

Widows Prayer

Heavenly Father,
Most loving and gracious God,
You know the pain and sorrow of death, mercifully hear our prayers for those who mourn the death of their beloved. The nights are lonely and the days are too long. Comfort them and bring an end to the days of tears. Bless them and bring an end to their days of sorrow.
Renew them with the joy of life and bring to an end their days of mourning.

Prayer For Widows:

Prayers for a Widow's Heart Margaret Nyman, 2015-10-15 Margaret Nyman learned of her husband's cancer only 42 days before he died. After four decades of marriage to Nate, she was thrown into widowhood with all the emotions and questions that follow. She reached out to God with her aching heart, and now she's helping other widows to do the same in her book Prayers for a Widow's Heart. This Scripture-based book of 60 prayers brings hope and healing to widows by offering heartfelt prayers and biblical reminders of God's promises.

Prayer Book for Widows Kay M. Cozad, 2005-05-17 Dear Father, As the anniversary of our wedding draws near, I pray again that You hold my husband in Your gentle embrace. Share with him the endless joy of knowing You. Shower him with Your love and grace. Remind him if it be Your will of my undying love for him. These days are sometimes hard for me as memories of our sweet vows wring my heart and tears flow silently. As I walk this earth alone, I ask You please for grace. Give me courage, Lord, for in my weakness You are strong. I have placed my faith in You. O Lord, I pray that on the day my journey ends and I come home to You, that my beloved be there waiting too. Reunite us for all eternity in Your everlasting love. Until then, I wait in hopeful faith and pray to You. Amen. This is a prayer book like no other written by a widow for widows. The prayers center on the emotions and situations a widow faces. It is a powerful resource for grief ministers, family members, and friends.

Prayer Book for Widows Kay Cozad, 2004 A prayer book like no other written by a widow for widows. Prayers center on the emotions and situations a widow faces. A powerful resource for grief ministers, family members, and friends. Makes a thoughtful and much appreciated gift.

Early Christian Widows and their Social-economic Situation, Support, and Contribution to the Church Rebekah Yurong Zhao, 2025-10-02 In the first consideration of widows in early Christianity, Rebekah Yurong Zhao explores the social economic situation of widows, their means of support, and their contributions to the church. Through literary analysis of three different genres of early Christian texts: narrative, instruction, and apologetic texts, Zhao argues that historical conclusions can be drawn especially when set against the cultural backgrounds in both the Roman world and ancient Judaism. By exploring the situation for widowed women in these cultures and analysing significant texts from the first two centuries of the church, including 1 Timothy, the Shepherd of Hermas, Ignatius, Polycarp, Tertullian, and the Apologists, Zhao seeks to answer three key questions: what status did widows hold in early Christian society, who precisely comprised their support network, and what contributions did they make to the church. Ultimately, this volume examines how support for widows became an iconic practice in early Christianity whilst also dispelling the stereotype of the widow as merely a passive recipient of care.

Salty Wives, Spirited Mothers, and Savvy Widows F. Scott Spencer, 2012-12-19 Engaging feminist hermeneutics and philosophy in addition to more traditional methods of biblical study, Salty Wives, Spirited Mothers, and Savvy Widows demonstrates and celebrates the remarkable capability and ingenuity of several women in the Gospel of Luke. While recent studies have exposed women's limited opportunities for ministry in Luke, Scott Spencer pulls the pendulum back from a negative feminist critical pole.

toward a more constructive center Granting that Luke sends somewhat mixed messages about women's work and status as Jesus disciples Spencer analyzes such women as Mary Elizabeth Joanna Martha and Mary and the infamous yet intriguing wife of Lot whom Jesus exhorts his followers to remember as well as the unrelentingly persistent women characters in Jesus parables

Praying Our Grief: Comfort and Prayers for Widows Linda Perrone Rooney, 2008-06 30 day plan of action and prayer for newly widowed

Women & Christian Origins Ross Shepard Kraemer, 1999 This new collection of fourteen integrated original essays by prominent scholars and experienced teachers provides a comprehensive and accessible entree to current research on women and the origins of Christianity Engaging for both the interested reader and the specialist in religion Women and Christian Origins is sensitive to feminist theory and attentive to distinctions between the reconstruction of women's history in early Christian churches and ancient constructions of gender difference

The Profession of Widowhood Katherine Clark Walter, 2018-09-21 The Profession of Widowhood explores how the idea of true widowhood was central to pre modern ideas concerning marriage and of female identity more generally The medieval figure of the Christian vere vidua or good widow evolved from and reinforced ancient social and religious sensibilities of chastity loyalty and grief as gendered work The ideal widow was a virtuous woman who mourned her dead husband in chastity solitude and most importantly in perpetuity marking her as a widow indeed 1 Tim 5 5 The widow who failed to display adequate grief fulfilled the stereotype of the merry widow who forgot her departed spouse and abused her sexual and social freedom Stereotypes of widows good and bad served highly charged ideological functions in pre modern culture and have remained durable even in modern times even as Western secular society now focuses more on a woman's recovery from grief and possible re coupling than the expectation that she remain forever widowed The widow represented not only the powerful bond created by love and marriage but also embodied the conventions of grief that ordered the response when those bonds were broken by premature death This notion of the widow as both a passive memorial to her husband and as an active rememberer was rooted in ancient traditions and appropriated by early Christian and medieval authors who used good widowhood to describe the varieties of female celibacy and to define the social and gender order A tradition of widowhood characterized by chastity solitude and permanent bereavement affirmed both the sexual mores and political agenda of the medieval Church Medieval widows both holy women recognized as saints and ordinary women in medieval daily life recognized this tradition of professed chastity in widowhood not only as a valuable strategy for avoiding remarriage and protecting their independence but as a state with inherent dignity that afforded opportunities for spiritual development in this world and eternal merit in the next
