Collective Action! Rob Fiehn, Kyle Buchanan, Mellis Haward, 2023-05-19 Buildings cannot be built without people working together Architects collaborate with other disciplines other architects and even with the public These take place every day across multiple planning and design stages Small or emerging practices often suffer from a lack of resources but what if we pooled our collective resources sharing knowledge and experiences Collaborative architecture begins in the design studio and the relationship between academia and practice can create a symbiosis that is fundamental to the careers of young and more established architects It provides a space to develop and test approaches outside of routine commercial pressures using research to yield new approaches that further the impact of the architecture sector more widely By cooperating we can facilitate a good design process can lay the foundation for a better form of architecture that provides greater diversity and a plurality of voices This volume showcases how practices have the potential to adapt remain resilient and harness collective power to become greater than the sum of their parts The future is bright for architects if they can unite Take Collective Action Features Sarah Ahmed Marc Cairns Alasdair Ben Dixon Amy Francis Smith Lanre Gbolade Stephen Hill Khuzema Hussain Lacol Matthew Morris Chris Nasah David Ogunmuyiwa POoR Collective Retrouvius Dhruv Adam Sookhoo Samuel Stair Tomas Tvarijonas Dr Joe Jack Williams WIP Collaborative and Siri Zanelli

The Roots and Uses of Marketing Knowledge Terry Smith, 2020-01-20 Marketing theory is often developed in isolation not collaboration theoretical perspectives sometimes are ignorant of the diversity of marketing practice In The roots and uses of marketing knowledge a critical inquiry into the theory and practice of marketing the author engages with the vital conversation about how marketing knowledge is created disseminated and consumed looking beyond the traditional reification of practice in theory and verification of theory in practice The ontology of this work is anchored in subjective individual meaning the epistemological stance assumes that this meaning is socially constructed Consequently rich empirical data grounded in the context of experiential evidence is extracted from a comprehensive range of marketing constituencies academics practitioners managers consultants authors lecturers and students In its examination of the polarities hybridity and iterative flow of marketing knowledge creation and consumption this text posits a cohesive argument for a theory practice bipartite fusion not dichotomy adding valuable insights into the textual contextual and pedagogical representations of marketing knowledge The history and future of marketing knowledge is examined with the aid of instructive illustrations and insightful first hand experience Drawing on extensive qualitative research from a broad range of influential producers and vital consumers Dr Smith presents a relevant exciting marketing knowledge framework which will be a vital resource for academics students and practitioners Music Saved Them, They Say Lukas Pairon, 2020-05-19 Music Saved Them They Say Social Impacts of Music Making and Learning in Kinshasa DR Congo explores the role music making has played in community projects run for young people in the poverty stricken and often violent surroundings of Kinshasa the capital city of the Democratic Republic of the Congo The musicians described here former gang members and so called witch children living on the streets believe music was vital in re constructing their lives Based on fieldwork carried out over the course of three and a half years of research the study synthesizes interviews focus group sessions and participant observation to contextualize this complicated cultural and social environment Inspired by those who have been saved by music Music Saved Them They Say seeks to understand how structured musical practice and education can influence the lives of young people in such difficult living conditions in Kinshasa and beyond a tribute to the persistence engagement and courage of the people in these projects who can be proud that their work is now exposed to a global audience not just of researchers but also to practitioners around the world who could learn from and be inspired by these hitherto unknown projects John Sloboda Research Professor Guildhall School of Music Drama This book is very moving but never sentimental one of the best accounts of music's real transformative capacities that I have come across Lucy Green Emerita Professor of Music Education University College London Institute of Education Methodologies for Practice Research Carol Costley, John Fulton, 2018-12-10 Order your digital inspection copy here Sharp and focused this book provides the need to know information on how to design and implement a good high quality research project Oriented around real world application it emphasizes the aspects of research most relevant to conducting practice based research Assuming no prior knowledge but appropriate for experienced learners it builds knowledge at a sustainable pace It offers readers A no frills guide to methodology and the theory of conducting research Strategies for communicating complex ideas Insight into common impact driven methods like action research case study and mixed methods Ways to develop systematic research projects within the boundaries of everyday working life Ample opportunities to test and apply newfound knowledge With streamlined advice tailored specifically to support research in professional contexts this book is the essential toolkit every researcher who is embarking on a practice led project needs Educating Teachers Online in Challenging Times Kevin Wai Ho Yung, Hui Xuan Xu, 2023-05-29 This edited collection documents the challenges experienced by teacher educators in service teachers and student teachers in Hong Kong triggered by protests civil unrest and the global outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic and identifies innovative practices in curriculum pedagogy and assessment that have enabled them to overcome the challenges in online teaching It offers implications for teacher professional development through reflective practices and the enhancement of the scholarship of teaching and learning in the teacher education sector in Hong Kong and beyond Teaching and learning in various education sectors in Hong Kong experienced unprecedented challenges starting in late 2019 The suspension of face to face teaching resulted in the reliance on e technology and online teaching and learning Many teachers and students felt unprepared and thus experienced emotional distress However the challenges opened up opportunities for teacher educators to revamp their instructional and assessment practices to cater for students learning needs in the online environment The chapters are split into five sections covering the situation of teacher education in challenging times stakeholders experiences and challenges in teaching and learning curriculum and pedagogical innovations assessment and feedback practices and finally scholarship of teaching and learning The book will be of particular interest to those who are committed to professional development through strengthening their reflective practice online teaching and the scholarship of teaching and learning It will also be an ideal text for education scholars and postgraduate students in curriculum planning innovative online pedagogies and assessment practices in teacher education and the broader higher education context

Transnational Research in English Language Teaching Rashi Jain,Bedrettin Yazan,Suresh Canagarajah,2022-07-15 This edited volume contributes to the creation of a comprehensive and a more inclusive understanding of an increasingly complex global ELT landscape across countries as well as across teaching and learning settings The volume brings together inquiries from language teachers educators and researchers from different backgrounds in the Global South and the Global North who use their experiences of shuttling across borders to reflect on the shaping of their pedagogical research and professional practices across higher education settings The chapters weave the personal professional and theoretical in a seamless manner examining transnational identities and pedagogical practices formed and informed by both communities home and host and include narratives that are not unidirectional The contributing authors also use a variety of qualitative research methods along with reflexive writing and exploration of the authors own positionalities to shed light on transnational identities and critique dominant pedagogical assumptions
