Middle Ages / Renaissance Compare /Contrast Chart

Directions: The following chart represents broad generalizations concerning the Middle Ages and the Renaissance. In many ways the two time periods were direct opposites. The Renaissance in some ways was a reaction or an effect of the Middle Ages.

Middle Ages	Renaissance
Only nobility could gain an education. Universities are closely tied to cathedrals. Self-sufficient manors did not include education as a function. Most people were illiterate.	1. Extensive interest in education especially the classical Greek and Roman ideas
Life was Monotonous. Feudalism and Manorialism guided life. No questioning the bible.	2. Development of a skeptical attitude toward life. Less reliance on authority and more on investigation.
The Afterlife was most important. Life on earth was only significant as a vehicle to the afterlife in heaven.	3. The Secular (non-religious) world & the "here" and the now were stressed Life is worth living for its own sake.
The Bible taught you exactly how to act.	4. Secular morality – there was a proper way to act besides the model mentioned in the Bible.
