Routledge Handbook of Religions in Asia Bryan Turner, Oscar Salemink, 2014-09-25 The Routledge Handbook of Religions in Asia provides a contemporary and comprehensive overview of religion in contemporary Asia Compiled and introduced by Bryan S Turner and Oscar Salemink the Handbook contains specially written chapters by experts in their respective fields The wide ranging introduction discusses issues surrounding Orientalism and the historical development of the discipline of Religious Studies It conveys how there have been many centuries of interaction between different religious traditions in Asia and discusses the problem of world religions and the range of concepts such as high and low traditions folk and formal religions popular and orthodox developments Individual chapters are presented in the following five sections Asian Origins religious formations Missions States and Religious Competition Reform Movements and Modernity Popular Religions Religion and Globalization social dimensions Striking a balance between offering basic information about religious cultures in Asia and addressing the complexity of employing a western terminology in societies with radically different traditions this advanced level reference work will be essential reading for students researchers and scholars of Asian Religions Sociology Anthropology Asian Studies and Religious Studies Routledge Handbook of South Asian Religions Knut A. Jacobsen, 2020-11-29 The Routledge Handbook of South Asian Religions presents critical research overviews and case studies on religion in historical South Asia in the seven nation states of contemporary South Asia India Pakistan Bangladesh Nepal Bhutan Sri Lanka and the Maldives and in the South Asian diaspora Chapters by an international set of experts analyse formative developments roots changes and transformations religious practices and ideas identities relations territorialisation and globalisation in historical and contemporary South Asia The Handbook is divided into two parts which first analyse historical South Asian religions and their developments and second contemporary South Asia religions that are influenced by both religious pluralism and their close connection to nation states and their ideological power Contributors argue that religion has been used as a tool for creating nations as well as majorities within those nations in South Asia despite their enormous diversity in particular religious diversity The Handbook explores these diversities and tensions historical developments and the present situation across religious traditions by utilising an array of approaches and from the point of view of various academic disciplines Drawing together a remarkable collection of leading and emerging scholars this handbook is an invaluable research tool and will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of Asian religion religion in context and South Asian religions The Routledge Handbook of Religions and Global Development Emma Tomalin, 2015-02-11 This Handbook provides a cutting edge survey of the state of research on religions and global development Part one highlights critical debates that have emerged within research on religions and development particularly with respect to theoretical conceptual and methodological considerations from the perspective of development studies and its associated disciplines Parts two to six look at different regional and national development contexts and the place of religion within these These parts integrate and examine the critical debates raised in part one within empirical case studies from a range of religions and regions Different religions are situated within actual locations and case studies thus allowing a detailed and contextual understanding of their relationships to development to emerge Part seven examines the links between some important areas within development policy and practice where religion is now being considered including Faith Based Organisations and Development Public Health Religion and Development Human rights Religion and Development Sustainable Development Climate Change and Religion Global Institutions and Religious Engagement in Development Economic Development and Religion Religion Development and Fragile States Development and Faith Based Education Taking a global approach the Handbook covers Africa Latin America South Asia East and South East Asia and the Middle East It is essential reading for students and researchers in development studies and religious studies and is highly relevant to those working in area studies as well as a range of disciplines from theology anthropology and economics to geography international relations politics and sociology     Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia Chiara

Formichi,2021-09-30 The Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia offers both new and established scholarship on Muslim societies and religious practices across Asia from a variety of interdisciplinary angles with chapters covering South Central East and Southeast Asia as well as Africa Asia connections Presenting work grounded in archival literary and ethnographic inquiry contributors to this handbook lend their expertise to paint a picture of Islam as deeply connected to and influenced by Asia often by passing or reversing relationships of power and authority that have placed Arab Islam in a hierarchically superior position vis vis Asia This handbook is structured in four parts each representing an emergent area of inquiry Frames Authority and authorizing practices Muslim spatialities Imaginations of piety Dislodging ingrained assumptions that Asia is at the periphery of Islam and that Islam is at the periphery of Asia s cultural matrix this handbook sets an agenda against the center periphery dichotomy as well as the syncretism paradigm that has dominated conversations on Islam in Asia It thus demonstrates possibilities for new scholarly approaches to the study of Islam within the Asian context This ground breaking handbook is a valuable resource to students and scholars of Asian studies religious studies and cultural studies more broadly

