Routledge Handbook Of Global Citizenship Studies Routledge International Handbooks:

Routledge Handbook of Global Citizenship Studies Engin Isin, Peter Nyers, 2014-06-27 Citizenship studies is at a crucial moment of globalizing as a field. What used to be mainly a European, North American and Australian field has now expanded to major contributions featuring scholarship from Latin America, Asia, Africa and the Middle East. The Routledge Handbook of Global Citizenship Studies takes into account this globalizing moment. At the same time it considers how the global perspective exposes the strains and discords in the concept of citizenship as it is understood today. With over fifty contributions from international interdisciplinary experts, the Handbook features state of the art analyses of the practices and enactments of citizenship across broad continental regions: Africa, Americas, Asia, and Europe, as well as deterritorialized forms of citizenship: Diasporicity and Indigeneity. Through these analyses, the Handbook provides a deeper understanding of citizenship in both empirical and theoretical terms. This volume sets a new agenda for scholarly investigations of citizenship. Its wide ranging contributions and clear accessible style make it essential reading for students and scholars working on citizenship issues across the humanities and social sciences. Global Citizenship Education: A Critical Introduction to Key Concepts and Debates Edda Sant, Ian Davies, Karen Pashby, Lynette Shultz, 2018-02-22 Global Citizenship Education explores key ideas and issues within local, national and global dimensions. Including examples and case studies from across the world, the authors draw on ideas, experiences and histories within and beyond the West to contribute to multifaceted perspectives on global citizenship education. In concise chapters, the authors set out the key concepts and debates within the field. Global citizenship education is contextualized within key educational frameworks including citizenship education, global education, development education and peace education. Edda Sant, Ian Davies, Karen Pashby and Lynette Shultz explore the different ways in which global citizenship can be taught, learned and assessed in formal and informal contexts. Including examples from a wide range of education institutions, chapters provide overviews of policy making and international practices borne out of different approaches to global citizenship education. With each chapter including a summary of key issues, an annotated list of key resources, an exercise for students and a further reading list, Global Citizenship Education will aid understanding of this complex and debated area of study. Handbook of Citizenship and Migration Marco Giugni, Maria Grasso, 2021-06-25 Taking an integrated approach, this unique Handbook places the terms citizenship and migration on an equal footing, examining how they are related to each other both conceptually and empirically. International Encyclopedia of Business Management, 2025-09-01 The Encyclopedia of Business Management Four Volume Set is a comprehensive resource that covers over 200 topics across various areas of business management. Each entry is written in an accessible manner, making complex concepts easy to understand. The encyclopedia addresses interdisciplinary subjects such as cultural entrepreneurship, tourism, innovation and marketing promotions. By emphasizing definitions and practical applications, the entries help readers grasp the relevance of each topic. Expert editors lead each section, ensuring that the contributions are authoritative and well rounded The encyclopedia is divided into seven broad themes including business entrepreneurship human resource management innovation management international business organizational behavior project management supply chain management and sport and tourism management Each section s articles begin with a technical analysis of key definitional issues followed by an exploration of the topic s broader context This structured approach provides a holistic examination of the subjects allowing readers to gain a comprehensive understanding of vital business management concepts Provides a comprehensive overview of the main business management topics Focuses specifically on business management from a range of perspectives Includes new and emerging business management topics Presents an interdisciplinary focus in terms of business management practices Features templates across all chapters for ease of navigation and use Global Citizenship Education Abdeljalil Akkari,Kathrine Maleq,2020-08-18 This open access book takes a critical and international perspective to the mainstreaming of the Global Citizenship Concept and analyses the key issues regarding global citizenship education across the world In that respect it addresses a pressing need to provide further conceptual input and to open global citizenship agendas to diversity and indigeneity Social and political changes brought by globalisation migration and technological advances of the 21st century have generated a rise in the popularity of the utopian and philosophical idea of global citizenship In response to the challenges of today s globalised and interconnected world such as inequality human rights violations and poverty global citizenship education has been invoked as a means of preparing youth for an inclusive and sustainable world In recent years the development of global citizenship education and the building of students global citizenship competencies have become a focal point in global agendas for education international educational assessments and international organisations However the concept of global citizenship education still remains highly contested and subject to multiple interpretations and its operationalisation in national educational policies proves to be challenging This volume aims to contribute to the debate question the relevancy of global citizenship education s policy objectives and to enhance understanding of local perspectives ideologies conceptions and issues related to citizenship education on a local national and global level To this end the book provides a comprehensive and geographically based overview of the challenges citizenship education faces in a rapidly changing global world through the lens of diversity and inclusiveness The Oxford Handbook of Governance and Limited Statehood Thomas Risse,Tanja A. Börzel,Anke Draude,2018 Unpacking the major debates this Oxford Handbook brings together leading authors of the field to provide a state of the art guide to governance in areas of limited statehood where state authorities lack the capacity to implement and enforce central decision and or to uphold the monopoly over the means of violence While areas of limited statehood can be found everywhere not just in the global South they are neither ungoverned nor ungovernable Rather a variety of actors maintain public order and safety as well as provide public goods and services While external state governors and their interventions in the global South have received special scholarly attention various non state actors from NGOs to business to violent armed groups have emerged that also engage in governance This evidence holds for diverse policy fields and historical cases The Handbook gives a comprehensive picture of the varieties of governance in areas of limited statehood from interdisciplinary perspectives including political science geography history law and economics 29 chapters review the academic scholarship and explore the conditions of effective and legitimate governance in areas of limited statehood as well as its implications for world politics in the twenty first century The authors examine theoretical and methodological approaches as well as historical and spatial dimensions of areas of limited statehood and deal with the various governors as well as their modes of governance They cover a variety of issue areas and explore the implications for the international legal order for normative theory and for policies toward areas of limited statehood

