Property In Land And Other Resources:

Housing, Land, and Property Rights in Post-Conflict United Nations and Other Peace Operations Scott Leckie, 2009 This book is about the UN's role in housing land and property rights in countries after violent conflict

Governance, Natural Resources and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding Carl Bruch, Carroll Muffett, Sandra Nichols, 2016-04-07 When the guns are silenced those who have survived armed conflict need food water shelter the means to earn a living and the promise of safety and a return to civil order Meeting these needs while sustaining peace requires more than simply having governmental structures in place it requires good governance Natural resources are essential to sustaining people and peace in post conflict countries but governance failures often jeopardize such efforts This book examines the theory practice and often surprising realities of post conflict governance natural resource management and peacebuilding in fifty conflict affected countries and territories It includes thirty nine chapters written by more than seventy researchers diplomats military personnel and practitioners from governmental intergovernmental and nongovernmental organizations The book highlights the mutually reinforcing relationship between natural resource management and good governance Natural resource management is crucial to rebuilding governance and the rule of law combating corruption improving transparency and accountability engaging disenfranchised populations and building confidence after conflict At the same time good governance is essential for ensuring that natural resource management can meet immediate needs for post conflict stability and development while simultaneously laying the foundation for a sustainable peace Drawing on analyses of the close relationship between governance and natural resource management the book explores lessons from past conflicts and ongoing reconstruction efforts illustrates how those lessons may be applied to the formulation and implementation of more effective governance initiatives and presents an emerging theoretical and practical framework for policy makers researchers practitioners and students Governance Natural Resources and Post Conflict Peacebuilding is part of a global initiative to identify and analyze lessons in post conflict peacebuilding and natural resource management The project has generated six books of case studies and analyses with contributions from practitioners policy makers and researchers Other books in this series address high value resources land water livelihoods and assessing and restoring natural resources Offshore

Lending and Financing Vaumini Amin, 1997-12-05 Written for the international banking and financial services community their advisors and offshore companies this is the first book comprehensively to address the principles and practice of bank lending to offshore tax haven entities Highly practical in its analysis of lending considerations via this secretive sector it also contains a comparative study of law and practice in key offshore jurisdictions Housing, Land and Property Rights

Scott Leckie, 2023-09-15 This book explores various contemporary aspects of the growing field of housing land and property HLP rights HLP rights have undergone a major transformation in recent decades but much remains to be done to bring their promise to the billions of people who have yet to access them This work presents several innovative ways by which the entire field of HLP rights can be strengthened in support of those to whom they are promised by human rights laws It outlines the author's suggestions for creating a new World Restitution Agency expanding our understanding of the term internationally wrongful act to HLP crimes the links between mine action and HLP rights in post conflict societies and the need to include HLP issues in peace agreements The book concludes with several chapters that outline suggestions for better addressing climate displacement including the need for national climate land banks the role of the courts and how to redistribute global wealth towards rehousing the millions set to be displaced from their homes and lands due to the effects of climate change The volume will be essential reading for academics researchers and policymakers working in the areas of international human rights law housing land and property issues humanitarian issues and climate change The United Nations Principles on Housing and Property Restitution for Refugees and Displaced Persons Khaled Hassine, Scott Leckie, 2015-11-30 In the first Commentary on the United Nations Principles on Housing and Property Restitution for Refugees and Displaced Persons known colloquially as the Pinheiro Principles Khaled Hassine and Scott Leckie outline the restitution rights of persons who have faced forced displacement and the loss of their homes lands and properties The Commentary compiles and analyzes in considerable detail the legal contents of the Pinheiro Principles a consolidated international instrument generated by the United Nations in 2005 to provide a solid normative framework on these questions and which legal duties exist for states and the international community to secure them The book will be of vital interest for all actors concerned with applying restitution rights in practice ORRRC Study Report United States. Outdoor Recreation Resources Review Commission, 1962 Conflict and Housing, Land and Property Rights Scott Leckie, Chris Huggins, 2011-02-21 Housing land and property HLP rights as rights are widely recognized throughout international human rights and humanitarian law and provide a clear and consistent legal normative framework for developing better approaches to the HLP challenges faced by the UN and others seeking to build long term peace This book analyses the ubiquitous HLP challenges present in all conflict and post conflict settings It will bridge the worlds of the practitioner and the theorist by combining an overview of the international legal and policy frameworks on HLP rights with dozens of detailed case studies demonstrating country experiences from around the world The book will be of particular interest to professors and students of international relations law human rights and peace and conflict studies but will have a wider readership among practitioners working for international institutions such as the United Nations and the World Bank non governmental organizations and national agencies in the developing world Basis of Assets, 1993 Statistics of Income, 1960 Reproducible Federal Tax Forms for Use in Libraries United States. Internal Revenue Service, 1991
