Asian Cultural Flows Nobuko Kawashima, Hye-Kyung Lee, 2018-10-10 This book investigates economic political and cultural conditions that have led to transnational flows of culture in Asia Coverage also looks at the consequences of an increasingly interconnected Asian regional culture as well as policy makers and cultural industries response to it The book features essays written by researchers from different countries in Asia and beyond with diverse disciplinary backgrounds The volume also contains engaging examples and cases with comparative perspectives The contributors provide readers with grounded analysis in the organizational and economic logics of Asian creative industries national cultural policies that promote or hinder cultural flows and the media convergence and online consumers surging demand for Asianized cultural products Such insights are of crucial importance for a better understanding of the dynamics of transnational cultural flows in contemporary Asia In addition the essays aim to de westernize the study of cultural and creative industries which draws predominantly on cases in the United States and Europe The contributors focus instead on regional dynamics of the development of these industries The popularity of J Pop and K Pop in East and Southeast Asia and beyond is now well known but less is known about how this happened This volume offers readers theoretical tools that will help them to make better sense of those exciting phenomena and other rising cultural flows within Asia and their relevance to the global cultural economy

The Poet's Tomb Martin Corless-Smith, 2020-04-23 Every poem an epitaph every poem a ticket to ride from Sappho's bittersweet eroticism to the wild civility of Robert Herrick Martin Corless Smith is a poet painter and translator of canonical poems and each of these vocations is on view in this memorable defense of poetry as he reads from Virgil to Notley in sight of the impossible blue of Bellini's Doge Leonardo Loredan and Piranesi's otherworldly Pyramid of Cestius while contemplating the paradoxes of the finite body of the poet dreaming immortal poetry Keith Tuma Querying the embodiment of poetry Corless Smith begins in the body of the poet living and or dead and passes from there through the body of the reader in order to argue the mutual construction of the body of a poem as a shared body and a new commons which like all things vital to survival air water hope must be maintained as open and available to all These succinct elegant essays perform this maintenance and in the process return us to all poetry charged with the energy and insight necessary to continue that maintenance ourselves Cole Swensen Whole Green Catalog Michael W.