Rethinking Intercultural Education in Times of Migration and Displacement Nektaria Palaiologou,2023-10-06 Which are the main issues which are at the forefront of the academic discourse within the field of intercultural education today That s the central question on which the current volume attempts to shed some light By presenting theoretical foundations research findings practical examples and case studies the book helps readers to go beyond stereotypes and prejudices strengthening the intercultural education principles in their practices The diverse perspectives contained in the book provided through contributions from authors from different countries encourage readers to critically reflect on the promotion and further development of intercultural and multicultural education and on the different approaches for effectively facing complex diversity issues in multicultural settings

International Handbook on Education Development in the Asia-Pacific Wing On Lee,Phillip Brown,A. Lin Goodwin,Andy Green,2023-11-20 The Springer International Handbook of Educational Development in Asia Pacific breaks new ground with a comprehensive fine grained and diverse perspective on research and education development throughout the Asia Pacific region In 13 sections and 127 chapters the Handbook delves into a wide spectrum of contemporary topics including educational equity and quality language education learning and human development workplace learning teacher education and professionalization higher education organisations citizenship and moral education and high performing education systems The Handbook is grounded in specific Asia Pacific contexts and scholarly traditions using unique country specific narratives for example Vietnam and Melanesia and socio cultural investigations through lenses such as language identity or colonisation while offering parallel academic discourse and analyses framed by broader policy commentary from around the world

Postcolonial Citizenship in Provincial Indonesia Gerry van Klinken,2019-04-09 This book examines the history of state formation in postcolonial Indonesia by starting with the death of Jan Djong an activist and a former village head in the little town of Maumere It historicizes contemporary debates on citizenship in the postcolonial world Citizenship has been called the organizing principle of state society relations in modern states Democratization is today most intense in the non Western post colonial world Yet real citizenship seems largely absent there Only a few rights claiming autonomous and individualistic citizens celebrated in mainstream literature exist in post colonial countries In reflecting on one concrete story to examine the core dilemmas facing the study of citizenship in postcolonial settings this book challenges ethnocentricity found within current scholarly work on citizenship in Europe and North America and addresses issues of institutional fragility political violence as well as legitimacy and aspirations to freedom in non Western cultures Sacrificial Limbs Salih Can Aciksoz, 2019-12-03 Sacrificial Limbs chronicles the everyday lives and political activism of disabled veterans of Turkey's Kurdish war one of the most volatile conflicts in the Middle East Through nuanced ethnographic portraits Akiz examines how veterans' experiences of war and disability are closely linked to class gender and ultimately the embrace of ultranationalist right wing politics Bringing the reader into military hospitals commemorations political demonstrations and veterans' everyday spaces of care intimacy and activism Sacrificial Limbs provides a vivid analysis of the multiple and sometimes contradictory forces that fashion veterans' bodies political subjectivities and communities It is essential reading for students and scholars interested in anthropology masculinity and disability
