Migration And Mobility In The European Union The European Union Series:

Migration and Mobility in the European Union Andrew Geddes, Leila Hadj-Abdou, Leiza Brumat, 2020-04-22 International migration and mobility whether from outside the EU or in the form of free movement by EU citizens are controversial and potentially divisive issues that are and will remain at the top of the EU's political agenda This fully revised and updated text analyses the complex and often controversial nature of policymaking in this fast developing field and brings the discussion up to date as the ramifications of the so called migration crisis continue to unfold It offers an exploration of the dynamics of migration and mobility in the EU including different types of migration the EU's policy framework within which national policies are now located and considers the widespread notion and public perception of policy failure in this field Unique in its portrayal of policy responses to migration in Europe this text will be essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of the politics of migration European integration and the Politics of EU as well as anyone with an interest in this fascinating policy area

The European Union's Evolving External Engagement Chad Damro, Sieglinde Gstöhl, Simon Schunz, 2017-11-07 In recent decades the external action of the European Union EU has been undergoing considerable change An expansion of the EU's external policy portfolio can be observed in many areas as previous policies for internal purposes such as competition energy the environment justice and home affairs or monetary governance but also gender science culture or higher education have developed external dimensions This book addresses the EU's potential to become a more joined up global actor in its external engagement It uses a single and innovative analytical framework to examine three clusters of policies EU internal sectoral and cross cutting policies with long standing external engagement those which have been undergoing considerable change and originally internal policies whose external dimensions are comparatively more recent It identifies key explanatory factors for the emergence of certain forms of EU external engagement and identifies patterns of the evolving relations between EU internal and external sectoral policies As such the book examines and assesses exciting new empirical and theoretical research avenues into European integration studies and offers insights into the extent to which the EU may be considered a more joined up global actor developing sectoral diplomacies This text will be of key interest to scholars and students as well as practitioners in the fields of European Union politics European Union foreign policy European Politics diplomacy studies and more broadly law and international relations

Interregionalism and the European Union Mario Telò, Louise Fawcett, Frederik Ponjaert, 2016-03-09 Is the EU isolated within the emergent multipolar world Concentrating on interregional relations and focussing on the European Union's EU evolving international role with regards to regional cooperation this innovative book collects a set of fresh empirical analyses of interregional ties binding the EU with its Eastern and Southern neighbourhood as well as with Asia Africa and the Americas The 25 leading authors from 5 continents have contributed original and diverse chapters and the book advances a novel theoretical post revisionist approach beyond both the Eurocentrism of Europe First perspectives as well as the Euroscepticism of those advocating to simply move Beyond Europe After a Foreword by A Acharya the book s five sections reflect the main drivers of EU interregional policies The European Union as a Sophisticated Laboratory of Regional and Interregional Cooperation with chapters by M Tel L Fawcett and T Risse De Facto Drivers of Regionalism F Ponjaert M Shu A Vallad o and C Jakobeit De Jure Drivers of Regionalism S Lavenex G Finizio C Jakobeit R Coman C Cocq S Teo L Shah Cognitive Drivers of Regionalism J R land E Fitriani S Stavridis S Kingah P Bacon and Instrumental Drivers of Regionalism B Delcourt C Olsson G M ller A Malamud P Seabra and L Fioramonti J Kostopoulos

Migration, Mobility and Human Rights at the Eastern Border of the European Union Grigore Silași,2008 European Citizenship and Identity Outside of the European Union Agnieszka Weiner,2019-06-27 This book critically engages with the concept of European identity and citizenship and the role of the European Union in diaspora membership and emigration policies It presents original research on European governance of emigration and citizenship and considers European integration in a global context It questions whether there can be a European diaspora outside the European Union if European governance of emigration is possible and whether the EU can or should govern its diasporas in the global era By engaging with concepts of European citizenship diaspora and identity the author examines the weak meaning of Europe for EU nationals living abroad and finds that European public spaces present and sustained within the European Union territory are largely not exported outside of it Equal treatment and equal rights become empty concepts for Europeans leaving the European Union as they lose their European citizenship This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European Union politics European studies migration studies American and Canadian studies and the sociology of migration

People on the Move ZSOLT. BATSAIKHAN DARVAS (UURIINTUYA. GONCALVES RAPOSO, INES.),Uuriintuya Batsaikhan,Inês Gonçalves Raposo,2018-03-06 Immigration tops the list of challenges of greatest concern to European Union citizens Such movement of people pose major challenges for policymakers EU countries must integrate immigrants while managing often distorted public perceptions of immigration This Blueprint offers an in depth study that contributes to the evidence base

The European Union's Immigration Policy Ayselin Gözde Yıldız,2016-08-12 This book analyzes the externalization of the EU s immigration and asylum practices towards non member transit countries and the consequences of this process Selected policy areas of externalization border management visa policy readmission agreements and asylum policy are applied to Turkey and Morocco as two main migration transit countries within two different institutional cooperation mechanisms Turkey as an EU candidate country within the EU s enlargement policy Morocco without membership prospect within the EU s neighborhood policy Y ld z applies theoretical debates and critically compares the rhetoric in policy papers with practice in the field This volume not only contributes to the issue of the external dimension of EU immigration policy by incorporating transit countries into the debate but also expands upon our understanding of the EU's contested external governance paradigm. It will be of use to students, scholars and policy makers in the field of European studies, migration and asylum studies, international relations and political science.

The European Union in Africa Maurizio Carbone, 2015-11-01. The European Union in Africa: Incoherent policies, asymmetrical partnership, declining relevance. This book provides a comprehensive analysis of EU-Africa relations since the beginning of the twenty-first century and includes contributions from leading experts in the field of EU external relations. It seeks to explain how the relationship evolved through discussion of a number of different policies and agreements ranging from established areas such as aid, agriculture, trade and security to new areas such as migration, climate change, energy and social policies. This book successfully challenges a number of widely held assumptions on the role of the EU in Africa and at the same time sheds light on the role and identity of the EU in the international arena. It will be of great interest to students and scholars in the field of EU external relations as well as practitioners of international development.

Labour Migration in the European Union Gönül Oğuz, 2020-03-12. No analysis of migration in Europe today can avoid consideration of the role of the EU institutions as well as the member states in policy making. This is because the obstacles for labour mobility which have confronted the EU in the post-enlargement period have been multi-dimensional in nature, have encompassed many different aspects of the European integration process and have operated at many different levels. Recent developments in the free movement of labour in Europe entail a comprehensive analysis of the dynamic of migration policy process, contextualising institutional change, cooperation, control and competition between the EU institutions and the member states. This book provides a picture of how governance of labour migration is constructed, managed, negotiated and decided at the European level. It brings together in an informed and well-organized way some of the key issues in the face of current migration crises and Brexit.
