Merchant Kings When Companies Ruled The World 1600 1900:

Merchant Kings Stephen R. Bown, 2009-12-01 Commerce meets conquest in this swashbuckling story of the six merchant adventurers who built the modern world as told by Canada's Simon Winchester Globe and Mail Through the Age of Heroic Commerce from the 17th to the 19th centuries a rogue's gallery of larger than life merchant kings ruled vast tracts of the globe and expanded their far flung monopolies to generate revenue for their shareholders feather their own nests and satisfy their vanity and curiosity Their exploits changed the world during an age of unfettered globalization mirroring a world we know today Merchant Kings looks at each ruling monopoly through its greatest merchant king and considers their stories together for the first time Jan Pieterszoon Coen of the Dutch East India Company Pieter Stuyvesant of the Dutch West India Company Robert Clive of the English East India Company Alexandr Baranov of the Russian American Company George Simpson of the Hudson's Bay Company Cecil John Rhodes of the British South Africa Company Slavery, Geography and Empire in Nineteenth-Century Marine Landscapes of Montreal and Jamaica Charmaine A. Nelson, 2017-07-05 Slavery Geography and Empire in Nineteenth Century Marine Landscapes of Montreal and Jamaica is among the first Slavery Studies books and the first in Art History to juxtapose temperate and tropical slavery Charmaine A Nelson explores the central role of geography and its racialized representation as landscape art in imperial conquest One could easily assume that nineteenth century Montreal and Jamaica were worlds apart but through her astute examination of marine landscape art the author re connects these two significant British island colonies sites of colonial ports with profound economic and military value Through an analysis of prints illustrated travel books and maps the author exposes the fallacy of their disconnection arguing instead that the separation of these colonies was a retroactive fabrication designed in part to rid Canada of its deeply colonial history as an integral part of Britain's global trading network which enriched the motherland through extensive trade in crops produced by enslaved workers on tropical plantations The first study to explore James Hakewill's Jamaican landscapes and William Clark's Antiguan genre studies in depth it also examines the Montreal landscapes of artists including Thomas Davies Robert Sproule George Heriot and James Duncan Breaking new ground Nelson reveals how gender and race mediated the aesthetic and scientific access of such mainly white male artists She analyzes this moment of deep political crisis for British slave owners between the end of the slave trade in 1807 and complete abolition in 1833 who employed visual culture to imagine spaces free of conflict and to alleviate their pervasive anxiety about slave resistance Nelson explores how vision and cartographic knowledge translated into authority which allowed colonizers to civilize the terrains of the so called New World while belying the oppression of slavery and indigenous displacement The Emerald Handbook of African Studies Kingsley Obi Omeihe, Christian Harrison, 2025-08-25 The Emerald Handbook of African Studies forces one to rethink the very nature of African research serving as a catalyst for new fresh thought and acuminating our understanding of the social world ASEAN Champions Seung Ho Park, Gerardo Rivera Ungson, Jamil Paolo S. Francisco, 2017 This book
