Nikkei Farmer On The Nebraska Plains A Memoir Plains Histories:

Nikkei Farmer on the Nebraska Plains Hisanori Kano, 2010 The memoir of Japanese born Hisanori Kano who immigrated to the United States in 1916 to learn and apply American agricultural practices on the Nebraska Plains Ordained as an Episcopal minister and interned during WWII Kano's memoir reveals how he adapted to a changing American culture and landscape Provided by publisher A Companion to American Agricultural History R. Douglas Hurt, 2022-05-11 Provides a solid foundation for understanding American agricultural history and offers new directions for research A Companion to American Agricultural History addresses the key aspects of America's complex agricultural past from 8 000 BCE to the first decades of the twenty first century Bringing together more than thirty original essays by both established and emerging scholars this innovative volume presents a succinct and accessible overview of American agricultural history while delivering a state of the art assessment of modern scholarship on a diversity of subjects themes and issues The essays provide readers with starting points for their exploration of American agricultural history whether in general or in regards to a specific topic and highlights the many ways the agricultural history of America is of integral importance to the wider American experience Individual essays trace the origin and development of agricultural politics and policies examine changes in science technology and government regulations offer analytical suggestions for new research areas discuss matters of ethnicity and gender in American agriculture and more This Companion Introduces readers to a uniquely wide range of topics within the study of American agricultural history Provides a narrative summary and a critical examination of field defining works Introduces specific topics within American agricultural history such as agrarian reform agribusiness and agricultural power and production Discusses the impacts of American agriculture on different groups including Native Americans African Americans and European Asian and Latinx immigrants Views the agricultural history of America through new interdisciplinary lenses of race class and the environment Explores depictions of American agriculture in film popular music literature and art A Companion to American Agricultural History is an essential resource for introductory students and general readers seeking a concise overview of the subject and for graduate students and scholars wanting to learn about a particular aspect of American agricultural history John Okada Frank Abe, Greg Robinson, Floyd Cheung, 2018-07-03 No No Boy John Okada's only published novel centers on a Japanese American who refuses to fight for the country that incarcerated him and his people in World War II and upon release from federal prison after the war is cast out by his divided community In 1957 the novel faced a similar rejection until it was rediscovered and reissued in 1976 to become a celebrated classic of American literature As a result of Okada's untimely death at age forty seven the author's life and other works have remained obscure This compelling collection offers the first full length examination of Okada's development as an artist placing recently discovered writing by Okada alongside essays that reassess his lasting legacy Meticulously researched biographical details insight from friends and relatives and a trove of intimate photographs illuminate Okada's early life in

Seattle military service and careers as a public librarian and a technical writer in the aerospace industry This volume is an essential companion to No No Boy Women on the North American Plains Renee M. Laegreid, Sandra K. Mathews, 2011 The first comprehensive work highlighting the diversity of women's experiences on the North American Plains twelve essays present women's perspectives from prehistory to the present across the northern central and southern plains Provided by publisher Nebraska History Addison Erwin Sheldon, James Lee Sellers, James C. Olson, 2015 Gathering at God's Table Katharine Jefferts Schori, 2012 A profound reminder of our role in God's vision for a restored and reconciled world The work before us this mission of God's is immense cosmic even The world is hungry thirsty homeless sick lonely imprisoned and enslaved because some parts are The creation is groaning in travail because of our abuse of the garden in which we have been set The body is ailing Participating in God's mission is about seeing and responding to that collective suffering and beginning to understand our interconnection with the other parts of the body from the Introduction In the Christian tradition believers are called to do more than sit around and pray Throughout the Gospel and throughout history people of faith have been quite literally booted out into the world to bring God's love to everybody not just a select few That's the meaning of mission from the Latin verb mitto meaning to send It is the work that Jesus and his disciples set out to do feeding healing and teaching In an insightful and powerful voice Katharine Jefferts Schori presiding bishop of The Episcopal Church explores the meaning of mission in the context of contemporary life reminding us of the Anglican Communion's Five Marks of Mission Proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom Teach Baptize and Nurture New Believers Respond to Human Need with Loving Service Seek to Transform Unjust Structures of Society Strive to Safeguard the Integrity of Creation and Sustain and Renew the Life of the Earth Great Plains Quarterly, 2011 South Dakota History, 2011 Urban Villages and Local Identities Kurt E. Kinbacher, 2015 Urban Villages and Local Identities examines immigration to the Great Plains by surveying the experiences of three divergent ethnic groups Volga Germans Omaha Indians and Vietnamese that settled in enclaves in Lincoln Nebraska beginning in 1876 1941 and 1975 respectively These urban villages served as safe havens that protected new arrivals from a mainstream that often eschewed unfamiliar cultural practices Lincoln's large Volga German population was last fully discussed in 1918 Omahas are rarely studied as urban people although sixty five percent of their population lives in cities and the growing body of work on Vietnamese tends to be conducted by social scientists rather than historians few of whom contrast Southeast Asian experiences with those of earlier waves of immigration As a comparative study Urban Villages and Local Identities is inspired in part by Reinventing Free Labor by Gunther Peck By focusing on the experiences of three populations over the course of 130 years Urban Villages connects two distinct eras of international border crossing and broadens the field of immigration to include Native Americans Ultimately the work yields insights into the complexity flexibility and durability of cultural identities among ethnic groups and the urban mainstream in one capital city Beneath Heavy Pines in World War II Louisiana Hayley Johnson, Sarah Simms, 2023-06-21

December 7 1941 changed the lives of thousands of Japanese Americans who became enemy in the eyes of the United States government within hours With Pearl Harbor still smoldering these men would be arrested and put into the enemy alien internment system As the study of internment has steadily grown the information about the confinement sites and ability to piece together the experiences of the men within has remained a challenging task Camp Livingston famous as a site for the Louisiana Maneuvers holds a darker and less well known history From 1942 1943 over 1 000 men of Japanese ancestry were held in this internment camp in the pine forests of central Louisiana The authors approach this camp s history via the experiences and linkages to and through two families the Miyamotos and Koharas who are the beating heart at the center of this saga Through them the authors have laid out a historical counter narrative that is part biography and part critical exploration of a forgotten chapter of American history This manuscript is the first of its kind to focus primarily on exploring Camp Livingston arguably one of the lesser known enemy alien internment camps in depth including its layout operations and the daily life and experiences of the internees within