Routledge Handbook of Islam in Southeast Asia Syed Muhammad Khairudin Aljunied,2022-03-03 This handbook explores the ways in which Islam as one of the fastest growing religions has become a global faith for both Muslims and non Muslims in Southeast Asia with its universality inclusivity and shared features with other Islamic expressions and manifestations It offers an up to date wide ranging comprehensive concise and readable introduction to the field of Islam in Southeast Asia With specific themes of pertinent contemporary relevance the contributions by experts in the field provide fresh insights into the roles of states societies scholars social movements political parties economic institutions sacred sites and other forces that structured the faith over many centuries The handbook is structured in three parts Muslim Global Circulations Marginal Narratives Refashioning Pieties This handbook stands out as a single and synergistic reference work that explores the ebb and flow of Islam seeking to decenter many existing assumptions about it in Southeast Asia It will be an indispensable resource for scholars students and policymakers working on Islam Muslims and their interactions with other communities in a plural setting

New Religious Movements in Modern Asian History David W. Kim, 2020-09-30 This book provides evidence that the emergence of Asian new religious movements NRMs was predominantly the result of anti colonial ideology from local religious groups or individuals The contributors argue that when traditional religions were powerless to maintain their cultural heritage the leadership of NRMs adduced alternative principles and the new teachings of each NRM attracted the local people enough for them to change their beliefs The contributors argue that as a whole the Asian new religious movements overall were very ardent and progressive in transmitting their new ideologies The varied viewpoints in this volume attest to the consistent development of Asian NRMs from domestic and international dimensions by replacing old traditional religions

The Palgrave Handbook of Political Norms in Southeast Asia Gabriel Facal, Elsa Lafaye de Micheaux, Astrid Norén-Nilsson, 2024-06-07 This open access handbook aims to constitute a reference point on political norm dynamics in Southeast Asia by bringing together the array of normative repertoires that frame the possibilities for citizens to participate in set agendas for make decisions in and contest not only electoral and institutional politics but also informal and imaginary political spaces It sheds light on intersecting political and social transformations and their consequences from the vantage point of political norms While chapters lay out and analyse how political norms across Southeast Asia have been shaped in successive historical phases the core of the handbook addresses current dynamics involved in defining and transforming political norms

Exploring Religious Diversity and Covenantal Pluralism in Asia Dennis R. Hoover, 2022-12-26 This book examines the growing diversity of religions and worldviews across East Southeast Asia and the factors affecting prospects for covenantal pluralism in these regions According to the Pew Religious Diversity Index half of the world's most religiously diverse countries are in Asia The presence of deep religious worldview difference is often seen as a potential threat to socio political cohesion or even as a source of violent conflict Yet in Asia as elsewhere the degree of this diversity is not consistently associated with socio political problems Indeed while religious difference is implicated in some social challenges there are also many instances of respectful multi faith engagement practical collaboration and peaceful debate Whether or not religious worldview difference is part of a positive pluralism depends on a complex array of legal and cultural conditions This book explores these dynamics and contingencies in Asia structuring the inquiry according to the theory of covenantal pluralism Covenantal pluralist theory calls for a constitutional order characterized by freedom of religion conscience and equality of rights and responsibilities combined with a culture of practical religious literacy and virtues of mutual respect and protection Volume I offers a pioneering exploration of the prospects for this robust and non relativistic type of pluralism in East Southeast Asia Volume II examines South Central Asia The chapters in these volumes originally appeared as research articles in a series on covenantal pluralism published by The Review of Faith International Affairs
