antiquity to the present Each book includes a series of essays by some of the most distinguished names in art history Ranging from images of Pharaohs created by unknown hands almost 3 500 years ago to the works of the great masters of European and American art such as Bosch D rer Mantegna Rembrandt Rubens Watteau Hogarth Copley and Goya to stunning new media creations by contemporary black artists these books are generously illustrated with beautiful moving and often little known images of black people Black figures queens and slaves saints and soldiers priests and prisoners dancers and athletes children and gods are central to the visual imagination of Western civilization Written in accessible language the extensive and insightful commentaries on the illustrations by distinguished art historians make this series invaluable for the general reader and the specialist alike Résumé de l'auteur

Affective Images Marietta Kesting, 2017-12-04 Affective Images examines both canonical and lesser known photographs and films that address the struggle against apartheid and the new struggles that came into being in post apartheid times Marietta Kesting argues for a way of embodied seeing and complements this with feminist and queer film studies history of photography media theory and cultural studies Featuring in depth discussions of photographs films and other visual documents Kesting then situates them in broader historical contexts such as cultural history and the history of black subjectivity and revolves the images around the intersection of race and gender In its interdisciplinary approach this book explores the recurrence of affective images of the past in a different way including flashbacks trauma white noise and the return of the repressed It draws its materials from photographers filmmakers and artists such as Ernest Cole Simphiwe Nkwali Terry Kurgan Thenjiwe Niki Nkosi Adze Ugah and the Center for Historical Reenactments This book is freely available in an open access edition thanks to Knowledge Unlatched an initiative that provides libraries and institutions with a centralized platform to support OA collections and from leading publishing houses and OA initiatives Learn more at the Knowledge Unlatched website at <https://www.knowledgeunlatched.org> and access the book online at the SUNY Open Access Repository at <http://hdl.handle.net/20.500.12648/7134>

African Cinema: Manifesto and Practice for Cultural Decolonization Michael T. Martin, 2023-08-08 Challenging established views and assumptions about traditions and practices of filmmaking in the African diaspora this three volume set offers readers a researched critique on black film Volume One of this landmark series on African cinema draws together foundational scholarship on its history and evolution Beginning with the ideological project of colonial film to legitimize the economic exploitation and cultural hegemony of the African continent during imperial rule to its counter historical formation and theorization It comprises essays by film scholars and filmmakers alike among them Roy Armes Med Hondo Frid Boughedir Haile Gerima Oliver Barlet Teshome Gabriel and David Murphy including three distinct dossiers a timeline of key dates in the history of African cinema a comprehensive chronicle and account of the contributions by African women in cinema and a homage and overview of Ousmane Sembène the Father of African cinema

African Futures, 2022-02-28 The essays in this collection are written to make readers reconsider what is possible in Africa The essays shake the tree of received wisdom and received categories and hone in on the complexities of life under ecological and economic constraints Yet throughout this volume people do not emerge as victims but rather as inventors engineers scientists planners writers artists and activists or as children mothers fathers friends or lovers all as future makers It is precisely through agents such as these that Africa is futuring rethinking living confronting imagining and relating in the light of its many emerging tomorrows
